THOS, BRALL, Rome's Latest Assault.

News in regard to Rome's assault on Rea-News in regard to Rome's assault on Reason's citadet—our pub is school system—comes from Fond du Lac, Wis., where "Father Regnan, a catholic priest, having heard that Miss C Britten, a teacher in the high school of that city, had taught certain things in her history class respecting the history of the catholic church which reflected upon that or papiestion, wrote her a letter demanding to knew whether the report was true. Mis-Britten replied, respectfully declining to answer, on the ground that she did not recognize the priest's right to make such demends upon Pather Keenan thereupon finding a mouth-pives in a local paper of that city, asks: "Have parents and guardians no rights over their ohi dren and wards!" And complains their chi dren and wards!" And complains that the lady "inverta herself with the authority to teach fetichism, sparchism or any exploded theory of past ages."

We heartly commend Miss Britten's reply to the medding and arrogant "father."

Would that there were more progressive think-ers teaching in our public schools. Here, in Chic wo, where a large majority of the te-chers in our public schools are catholic, "Father" Rechar would have no cause for complaint for the exercise of Reason on the part of a teacher where that Reason reflected upon Rome. The possible occurrence of such an event has been duly averted in nearly, if not all, of our large cities by the roman devisith seeing to it that cath lies instead of Americans for a true catholic cannot be a true American from the fact that the Constitution of the United States and the "bulls" of the Pope conflict—are so placed in positions of political power that none but roman catholic feachers and those who will obey the wishes of a catholic school hoard are allowed to teach in our unerctarian schools. We can assure Miss Britten that the wires have been already laid, politically, to retire her from a position where she has shows such good sense, and rendered valuable sarvice in the canes of Reason ve. OAK WOOD. Special to The Warder,

CHRISTMAS TREE AND ENTERTAINMENT. Monday evening, Dec. 23rd, was a joyone occasion in the methodist church of this place. The methodist Sunday school with its able staff of officers and teachers, whole responsibility for closing the school, of the kind named on such occasions, was immediately met by the following startling proposition moved by Dr. John Ross, seconded by Mr. Course O relen, both liteclong Liberales:

"That, whereas representative government is the heritage of British freemen; and, whereas, the Attorney Coneral, a chancery lawyer, whose domicile, practice and pecuniary interests are controlled of the country in in so interests are entistle of the county, is in no proper sense a representative of the curval constituency of North Oxford; and, whereas, shearite representation, except in political crises, tends to repress lendable ambition and proper sense a pludable ambition and proper sensition, except in political crises, tends to repress lendable ambition and proper sepiration in an educated and intelligent community, and is subversive of the interests of the Reform riding of North Oxford would be best subserved by the political content of one of our owe intelligent yeomany as our next representative in the Legislature.

Think of this in a liberal meeting with the liberal Preniur the chief of the attack! There must be something the matter with Mr. Mowat's popularity when he has to accept lenux was carried out by the pupile of the school, the principal part being taken by the younger members. The young urchine did their part so well as to show not only that they had been well-trained, but that they had been well-trained, but that they had the capacity to receive instruction, and also the ability to perform what At the rear of the platform there stood a beautiful fir with its wide spreading for their pupils.

CUPID'S HARNESS.

Most women naturally look forward to matrimony as their proper sphere in life, but they should constantly bear in mind that a fair, rosy face, bright eyes, and a healthy, well-developed form, are the best passports to a happy marriage. All those wasting disorders, weaknesses, and functional irregularities peculiar to their sex, destroy beauty and attractiveness and make life miserable. An unfailing specific for these maladies is to be found in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrappers, and faithfully carried out for many years. $1.00 per Bottle, or Six Bottles for $5.00.
