Mr. Farncomb's Speech.

BOBCAYGEON, Sept. 7th, 1887.

DEAR SIR,—Having been represented in your issue of Aug. 19th, 1887, at the indignation meeting here, Aug. 16th, as eaying that  a man had a perfect right has gone home to Rochester, after having spent six joyful weeks in Canada. We trust Miss Graves will give Canada splendid recommendation.

GONE AWAY, -Mrs. William Hen-

A FURIOUS RUNAWAY.—When Samuel Stewart finished raking, he perceived that one of his horses was in a neighbor's field, and when he went to put the horse out, not leaving a spoke within either wheels.

THRESHING.—John White emptied a barn 50x30 in half a day. Who can beat that?

QUERY. — Who were those young couple that stopped at a man's gate until half-past one o'clock in the morning?

DALRYMPLE.

A LITTLE welcome, and much needed. rain during the past week has had a good effect in dampening the serious and extension sive fires that for many weeks have caused widespread anxiety and, in some cases, great loss.

FARMERS have been very busy threshing for some days, and the hum still goes on. Crops fair; but nearly all suffered from the continued drought.

But it is a second, only the little game of changing the fire a the construction of the matter, to suffer the construction of the matter, to suffer the construction of the matter, and the matter of the matter of
