DEATH OF HON. T. WHITE.

ME PASSES AWAY AT 9.45 ON SATUR-DAY NIGHT.

verking Minister-The History and Offawa, April 22. -Parliament will have been in session just two months to-morrow, and within that brief period no less than five of its members have been called to their last sount—two senators and three commoners, om the Red Chamber the missing ones are nators Rowland of Montreal and Speaker lumb of Niagara, Mr. Clayes of Missisquo and Mr. Robertson of West Hastings were next to go, and now the Capital and the ise of Mr. White. Surveying the Cabinet om a physical point of view he was the last the thirteen that anyone familiar with members would have supposed that b had set an early seal upon. White has been out down in the prime of life, in the zenith of his success as a departmental flicer, and the Conservative party loses one of its most useful members. He would have been 58 on Aug. 7 next.

The history of Mr. White's illness and death an be briefly told. The Minister of the Inerior passes away from his sphere of usefulness on earth a victim of overwork and of a barbarous quetom of social dress as applied to iur rigorous, raw and treacherous climate. This latter matter has been pretty freely disquesed by the medical gentlemen, and they are some thirty in number, who sit in the mse of Commons, That Mr. was "run down" by a too close applica-tion to the duties of his department all his friends admit. His sole ambition was master the office in its most minute detail nd he had, all will admit, attained this object

An idea of the amount of business trans acted at the Department of the Interior may be formed from the fact that an average of 2000 letters are received daily. Mr. White, as a rule made himself familiar with the contents a majority of these, and to keep pace wit he immense amount of work the dead Minis ter was an early riser and a late worker. By o'clock he had been refreshed by the bath, 7.30 he was at breakfast and an hour later was in his office in the Eastern Block, This faily strain on his robust physique, albeit it was fortified with the most regular habits of living, soon began to make its marks, and at the and of about 2h years as the head of he department he succumbs to an overtaxed system, overtaxed to such an extent withstand a sudden chill and mbsequent attack of pleuro-pneumonia.

A wook are last night Mr. White direct at Government House. He returned home feeling in good health and spirits but unconscious at the time of the fact that the conventional evening dress of society, so devoid of warmth and covering in the vicinity of the chest, had permitted the chilly winds of Rideau Hall founds and the drive to the city to penerate and wflame the delicate me branes of Early Sunday morning he was seized with fits of copious vemiting. The family physiconto and Dr. Horsey was called in on Monday. At this time it was not thought that his Illness was of a serious nature. However, his condition grow worse, and by Tuesday the doctor had to contend with a well-developed case of pleuro-pneumonia, the right lung having become almost completely involved. Dr. Wright returned home on Thursday, and is was toon found that his condition was very serious. The patient was suffering intensely, and he was delirious at times. By Friday Dr. Wright beacme so larmed that he selegraphed to Montreal for Richard White and Robert S. White, the brother and eldest son of the sick minister. And right here may be mentioned a dieressing circumstance. Mr. R. S. White, who has the editorial management of The itreal Greete, had only left the Capital Wagons; Croquet, Base and Montreal Gazette, had only left the Capital on Wednesday, before it was thought that his

The Famous Pure-bred Trotting Stallion

The Property of R. PROUSE, Seagrave, Unt. 154 hands high, weighs 1,000 lbs., and is a norse to immense muscle.

Bt UE BULL has many striking recommendations he is handsome in appearance; his ancestry is beyond parallel; a fine, intelligent head, with a large, full eye, a long neck resting on a pair of deep, powerful shoulders; round, smooth barrel, strong back; loins full and heavy, stifle long; legs that cannot be improved on; and heavy mane and thil. He presents a combination of good points which are characteristic of his sires Blue Bull and Rysdyke's Hambletonian.

BLUE BULL was imported from Cleveland, Obfo, on the 13th of March, 1385: Although BLUE BULL; lo perfectly green and was never in a race in his life, he showed his owner a 2:30 clip, under the watch, on a half-mile treek at Cleveland, with very little hand ling.
