TOBACCO.—We presume that the hotel in Hartley has a polished crack for its proprietor. At a meeting on Friday evening, 30th May, in favor of Mr. Cross, this crack refused to allow stable room for the horses of either Mr. McSwain, speaker for Mr. Cross, or Mr. Stewart, defendant of Dr. McKay's cause. However, we had no trouble in securing places for our horses, and had a splendid meeting. When we again visit Hartley we trust a more genial fellow will be host of that house.

It comprises aquatic sports, athletic sports, grand horse races, lawn ball match and other sports during the day. In the evening there will be a magnificent display of fireworks, balloon ascensions, etc. We would strongly advise our readers to make their arrangements to spend Dominion Day in Port Hope. The programme there is always fully carried out. Any information desired can be obtained by writing W. E. BRAMSH, secretary of committee.

OBITUARY.—Sarah Ann Fox, wife of Joseph M. Greer who died on Sunday, 25th May, was born in the township of South Monaghan in Ireland, 1839, consequently was 51 years of age at the time of her death. After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Greer lived four years in Canada, when they emigrated to Port Hope, where they resided until last March, when on retiring from farming they came into town to reside. When a young woman Mrs. Greer joined the Methodist church and was a constant supporter and member to her death. FIRE IN ONTARIO.—At 5 o'clock on Monday morning a telegram was received at the G. T. R. station, that a serious fire was raging in Ontario and asking for the assistance of the Lindsay firemen. No time was lost by the boys, who immediately started to proceed at once by the 6 o'clock train which was being made up. The fire was got under control soon after the arrival of the Lindsay firemen but not until the Blackwell house, in which the fire originated and which was unoccupied, and the four adjoining residences and stores were destroyed. The cause of the fire is a mystery, but it is generally believed to be the work of an incendiary. The losses and insurance are: Blackwell house, loss $6000, insurance $2000; Williams' boot and shoe store and harness shop, loss $2000, insurance $1800; T. Ivory & Sons, general merchants, loss $10,000, insurance $7000; Miller's tailor shop, loss $1500, insurance $1500; Mrs. Harty, dressmaker, loss $1000, insurance $1000; Dr. Thompson, drug, partial loss, $1000, no insurance. On Sunday night or early on Monday morning some evil disposed person or persons cut the rope on the flag pole lately erected by Sergt. H. Miller at his residence on Russell St. west. Not content with cutting the rope, the mischievous rascal let it out of the pulley at the top, thus necessitating the taking down of the pole before another can be put on. Mr. Miller offers a reward of $10 for such information as will lead to the apprehension and conviction of the perpetrator of this cowardly and mischievous outrage.

Long before Stanley, Paul Du Chailin discovered the dwarfs in the great forest of equatorial Africa. When his narrative of his adventures was first published, the Royal Geographical Society was inclined to doubt his amazing account of these diminutive people; but his testimony is now amply confirmed by the experiences of Stanley. Du Chailin has condensed and rewritten his old work entitled "Adventures in the Great Forest of Equatorial Africa and the Country of the Dwarfs," and it will be published early in June by Messrs. Harper & Brothers. The book will contain a map and illustrations.

"The Baptist Index" gives a good specimen of the far-fetched and erroneous in such a word. The preacher took as his text, "A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell among thieves." And this is how he began: "My brethren, the Bible is a wonderful book. It says so much in a word. Now, there is very little said here about the character of this man that fell among the thieves; but I know just what sort of a man he was. And, first he was a sober man; secondly, he was a pious man; thirdly, he was a man of great faith; and fourthly, he was a married man. And I learn all this about the man from one single word that the Bible says about him; it says he was a certain man. Now, we all know that there is no certainty in a drunkard; there is no certainty in a man who is not punctual to his engagements, no certainty in an idle loafer, and there is not one of these bachelors in forty you can trust.
