

THE TORONTO DAILY AND WEEKLY MAIL The Victoria Warder

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1887.

CATTLE RAISING. The county of Victoria offers facilities equaled by few districts in Canada for cattle raising.

Would it not be well therefore for the County Council to encourage the farmers of the south to raise all their calves, and each spring sell their surplus stock to the ranchers of the north?

As Mr. Geo. Laidlaw has given considerable attention to the subject we respectfully suggest that the County Council appoint a committee to present a report at the January session.

ANARCHISM AND ANARCHY.

Anarchy, in general terms, may be said to be a system whose aim is to overcome constituted authority, or constitutional government. In short it embraces the two extremes of which constitutional government is the happy medium.

There are various forms of Anarchy: "The Holy Scriptures" of Pennsylvania, some of the order of labor revolutionists, the Anti Poverty Society, the ultra-anarchists of the Herz Meut school, whose founders were recently hanged in Chicago, the Irish Nationalists, socialists, communists, as well as the divine right highly priestly aristocratic factions all are anarchists.

Hardly have the demagogic anarchists been in the ascendant in any land, the "divine right" crowd, being the more lucky. But, for a time, in France during the Reign of Terror, when a constitutional republic was overthrown, in Ireland, in New York city, and minor places, they carried away for a time.

Anarchy of any type is based on, and depends on, the absence of individual intelligence, of independence, of integrity in each member of a commonwealth. It is the reverse of constitutional government. It plays on ignorance, prejudice, cupidity, indolence, deceit and dishonesty in mankind.

Struggles against tyranny, and tyrannous rule, such as those of England against Charles I. and James II.; of the United States against Britain; of the Netherlands against Rome and Spain; of the people against the aristocracy and proclerics of France; of Mexico, Venezuela, and other Spanish-American colonies, against Spain and Rome—struggles such as these must not be confounded with anarchism.

limited to have those naturally fine fellows to a friend's grave. And Canada's citizens must awake to the danger threatened by that anarchic spirit.

THE BREWERY SCOTT ACT CONVENTION.

On Thanksgiving day a Scott Act convention was held in Lindsay. Among the chief topics of discussion were the pushing of "third offences" against violators of the Act, and the securing of evidence against the hotel-keepers.

And are not the ruinous effects of a sneak, or of a purchased man, a slave, abroad in a community, much more to be dreaded than the maudlin blabber of a stily drunkard?

We should delight to see an Association formed whose aim and object would be to search out the drunkard and put back-bone in him; to bring about practical prohibitions by gradually developing man's power to resist temptation; and to reform not only drunkards from intoxicating drinks, but also those burdened with hypocrisy, a desire to reform everyone but oneself and an inclination to manufacture the meanest and worst kind of citizen, the sneak.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Commercial Union is dead, dead, dead! The name is merely changed. The animal is now Unrestricted Reciprocity.

Thomas Heall, Esq., has published in the Toronto World, a letter clearly showing how the Ontario government is moving all its powers to force the various societies under its patronage to declare for Commercial Union. But it has been "no go" so far as the Fruit Growers' Ass'n is concerned.

By a recent decision of the Privy Council of Great Britain and Ireland, the county of Peterboro has lost the suit some seventeen years ago by the Grand Junction railway, to force the council to issue the debentures voted by the people of the county. The county is thus saddled with a debt of an enormous sum, variously estimated at from $130,000 to $175,000. This will keep our neighbors humping for some years to come.

WEST OPS.

Ypsosonia.—Mr. Joe Jordan who resides at Green Hill is home on a visit, "welcome home old friend" Miss M. Terrell spent a few days under the parental roof last week.

Mr. Jordan.—Mr. Geo. Moore who has been ill for some time is recovering under the skillful treatment of Dr. McKelvey of Woodville.

School.—The Trustees have re-engaged Miss Breden for 1888. We wish her every success.

Quarry.—What brings the "East gate" out West? There must be some great attraction, but the "West gate" go east, so when it is fair, whose fault is it?

MANVERS SOUTH.

A TERRIBLE and occurrence has started in this entire district. On Wednesday last week a young man, who has for some years been at times subject to weak spells, named William H. McGill, son of James McGill, Esq., postmaster and general merchant, at Manvers, escaped from an upstairs room and ran away. Several years ago, after a severe illness the young man, then a lad, was taken with epilepsy. The attacks finally weakened his mind so that at times he was irresponsible.

LIFFORD.

Special to the Warder. Rev. Mr. Currie is still holding meetings here every night, with grand success, may be surmised.

Our village blacksmith is doing a good business this fall. Bill is a good man at the craft.

We would like to hear from the Brunswick correspondent, more often, we rather think he has taken up his abode for his stand in writing.

MANASSA.

Special to the Warder. The hum of the steam thrasher is to be heard all round, just now Mr. Downy is doing his work this season.

The frost and snow is making things rather interesting for our friend Sinclair, we can hear his arvil singing from morning till night.

Miss E. Colvert and Miss M. Row have returned from a three months visit to friends in Kincardine last week.

The Post Office looks well in its new quarters it is a great improvement on the old place, we wish friend Long success in his undertaking.

VALENTIA.

Special to the Warder. PANORAMA.—Weller's panoramas was given before a good crowd here on the 9th inst. The paintings of scenes in the North West rebellion were very good and with Mr. Weller's explanations gave the audience a vivid impression of hardship and battle through which the volunteers passed. Mr. Weller is a good manager and a thorough gentleman.

RECREATION.—Messrs W. E. and Jan. Swain have returned from a deer hunt in Muskoka bringing with them a fine deer.

LARGE SALE.—Mr. Bryson one of Victoria's most extensive farmers has rented his farm and is going into some other business. His large stock will be sold on the 3rd inst. This is the largest sale of the season.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Suggitt has returned from the city after purchasing a large stock of Christmas goods. Miss Sarah Jarwood has gone to Toronto to live. Mrs. Jordan has returned from Port Perry where she attended her son during an attack of typhoid fever. We are glad to learn that Joe is about again.

BURN RIVER.

Special to the Warder. SUCCESSFUL.—Messrs J. W. Suddaby and J. J. Windrim killed three deer last week.

SNOW.—We have had quite a snow storm and there is enough snow to make very fair sleighing only the ground is not frozen and sleighs would cut into the mud.

AN INTERESTING EVENT.—Mr. W. Marks has entered the ranks of the benedict taking for a partner Miss Sarah Fitch. A number of the neighbors assembled at the residence of Mr. Fitch and spent the evening in social enjoyment. During the evening some lads gathered about the house and created considerable noise by firing guns, blowing horns and other unorthodoxities. They were invited in and used as well as possible. The groom offered them some money and they were small enough to take it. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Marks all happiness and may each succeeding year of their life be marked by little Marks.

It is reported that Mr. Richard Swanton has also taken a life partner. If it is true, and we hope it is, we wish them the usual good wishes.

SCRAPS.—Mr. F. Humphrey is building a new house. The robins have not all left as yet. The ice in the river is the lowest it has been for 20 years.

OMENEE.

Special to the Warder. BIRTH MARCH.—The second meeting took place Nov. 17th, and notwithstanding the inclemency of the date, a splendid day's sport was enjoyed. The numerous spectators showed their appreciation by being present all the time to witness the sharp shooters from Lindsay, including Sylvester J. Lay, Kenny Dal, Williamson 3rd, in the Association Match.

In the citizens match, only open to those who never won money before, were Mr. Blackwell from Lindsay, 1st, Mr. Sutherland 2nd, and D. Petty, (No. 3 Co, Omenee) 3rd. Our local men may be good on the fly shot, but last Thursday's proceedings and experience, shows that target shooting requires practice to excel, and will therefore give a better account of themselves next time. The shooting at a short range for poultry caused considerable sport, in which the Lindsay men received more prizes, and all appeared to go away thankful to our "Sam" for his fine bill of fare. Sgt. D. McQuig and Corp. W. Ingram, have made application to attend C. I. Infantry school instruction at Toronto, Jan. 1888.

CHURCH'S CHURCH last Sabbath, was very well attended, the decorations remaining from Thanksgiving Day around the chancel and pulpit, were strewn with autumn leaves and house plants and different kinds of grain. Rev. Mr. Copley, of Toronto, conducted the missionary services with great acceptance.

Look out for abundance of church entertainments during the holidays, this being leap year, no doubt the clergy will enjoy a great harvest, there being so many bashful bachelors in town.
