We had great times here over the municipal elections. In the neighboring town-chip of Galway our worthy and popular postmaster, James Wilson, was returned for reave by an overwholming majority over Mr. Mansfield. In the Somerville township Mr. Wilson was also returned as conheiller, about the head of the poll. Os his entering the village after his election at Galway, he was received by quite an ovation. The Kinmount band welcoming him with lively strains and accompanying him with triumph to his house where Mr. Wilson received them in his usual genisl and hearty manner, and thanked them for their sympathy and support. and support.

Drath.—On January 2nd, the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. W. Pooley, directions the conditions of the chair, after which there was a programme of songs, readings, dialogues, and recitations. It goes without saying that it was a good one, when it is stated that the Rev. Geo. Scott, Mr. Delamere, Mr. Hicks and Miss Besvie took part in it. R.v. George Scott gave an address, followed by Mr. Delamere, who gave some excellent advice to the children. There were songs and dialogues by Wm. Fennel and David Crofts, Kenneth Me-Donald and Sidney Johnston. Recitations by Bertie Anderson, Nellie McDonald.
