Wormspree Sus, and Brethree,—
Through the kindness of Providence we are again permitted to meet in annual meeting in county lodge, to consult on the best interests of our association, and take such steps as may tend for the better promulgation of our principles, if we find we have been lacking in anything in this particular in the past.

The address that was passed at the semi-annual meeting in June, to Her Most Gracious Majesty, the Queen, was duly forwarded by me to General Sir H.

F. Ponsonby, private secretary to Her Transaction of County Heavelary, Lindsay, 7th Feb., 100s.

Moved by Bro. J. L. Winters, D. M., of Lindsay, and seconded by Bro. Chas.

A regiver was received in due time, acknowledging the receipts, and thanking the county bedge for the concretalations contained in it; which reply I have great pleasure; in large pleasure time, the reports from primary and distinct lodges, although it is not so bad thrown as the time contained as the contained in the county lodge.

I have again to refer to the neglect of some officers, in not sending, in proper time, the reports from primary and distinct lodges, although it is not so bad three year as last. An idea ceems to prevent a good many that the day of the meeting of the county ledge is come account to the tree, and why I should presume to speak to the county ledge is come account to you, it time material on which his report is principally founded, is not placed in his hands in sufficient time. I treat that no excetsery of the county ledge that I supplied that I sugarited under support for principally founded, is not placed in his hands in sufficient time.
