The committee of the methodist church has just made a large payment by taking up a thousand dollar note—principal and interest $1000. This gratifying result, without borrowing on the part of the board, has been only by the most generous liberality upon the part of the members of the congregation. Up so the present, the total cash receipt on subjected, the lotal cash receipt on subjected is $2025. This with about $550, the amount seemed by public collections and entertainments leaves the trust hours in comparative case distinuations. It in comparative easy circumstances. It will be remembered that this church has only been opened about fifteen months. The congregation may well be congregation of the congregation of th

This Songos and Cartwright roadway, so far as the outverte, timber and brue work is concerned, is practically completed. Three days more with a few men and team will make a finish of this part of the work, which has taken about five weeks to do with about fity men and an average of fitteen teams. Twenty five sores of heavy codar and tamaran swamp were concumed on the road, all of which had to be hauled a mile and a quarter to the roadway. The work is well and permanently done and reflects credit on all concerned. The contractors for the carthworth have commenced covering which will be completed early the coming summer.
