ORIT.—We regret having to chronicle the sudden and unexpected demise of Mr. William McNeil, second eldest son of Mr. David McNeil, which took place on the morning of the 7th inst., after an illness of fen days, which he bore with Christian fortitude. He was buried on the 9th, in the Church of England cemetery, on the boundary line, the Rev. Mr. Burgess, Episcopal antifater, Bethappy, efficiating. However a bright, ballented young man, of steady and religious habits, and was very much liked by all who knew him, especially among the members of the Sabbah echool of which he was a teacher. His loss in the school and in the choir will be severely tell; but, as he sad himself, the Lord's will be done. Their loss is his gain. The breavest parents have the heartfelt sumbathy of this whole reighborhood in their bereaved parents have the heartfelt sym-pathy of this whole neighborhood in their severe trial.
