McCarty, the jeweller, is not going to leave Lindsay, his business has increased every year. When your watch is out of order take it to W. F. McCarty, opposite the Daily Home, he is to stay and guarantee perfect satisfaction to all who favor him with their custom.—24-1. WE EXTEND our sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. O'Halloran in the death of their little daughter Rose Maria, aged 4 years and 8 months, on Saturday last, after an illness of two days. Symptoms of croup showed themselves on Friday morning, and although all that medical skill could suggest, to relieve the sufferer, it was of no avail as death claimed her on Sunday. LEAVING THE ROAD.—Conductor Fred Russell and brakeman D. H. Gall and A. B. Gould spent last week on the old Northern railway, learning the curves, grades, etc., previous to running a through train from South Bay to Belleville. These trains begin this week with 2,500 cars of lumber at South Bay, besides what is at Gravenhurst, etc., to be moved. Other Midland trains are also leaving the route. SAWING MACHINES.—We have within the last few weeks sold seven or eight sawing machines, in the counties of Ontario, New Brunswick and others, which goes to show that there are some people that appreciate a good article. That inferior goods cannot be peddled off on them even by the city tongue and misrepresentation of agents. These men a few days ago when told that one of the would be considered "nice men," had said that he did not wish to be classed with the other agents, as it would wound his extremely sensitive and refined feelings. No man would have felt an inward indignation that comparing him with honest and honorable men would only be mocking. W. W. LOGAN, Lindsay.—24-3. OBITUARY.—Died at his residence, Bond Street, on Sunday, 30th ult., Mr. William Blackwell, 63 years of age. He was born in Canada with his parents from the county of Limerick, Ireland, 1825, being then only four years of age. Mr. Blackwell, Sr., settled in the township of Emily where he died a few years ago, at the advanced age of 100 years. Mrs. Susan Greer, settling in the township of Lindsay, retired from farming in 1877, coming to Lindsay to reside, where he lived until his death. Two children, C. S. Blackwell, the well known merchant and Miss Blackwell, are the only surviving children, to whom and his widow and relatives, we extend our sympathy in their bereavement. The funeral took place to Riverside cemetery on Tuesday and was largely attended. STAFFORD CURD.—Mr. Church, of Stafford Hill, has added another excellent testimonial to his ability as a teacher of the organ. On the first day of February, 1890, Mr. Richard Sylvester placed his 9 year-old son under voice training with Mr. Church, the lad being subject to stammering for the past five years. The case was thought a hopeless one by the boy's parents and friends. Mr. Church thought differently and beginning the course of training February 1st, on March 1st following the boy returned to the Francis street school with apparently as free use of his vocal and articulating organs as the average boy at his age. One significant point in connection with this case is that the lad talks equally well under all conditions of temperature. The case was a hopeless one, the cure is absolutely a remarkable one and reflects so little credit upon Mr. Church, at the same time being a source of great satisfaction to the parents of the boy. CHAS. L. DAVIS will appear at the Opera House, Lindsay, Thursday, April 10th., in his new play, "One of the Old Stock." The Utica Daily Press says:—One of the largest audiences of the season greeted Chas. L. Davis and his excellent company at the Opera House last evening. Mr. Davis' new comedy drama, entitled, "One of the Old Stock," was presented in a very acceptable manner. The scenery, properties, bits-of-brass and furniture used in the production were all imported and manufactured especially for this play and are most elegant. The fifth avenue band was the third act is conceded to be the handsomest scene ever shown here. The singing of the Boston Quartette was excellent, each number being heartily received. Mr. Davis, and as usual lent his audience in a roar of laughter, Charles Steadman, as Toby Tightpenny, Danie Jarrett, as Hiram Hawyer, and William Robinson, as Patrick Kilmpatrick, are deserving of especial mention. Prices:—Boxes, 75 cts; admission 50 cts; children 25 cts. OBITUARY.—W. H. Stevens Esq., B.A., has gone to Manila for Easter holidays. After an enjoyable visit to Colony Mrs. T. A. Pratt has returned to Lindsay. Mr. Richard St-pier of Lifford, spent Monday and Tuesday with Lindsay friends. Vegetable and flower seeds, fresh imported, in large quantity at E. Gregory's.—21-6. Clover, timothy, turnip, and mangel seeds, pure quality and very low rates at E. Gregory's.—21-4. Mr. Joseph Greer is, we are pleased to state recovering from the recent severe operation performed on her. Wm. Stewart, of Mariposa, recently sold Mr. Andrew Holmes, of Opa, a fine thoroughbred Durham. Mr. J. S. Coulthard will please accept thanks for copy of carnival number of Halifax Evening Mail. You want a new stylish hat for spring? See E. E. W. McGaffey's stock.—23-4. Pointers to practical people. Ward of Lindsay by using Dandelion Root Bitters 25c. at Higginbotham's drug store.—23-4. Worth its weight in gold especially this season of the year Old English Condition Powder, 25c., at Higginbotham's.—24-4. Conservator of West Victoria, remember the coronation in the Opera House tomorrow, Sunday. Let there be a good full representation.

The young son of Mr. Wm. Stinson of Mount Hope, is still very ill from paralysis caused by a grippa. Mr. K. L. Livingston of Fort Hope favored THE WARDER with a call on Tuesday. He is famed in educational, military and insurance circles. Messrs. Alfred Ryley Sr. of Bethany, Thos. G. Ryley late of St. Mary's, and Alt. A. Ryley of Toronto visited Mr. J. P. Ryley in town this week. We are glad to hear that Headmaster Harstone is so well that he is expected to resume his duties at the Collegiate Institute after the Easter vacation. Mrs. Caldwell of Carleton Place has been rejoicing her father, Thos. Matchett, Esq., county clerk and treasurer of Victoria county by a few days' visit. Ross—You run the place for a few weeks and let me be bartender. Bartender—What'er want to do that for? Ross—I'd like to have a crack at the profits. Thos. Treloven Esq., of Beaverton, an old Mariposa boy, has the contract for the erection of the fine new Eldon church of which Bowman Bros. are architects. Road T. A. Middleton's advertisement in THE WARDER this week, to the Ontario Mutual Life Assurance Co. "No equal on earth," and govern yourself accordingly. Mr. W. A. Pool returned to staidland Manitoba, on Wednesday last having purchased a number of fine horses, among them being the famous "Ivanhoe," Geo. Curtis' renowned stallion. Mr. Naylor of Favelon Falls has a fine cow that within six years has borne and raised thirteen lambs. Being one of the five cows of thoroughbreds, she has brought in more money than any average cow. Mr. Marshall of Toronto has been making extensive purchases of cordwood, etc., in this northern district. THE WARDER gratefully acknowledges a call on Friday. His Toronto business are extending. Will the party who mailed a letter at Lorneville, on or about last sat., addressed to us, kindly give their address, the letter in question containing only the remittance, there being no writing of any kind to designate the sender. "When the spring time comes," we usually find ourselves drowsy and exhausted, owing to the impure and sluggish state of the blood. To remedy this trouble, take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the most powerful, yet safe and economical, blood-purifier in existence.—24-2. Mr. Stewart McKay of Saintfield has recently sold two horses from his stable; one a three year old Clydesdale went to Mr. McGregor of Wainiping, while his fine roanator called "Golden Chief" was purchased by Mr. St. John of Sunderland. If your cough keeps you awake and restless by night take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and obtain immediate relief. This remedy allays inflammation, heals the pulmonary organs, induces sleep, and restores health. The sooner you begin the better.—24-2. Miss Hopwood who has been book-keeper and sales-lady in McLennan & Co., has left town for a similar position in Toronto. Before leaving she was the recipient of a very beautiful jewel case from her friends in the store as a slight token of their esteem. Sergt-Major Martin has moved to the house recently purchased by him on Russell street, west, where the patrons of the Victoria laundry, will find him ready and willing to attend to business. Orders may be left at Mr. R. Bunting's, William street.—24-3. Mr. Mark Williams of Williams and Hall, exporters, of Bowmanville, recently visited Mariposa and purchased from John Dames fifteen head of fat cattle averaging 1600 lbs. each at $16 per pound live weight. This brings Mr. Dames about $2300. Rev. Marshall P. Talling of Knox College, occupied St. Andrew's Presbyterian pulpit here last Sunday morning and evening. His eloquence, depth of advancement and liberality of thought impressed all most favorably. He is one of the coming men of the presbyterian church. Last week Engineer T. A. Pratt, with his freeman Connolly, hailed a train from Lindsay to North Bay on the C.P.R., at Lake Nipissing. This was a through colonist train and was hauled over in fine style. This is also the first time since the C.P.R. was re-opened, that a train has passed through the town. Engineer Pratt should feel honored. Mr. W. G. Perley M.P., for Ottawa, died at his residence in that city on Tuesday, April 1st. Deceased was conservative in politics and a firm and consistent supporter of the government. The coroner's jury found a verdict of natural death, the cause of his death being a rupture of the heart. A hard case is reported from the Georgian Bay. Two fishermen were returning home with their catch, when one fell into the water. After repeated efforts he got into the boat and reached Midland. There while away seeking help, he had all his fish stolen. Whoever that thief may be he should certainly get a bone in his throat that would choke him. The debate Chatham vs. Pitt at the literary society of the collegiate institute on Friday evening, Lindsay, Thursday, April 10th., in his new play, "One of the Old Stock."
