WEST OPS. Special to The Warder.

LAST FRIDAY evening a large company of young people attended in full dress assembled at the residence of Mr. W. B. Graham. After spending some time socially in the drawing room, the guests were invited to the dining room, where an ample repast of taffy awaited them. Disposing of this in the usual manner games of various kind occupied the remainder of the evening. When the time of departure at length arrived, refreshments were served, and after joining hands in singing Auld Lang Syne, the guests left for their respective homes, all feeling well pleased with the hospitable cheer provided.

HALLIBURTON. Special to The Warder.

ON MARCH 15th, there was a meeting in the town hall of farmers and others. Mr. John Anderson, merchant, offered to build and equip a cheese factory here at his own expense if the farmers would promise cows for the coming season, May to October. A number were at hand and ready to return to the farm, including Messrs. Dummett, Walling, Clark, Brown, Casson, Doig and others. The meeting having been called for the purpose, the patrons then proceeded to elect officers as follows:—R. Walling, president; I. Dummett, vice president; Messrs. I. L. Brown and Walter Doig, directors; John Anderson, treasurer; George Bemister, secretary. At a meeting on the 22nd, Mr. Gould and others were of Minden attended, and gave some very interesting information for which the meeting duly thanked them. Mr. M. Brown was chosen salesman. The necessary business arrangements were left to the directors. Mr. Anderson, with the exception of them, has got the agreements signed between Mr. Anderson and the patrons for the drawing of the milk. Mr. Anderson has the lumber on the ground for the building. The factory will be open about the 15th of May.

CRESSWELL. Special to The Warder.

ON BEHALF of Cresswell Lodge B. O. G. T., the Rev. W. G. Mills of Sunderland delivered a lecture in the Congregational church on Wednesday evening, March 26, which was listened to by a large and appreciative audience.

THINGS WE WOULD LIKE TO SEE.—Some sanctified child of God proclaiming the unsearchable riches in our midst. Likewise a sidewalk from P. O. next to Mr. J. McDonald's and old one from Mr. S. Purvis store east to church thoroughly fixed up. Hope our worthy postmaster will take note.

The temperance cause is proceeding grandly under the gallant leadership of Mr. Bott.

OUR VILLAGE was very quiet during Easter owing to the very muddy roads. The physical wants of our people were well supplied with eggs and beef. This being a special time to feast on eggs Mr. Purvis was prepared to supply all customers, having in stock between seven and eight hundred dozen. We are much amused at only being able to look upon a church cold and dormant with locked doors and closed Bible. Surely this is not justice in a Christian land. The people feel grieved after subscribing toward the erection of a church to have it closed, and we feel like exhorting ourselves in strong language, but will forbear for the present, and perhaps some kind friends will send a missionary which would be a great blessing.

FAMILY NEWS.—Our friend Mr. Hugh Ferguson, had all his family home for Easter including Mr. and Mrs. Bowman of Lindsay. Mrs. James Varcoe of Lindsay, called on her friends here last week. She went to Zion, Mariposa to spend Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thor. Broad.

QUITE a number of our people went away to spend their holidays. Mr. Purvis and Mr. R. Jobston to Toronto. Mr. Sparks and sister to Orillia. Miss Wallace to Haldimand. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart to Miss Stewart to Galt. Mrs. Edward Ashton to Uxbridge, and Neil Black to Beaverton.

OMEMEE. Special to The Warder.

JOTTINGS.—Very gloomy weather and no Herald. Why don't the subscribers pay up and prevent the present blue state affairs existing in our village. Some are trying to keep bright before the loyal Templars are organized. The Easter holiday was to be the last.

A COMMITTEE appointed from the band members composed of John English, Capt. Lamb, Billy Stephenson and Miss W. W. Lawson, are meeting with great success soliciting prizes for the 24th May sports. The two letter boys are the champion cornettists in the country and duly competent to the pleasure of witnessing a good proportion of aquatic and land sports which will be free followed by a concert in the evening in aid of the band.

EASTER JOTTINGS.—The music in the different churches on Easter Sunday was for improvement to carry out the mind of the composer. There being only one choir here that attempts to shade or sing with the proper expression and have all the parts sustained.

J. W. SHEPPARD, formerly teacher here, now attending Trinity College, Toronto, and also Miss Annie McGee, engaged in Toronto teaching. Daisy Stephenson of Lindsay, Walter Elliott, teacher, Toronto, spent Good Friday and Easter holidays here. Wm. Lloyd Wood, Druggist of Toronto, Rev. Mr. Ray of Brechin, spent a few days here. Miss Stephenson and Miss Kincaid of Peterboro, spent a few days with their friends.

The Stephenson Roller Mill is now under the management of Mr. Strachan, who comes highly recommended as being master of his business, besides being quite an acquisition as a citizen, being a lover of the many games and musically inclined, all which will tend to make him a popular and welcome citizen.

THINGS people would like to know.—If the cold weather in Carberry, Man., will cause the two Bbs to return to the comfortable homes left in Omemee, say by the 24th May. How many of our young ladies are engaged for an indefinite period not exceeding three years, and also, how many intend making their homes in Manitoba, and cause the young men there to be more content, wiser and happier men. How many of our bachelors will have followed Jimmie's good example before another Good Friday reaches us. Who will Cedarville and Omemee become annexed. How our chief constable performs his duty in his stocking holes. What makes Carney love Omemee better than Postypool. What Dave Arnett and Dave Mins think of the place.
