DANGEROUS CHARACTER.—Of late there has been a dangerous character, ransacking the premises of our Maripose fermers, very impudently. He makes very strong threats and being well armed generally succeeds in securing anything he desires. Mr. Jas. Pogne of Maripose is one who has been fiercely threatened. Some action should be taken against such a character.

Mr. Thus, Beyerley of California is back among Victoria friends for a few weeks visit. He is stopping with his mother, Mra. Moore near Bryson's.

A special meeting of the Central Charity Committee will be held on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, in the Machanics' Institute, to prepare for the distribution of Christmas comforts.

AN ALARM OF FIRE was sounded on Monday forencon. It was reported to be Mr. John Doboon's private residence. On reaching the place the firemen were surprised to see the tall manly form of Mr. W. Woode on the roof. He was quietly working away laying galvanized iron, and was quite surprised to learn that the smoke from his little farmace had caused the alarm. There was no fire.

Don't forget the date.

It was nor at the evangulatic meetings of Revs' Mesers. Crossley and Dewey in Lindsay that the following occurred; but it was at a revival meeting all the same. The evangulation warmed to his work saying:—"My hearers, with my limbs aching to tread out these evils; with my hande clenched to strike a blow that shall hit straight and hard; with my soul beating against the confines of my poor body in its anexisty to burst forth and envelop the subject in a searching light, and with my pent brain on fire with a holy enthusiasm, what—what, I ask, would you do were you in my place?" A subject for Scott Act Associations in the gallery calls out:—"Let her go (hie) Gallagher?" The missionery instead of praying for him, ordered him to be put out.
