LAST SATURDAY evening about sixty members of the Y.P.S.O.C. met in the lecture room of the Cambridge St. Methodist church, and presented the president, Mr. Fleming, who is about to leave town, being a very active member of the society for the past six months—with a bible and a suitable address, as their esteem.

A HAPPY HOSEMOON.—Wednesday afternoon a young couple drove into town from the country, and putting up at a hotel sent out for a very merry time. The wedding knot was tied about four o'clock in the afternoon, and the newly wedded pair spent the blissful honeymoon in town. They "did" the rights, and after tea went to prayer meeting in the church of the minister who had married them. Next morning they returned home apparently well satisfied with the manner in which they had celebrated the event of their lives.—Peterboro Examiner.

DR. ROSS'S FEMALE TONIC, Dr. James Ross of Toronto, and Mr. John Henderson of Lyman & Co.'s wholesale drug establishment, also of Toronto, visited Lindsay on business. Dr. Ross is a most eminent physician in his special departments, the diseases of women, and, though a young man, has acquired great celebrity. His whole life having been spent amid medicine and surgery, his father being the well-known Dr. Ross of Toronto, has given "Young" Dr. Ross great advantages at the best schools, colleges, hospitals, and private institutions of England, Germany, France, Switzerland and Austria. He is a rising man in his profession.

SOCIALLY.—The members of the Faithful Brothers Lodge No. 71 F. and A.M., held their annual social on Wednesday evening in their rooms on Kent street. The chair was ably filled by Bro. D. Ray, P.M., who performed the duties of his office in his best happy manner. The programme consisted of recitations and instrumental music, an address by W. Bro. Miller of Lorne Lodge, Ommece, and a recitation by Bro. Sam Hughes of The Warder; an intermission of half an hour being taken for refreshments. The address of Bro. Miller was as usual with that worthy Bro. to the point, the subject being masonry, socially, morally, and intellectually. Miss Lear and Miss Dingle, with Bro. Lambert and Walters, Professor Cooper, and Mr. Smith, contributed to the musical portion of the programme, while Bro. W. W. Logan furnished one of the celebrated Dominion organs for the evening.

LOVELY SPRING DRESS GOODS. Newest shades and shaded to the closest prices, at E. E. W. McGaffey's.—23-3.
MR. R. A. PEEL of Holland, Man. is in town visiting friends, and especially purchasing horses for the North West. An old Durham boy, Mr. Peel lately returned, expended his money among old neighbors and friends. He says his price, but could and would pay more but that Yankee horses bred on the Western United States ranches have been imported in numbers into the North West, to the injury of the Ontario farmer. There should be a higher duty on Yankee horses as well as on many other things coming into Canada. Mr. Peel is also engaged in the grain, general produce and real estate business at Holland. We were much pleased to learn that Mrs. Peel is one of our former very kindly remembered students—see Miss Mary Sanderson—also formerly of Lifford, New Brunswick. It further gives us pleasure to announce that orangeism is flourishing in Manitoba, and that Mr. Peel is prominent in the noble order.

NOT ONLY THE MAN who happens to be rich enough to own a racehorse, or that other happy individual who lives close to a great race track and is able to bet on the animal, but away in the backwoods, at every cross-road, where there is a village store, the cracks of the turf and their merits and demerits are more eagerly discussed than those of Bismarck or Cleveland, or any political, national or local. The Illustrated American is adding much animation to these discussions. It is publishing every week, in a manner which no other journal has yet been able to approach, faithful portraits of these noble beasts; and as every citizen of this country, from the bricklayer to the railroad president, knows the points of the horse as well as he does the alphabet, these pictures are eagerly welcomed. The current number gives Mr. Roy Roy, the Californian, who as a two-year old was the sensation of last racing season, and will probably for a long time hold the position of the best two-year old that ever appeared on the American turf. He will have a host of followers this year, everywhere.

For the holidays he will be prepared to supply his numerous customers as at all times, with all kinds of first-class meat. Don't forget to give him a call as well as look at the cattle on Tuesday.

MR. MALONEY widow of the late Mr. M. Maloney, the brakeman killed at Blackwater has received from the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen her husband's insurance in that Society. The lady desires to express to the Lindsay Brotherhood, and through them, to the Brotherhood at large her sincere thanks for the prompt payment of the insurance. Though only one thousand dollars, yet it is a sum sufficient to help to educate and clothe the children and keep them from the cold charity of the world. The Brotherhood of Railway Brakemen is a good Society.

BOOK RECEIPTS.—Now that it is announced that the women's committee of the Y.M.C.A. are having a book reception, people will be wondering what it can be. The entertainment will be of a social character, the principal feature of the evening being each one who comes will bring a book or books to present it to the association library. In this way the number of books will be handsomely increased. Such works as those of standard authors, work of history, biography, religious work such as writings of Moody, Spurgeon, Talmage, Finney, Miss Haverall and others of like character.... The committee are unable to select a book to be read on Tuesday evening but a talk is forth coming and will be announced on Sunday at the young men's meeting.

OMEN and EMILY CONSERVATIVES.—"Equal rights and equal laws for all and special privileges to none," was the watchword at Ommece on Wednesday last, at the conservative convention to select delegates for the Fenelon Falls on Wednesday April 2nd. There was a good attendance from the village and township. Regret was expressed at the absence of Dr. Cornwell through illness, and much sympathy was extended to that gentleman, with hopes of speedy recovery.

MR. JOHN BEATTY in Dr. Cornwell's absence took the chair for the appointment of Ommece delegates. They were named as follows:—Thos. Stephenson, Dr. Cochrane, John Beatty, Arthur McQuade, Sam English, Isaac McNeely, Jos. T. Beatty, and Dr. Cornwell.

Stephenson, to the effect that the assembled local conventions heartily express their confidence in Mr. Meredith, and their great admiration of his manly, outspoken stand, as shown in his London speech, his vigorous replies to Archbishop Cleary, and from his place in the Legislature.
The spirit manifested by the meeting bodes success to Mr. Meredith's cause. Sam Hughes of The Warder was named by invitation. The delegates go to Fenelon Falls next Wednesday to meet in convention at 11 o'clock.

Prof. Wiggins of prophetic fame, once taught school in Little Britain. That flourishing village has turned out many fine men, but is determined to raise a wind as Prof. Wiggins.

Rev. Mr. Jones of Port Hope, the young divine who so delighted Lindsay audiences last year, has been received into Peterboro presbytery. He is meeting with marked success in Port Hope. And why? Because he is natural.

Ronald Macdonald, Charley Black, Sandy Macdonald and others, of Soreby, and Salem, Mariposa, young men, visited Lindsay on Saturday. The bass ball team will be stronger this year than ever. Tom Ross is in grand trim; so are all the boys.

A wildcat was shot on Friday last by Mr. John Woolcott of Glanville, in the swamp adjoining that village. Game will soon be scarce in that locality. Mr. Woolcott is a great hunter. He should join the Rifle Association and the 45th Battalion.

When Macbeth ironically asked "Canst thou minister to a horse-diseased?" he little knew that mankind would one day be blessed with Ayer's Sarsaparil. In purifying the blood, this powerful alternative gives tone and strength to every function and faculty of the system.—23-1.

A meeting of the Victoria county rifle association and of the officers, non-commissioned officers and others of the 45th battalion, will be held at THE WARDER office at 8 o'clock on Saturday evening next, to consider matters of importance to both the rifle association and the battalion.

Major Sam Hughes, adjutant of the 45th Battalion in endeavoring to form a rifle and drum and bugle band to supplement the regular band of the battalion. As the headquarters band is at Bowmanville the rifle and drums will lead interest to the Victoria wing of the old Fighting Forty Fifth.

Mr. T. H. McLean of Clarke, has come to reside in Lindsay to manage the Nonconformist business. His office is next door south of THE WARDER office. Like his brothers, already well and favorably known in Victoria, Mr. T. H. McLean is a good fellow, and is sure to be deservedly popular.

The 45th Battalion this year goes to camp and it is the intention of the company's officers to enrol some of the best men. As there are many more offering than can be taken, it is proposed to keep a list of volunteers and reject any found not up to the standard. No humbugs need apply. This year the battalion should uphold its glory of former years and it will.

The Woodville I.O.O.F. entertainment last Friday night was a success. The first part of the programme was literary, excellent addresses being delivered by Rev. Mr. McKinnon of Eldon, and Rev. Mr. Martin of Woodville. Subsequently the hall was cleared and about fifty couples enjoyed tripping the light fantastic for a few hours. Woodville never does things by halves.

Visitors to Ommece will be pleased to find English loaves in the large and commodious building The Windsor House, where the late Mr. Young so long held forth. The house is being thoroughly renovated, Mrs. English having an especial aversion to anything that is not perfectly clean and neat. The cards, alleys, and in fact every article, are being cleaned to perfection. Give Sam a call.

The court house flag pole is this week erected, and towers high over all others in town. Mr. Passmore performed some sailor feats in climbing the rope of the derrick. It is not true that he climbed the pole and stood on his head on top. Nor is it true that Mr. E. H. Hopkins placed his photograph in the tall on top. The pole is a beauty and Mr. Hopkins deserves credit as chairman on County Property.
