11 Per Annum in Advance.

LINDSAY, ONT., PRIDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1887.

Vol. XXXI.-Whole No. 1601

MILLINERY AND MANTLES. The Victoria Warder

MISS O'BRIEN

pegs to announce that she has in stock a complete assertment of the newest MILLINERY GOODS, including

HATS, BONNETS, PLUMES, PLUSHES, NEW PLAIDS

And a choice lot of VELVET RIBBONS in all the new shades. The Ladies of the Town and County are specially invited to call and see those goods before purchasing their winter outlit.

MANTLES MADE TO ORDER.

Wanted.

A servant sirt, Apply at the Methodist parsonage,

For Sale Cheap. Two comfortable dwellings, with authoridings an arounds. Apply to E. P. Otto E. 1600-8

All parties indebted to S. J. MELVILLE will kindly call and settle at once and avoid further truble. 18th.

Notice.

parties having received notice of the amount of Dr. Counter's account against them, and who do not attend to the same at once will be sued.

Stiff.

R. H. ROPKINS.

Private Boarding.

A few contiemen can be accommodated with private hearding on Austel St., apposite Dr. Coulter's, W. E. MURFIY. Lindsay, Oct. 23, 1887. =97-th. Houses to Let.

Two houses, conveniently structed on William St., i. the Lundy Perrace. For further particulars apply to Stlevick, William St., Lindsay, 100-3.

For Sale for $15.

A Square Farler Coat Store, nearly new, that cost 338, price 349. Will be seld for $16. It belongs to a gentleman in form, Full particulars made known at Tur Warmer Office, $2000.3

Thoroughbred Improved Bork-shire Boar.

Will be kept for service on Lat 2, Con. 18. Emily.
The is a perfect specimen of a Berkshire Pig.
Terms 21 00. JAMES MCRAHET, Emily. 99 5.

Thoroughbred Borkshire Boar. Will be kept for ervice on hot so, Con. 18, MAN-TREE Productor undeputable. Bred from unported to k. Terms, $1,50, to be paid at time of service. JAMES JACKSON, Fleetwo d, Unc. 25-19.

House To Rent.

Being house and lot, with stable; situated on Eight Effects

Frick House for Sale in Lindsay.

Farm to Rent or Sell.

Farm for Sale in Fencion.

The indersigned offers for sale, west half het H. Con. 5. Fencion, 100 acres of good land, on cleared and in rood entiretion. Nine miles from Lindsay, eight from Cameron Falts, five from Cambray and two from Cameron rathway station. For further particulars amply on the premises, JOHN MARK, Cameron P. O. September 19th, 1887.—92 th.

into the premises of the subscriber, two helfers and one built out, spring culves. The owner will please call and offere property, pay charges and take them away. HUCH WILSON, Let &, Conc. 18, Marie posa, Nov. 4th, 1847, ~1600-3

A stray ply—a boar, came into the premises of the understand, Let I7, Con 10, Ope, about the first week of October. It is black in color. Owner will prove property and pay expenses, or the animal will is sold by auction. HUGH PAPFON. Lindsay P.O.

Came into the premises of the undersigned, about the 1st of August lant, a Red and White Bull, about 3 years old. The owner is requested to prove property, pay expenses, and take the animal away, perty, pay expenses, and take the animal away, perty, pay expenses, and take the animal away, perty, pay expenses, and take the animal away, when the second second

MARRIAGE

LICENSES.

T. BEALL, LINDSAY,

J. BRITTON.

(Of the firm of Ariston Brown, Jewellers, kindens,)

ISSUER OF

For the Co. of Victoria.

GREAT AUCTION SALE

Valuable Lots

VILLAGE OF CANNINGTON.

THE PROPERTY OF

GEORGE LAIDLAW, ESQ. will be sold on WEDNESDAY, NOV. 30th.

At the Queen's Hotel, Cannington, at the hour of One o'clock pemer sharp.

NeWe gre 7, orde 7, Fencion, 60 seres Lot 13, con, V, Suphenson, 100 seres

Lot 38, con. XIV, Stepheneon; good barn

Lots 18 and 10, con. IV, Stephenson; These two lots for $1,000. Good frame house. Near two villages, railway station, river, etc. The very boat bargain in Canada.

Alon, to Leme

My Musicka Stock Farm, 1600 acres (les 300 lessed to Geo. Cookman), 300 cleared; four new frame barns, three houses, two miles from Emsdate station.

JUDICIAL SALE

Farm Property

In pursuance of an order of the High Court of Justice, Chancery Division, made by the Local Master of the Supreme Court of Judiesture for Ontario, at Lindsay, dated the 17th day of September & D. 1887, in re Hickson, Watson vs. Finch, there will be offered for safe by public suction with the approbation of the said Local Master at Lindsay, at his chambers, William St., Lindsay, or

FIRE INSURANCE.

Assurance NATIONAL Comply

HEAV OFFICE ACCOUNTAGE CONTRACTOR OF THE STATE OF THE STA FOR CANADARICATE CONTROL OF THE SALE CAPITATE CONTROL CONTR

SAM HUGHES, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. Strayed.

From the premiser of the undersigned on or also Rovember 5th, two lambs, 3 yearlings and 5 old ows. Finder or any person knowing their who abouts will kindly inform BENJ, CARSCADDE Lot 18, Con. 8, Ops, Lindsay P. O.—1-3

EVERY FRIDAY MORNING

At the Office

Futo the premises of the undersigned, one two year-old heifer. The owner is requested to call prove property, pay charges and take her away. JNO Hillis, Esst-half lot 10, cap. 6, Elson. Woodville Nov. 226, 1887. 1-8

Strayed Cattle.

Straved into the premises of Joseph Campbell, Lot 23, Con. 16, Cartwright, 2 steers and a heifer, yearlings, red with some white spots. The owner can have the more by proving property and paying expenses. JONEPH CAMPBELL 1-3

Two Hundred Dollars Reward.

The undersigned will pay the above reward to any person furnishing information that will lead to the convict on and available of the party or parties who did on the night of the 9th of November set fire to the Grain-Storehouse occupied by us in the Village will on the let Décomber next, be placed in suit for collection. WM. COWAN.

IN RE SCOTHERAN, CATHLO & MARK

APPLICATIONS

Will be received until TUESDAY, DECKUBER 6th, for the post ion of Caretaker of St. Andrew's Church Applicants are to state salary expected. Information as to nature of duties will be given by Lindsay, For, 21st, 1887-1-1

TENDERS.

Tenders will o received by me until SATURDAY, THE SU DAY OF DECEMBER NEXT, for a

6, 9, 10 | fishellower, 10, 21, 28, 24 New Mad of the Town of Lindsay

Township of Ops for 1887

SUMMER GRAZING.

who were simple enough to be deceived by him. The man when drunk, we see the worst and best side of him, whatever that may be. He is simply unmasked, and disp'ays without reserve all that is within. He acts out the internal impulse, and is then, or shows what he would, or is inclined to be, when sober. When drunk he does that without an apparent motive which he would like to do with, when not under the influence of liquor. Every one who has carefully observed the drunkard and studied his char acter from his actions, must have come to the conclusion that his tendencies and desires are bad, and that he is at all times and places auxiously on the look out for an opportunity for their display and gratification.

Our remarks so far are in reference to the habitual drunkard. We do not say they are all equally bad. There are no doubt degrees among them, but this is their general equally bad. There are no more deserving of respect, regard, or sympathy, than any other outfortunate who had been thrown off his involved in the consequence was they knew as little of the use and influence of alcohol, as any total abstainers. They then knew as little of the use and influence of alcohol, as any total abstainers, they had man when under the influence of liquor is, if possible, a more dangerous man when sober.

Our remarks so far are in reference to the hair and the consequence was they knew as little of the use and influence of alcohol, as any total abstainers. They then knew as little of the use and influence of alcohol, as any total abstainers, they had man when under the influence of liquor is, if possible, a more dangerous man when sober.

Our remarks so far are in reference to the habitual drunkard. We do not say they are all equally bad. There are no doubt degrees among them, but this is their general of the use of alcohol, as any total abstainers. They then how to guide and govern themselves, when the restriction of the illustration of the il acters we never know where to find, or when they will break out and disappoint all our hopes which we have so rashly formed of whiskey, the red man of the forest has fully them. ard, we may now be able to devise some ingrevence, by the introduction of one of the uneaus for the purpose of regulating and controlling his conduct. It is plain in a case like this, that reason is wholly out of the question. It will not touch him, nor can it to made to influence him in any way. He is past all moral and intellectual influences.

the writing upon the sand, which would be with the faul incerse, his nerves unstrung, bliterated by the first wave that passed over his mind vacant or wandering, but still rollit. In the next place, it is wholly impossible ing the fearful prison, as if it were a sweet to organize society in such a manner as to morsel under his torque.

remove all temptation to evil. Temptation Who does not feel sad at the dejected apmust in some form be always present, for pearance of the unhappy youth we so often evil has not an independent origin. It takes meet in the atreet, whose check has begun to Every and any thing pertaining to our in- not so much from a secret vice, as by the Stephenson, in Omemee; Mr. J. Murdock, Smyth; Vice, J. F. Cunnings; Sec. and twidual life, if carried beyond the bounds of daily intexication, of what he considers the moderation, becomes an evil. Pride is necessial tragrant cigar. The educated D McMillan, Grass Hill; T. Robinson, sary to self-respect, and love of approbation poung man who has no more self-respect, nor regard for the refinement of civiliz d life, are as much a benefit to secure the good will of others; and both are as much a benefit to secure the findividual. And apparite in a large of the individual. And apparite is a large of the individual. to include all the latest surveys, scale, 4 chains to an inch.

Parties tendering to state on what conditions they wil furnish the form with ten mounted and 50 unmounted many, as d to undertake to have the unipocoment of and ready for distribution by the lat of March next

JAMES R. RNOWLSON.

Town Clerk

The Scott Act.

To understand the drunkerd we should remember that when he is sober he is not himself. He is in that state a lying warlet, a deceiving hypecrite, one on whom no dependence can be placed, no matter what his himself, and confesses all his pretended goodness and penitonce was all a sham; and doctrine of the man, whom the house and penitonce was all a sham; and doctrine of the man, whom the house and penitone was all a sham; and laughs heartily at those, as being inferior to himself, who were simple enough to be deceived by him. The man when drunk, we see the worst and best side of him, whatever that possible, a more dangerous man when sober, they so properly termed Firewater, they had resorted to a more deadly and a more danand precision, and should be more carefully gerous mode of intexication, that of tobacco, watched, or that which is better still, never which by its long use made the race proverbial rusted; for he is one of these uncertain char for mental supidity and physical lazivess. retaliated upon his enlightened christian It this is the true character of the drunk- exemplar, and taken a most signal and sweep

Any impression made upon an organization like this, having such a basis, would be removed by the first temptation. It would be i wrise out of some proper and necessary good. blanch, and the eye assume an idiotic stare, but by an extra indulgence in sm king and where the midple of the whole of the me we shall to refere, on the fether area, he main being content of the point of the me we shall to refere, not so much for the besself of the patter of the patt man's private interest or rightful business, and that which is of about equal importance, the personal rights and privileges of the people, as free and independent citizens will not be interfered with.

SWIPES. School Notes. Miss Braden, teacher of West Ops, has been to engaged for the year 1888. We wish her The Model school students have unjustly, Model school students may frequently be seen driving in the country on Saturday. there a school to be had? is the cry.

Groups of young teachers may be seen any time after four o'clock, standing on corners d-bating the questions of the day. Keep out of their way. The high school feet-ball club plays well. They expect to go to Cobourg scon. We hope o hear good results. Mr. A. E. Clendenan, of Cembrav, having been informed of his nearly complete pass in matriculation re third class exemination of 1887 decided to return home, where he intends preparing the remaining two studies for next summer. We wish him success

-a proof of his success. not underbid each other. The trustees should qualification for the purpose of bringing the cellent number of students. It will be the Sect Act Association officiate itself and observed that a great many will be occupying become a branch of the Dominica alliance schools in this county. The following is a adopting and being governed by its ru'es and list of those who have been fortunate enough | r-gu'ations. to obtain schools already :- Miss M Deane, | Election of fifteers for the new org. in ou in Ops ; Miss M. Bowes, F-nelen ; Miss B. were then made as follows :- Presic at, R. Fencion; Mr. S. Simms F-nelon Fills; Mr. | W. Flavoile.

F. D. Moore E.q. barrister, has kindly furnished us with the following, regarding the empounding of estray cattle;—The law in Any horse, bull, ox, cow, sheep goat, pig, or other cattle, geese or poultry, unlawfully mature age, have been the first to fall when experience, they did not know how to guide themselves, and fell viatins from their ignore the enemy, before they had seen or become aware of the danger.

It is the opinion of some that astrong desire for alcohol has been council by its use. This is a grave mistake, no matter what reformed due kards, who profess to have all the experience, may allege to the contrary. Those solviery wielly rests with himself, that he cannot mently and coverning that the responsibility form him cannot mently and coverning that the responsibility form him self-cannot mently and coverning that the responsibility form himself, that he cannot menuly and coverning that the responsibility form himself, that he cannot menuly and coverning that the responsibility form himself, that he cannot menuly and coverning that the responsibility form himself, that he cannot menuly and coverning that the responsibility form himself, that he cannot menuly and coverning that the responsibility form himself, that he cannot menuly and coverning that the responsibility form himself, that he cannot menuly and coverning that the responsibility form himself, that he cannot menuly and coverning that the responsibility form himself, that he cannot menuly and coverning that the responsibility form himself, that he cannot menuly and coverning that the responsibility form himself, that he cannot menuly and coverning that the responsibility form himself, that he cannot menuly and coverning that the responsibility form him is the number of the tends and an interer for the that the responsibility for more grain than required to feed and shelter for, dwarfs the cattle and there are the administration and prosperous under him self-rained for keep. Through all this number than there is proper to keep more in winter than there is proper to keep more in winter than there is proper to keep more and shelter for, dwarfs the cattle and the retire but several of the leading citizens mer than in winter than there is proper to keep them out in spring in condition that will in-sure their being fat early in the fall if grazed at peace on good pastures, and well watered

If you consider this article a surreptitious put it in The Warder G. Laidlaw.

P S—Somebody might pick up a good few dollars in Lindsay by acting as agent between summering and wintering farmers, latting each know the went of the other. etting each know the wants of the other

[We gladly publish Mr. Laidlaw's letter. Our editorial on nearly the same line was suggested by ideas brought forth on reflecting been frequently termed block needs of late. over former remarks of Mr. Laidlaw. This "Do you not think this unkind? says a week we have sp ken to county councillors, and all seem pleased. Our editorial was Snow-balling smorg the junior pupils of the written before the arrival of the above letter, Union school, has been a daily practice of late, else a few improvements might be made, in fact snow-balling old men. It should be ED. WARDER.

Scott Act Meeting.

A meeting of the Scott Act Association, for Victoria County, was held in Lindsay, on Thanksgiving Day. The attendance was Reports in in various parts indicated that the Scatt Act was not working properly. Some were present owing to the ann uncement that the meeting was to be a temp-rance instead of a Scott Act one.

The following resolutions were passed:-Resolved that the Convention desires to express its strong disapproved of the policy of fining as first and second effences Scott Act offenders in cases in which third offences lave Miss Yeo, of Little Britain, teaches at East approve of the use of detectives to assist in akwood, next year. She has been teaching seening co victions for the violation of the R-solved that it is the duty of prohibi Mr. Birchard, of Valentia, has been re-engaged for 1888. This is his fifth year there tipnises to see that at every election there is In applying for situations teachers should tionist candidate having the other recessivy fix the salary and then get a teacher accord whole strength of the probibition vote into active force in fav r of immediate probibition. Our Model school is composed of an ex Resolved that the erganization known as tives from the different parts of the county to

[The ab ve resolutions are furnished us by For S. S. No 1, Dighy and Laxton, for ISSS. Must have 2d or 3d class certific-te. Apply with references and state salary to JOHN BAILEY, Sec.-Ireas. Head Lake P O.—1-3

Municipal Murmurs.

In Lindsay very little of a positive nature regard to this matter is found in chapter 195, is yet in the air, the ambitions are shein of the Revised Statues of Ontario, and is chiefly "dark horses." But on pennication day the usual crop et candidate, wil be ready.

but by an extra indulgence in sm king and chewing tobacco. And the consequence is, instead of the preacher who has been blessed with learning, ability and elequence, giving his perishing people a lesson of sound merality, an exposition of their duty to G d, themselves, and their fellow men, his train being narcotized, and his mind in a confused condition, he pours our on every side for an hour, to the desgust, althorence, or consernation of his hearers, the wildest and most absurd or other cattle, geese or poultry, unlawfully running at large or trespassing and doing damage, may be empounded in the common pound of the municipality.

When the animal is empounded in the common heavy specials report a feeling in favor of J Mitchell, E q., the present dejuty, or Wil iam Adams, E-q., councilor, both good men for reeve; but it is probable T. H. McQuide, be given to the pound-keeper within twenty-furnishing the necessary steps to collect the damages or in the northern portion of the township But it will like v vanish, and "the worthy son of