A RECENT VISIT to the workshop of Wm. A. Goodwin E.q., illustrates the fact that the county of Victoria possesses a very competent manufacturer and painter of flags and banners. Among other productions of this old and reliable industry, we notice a fine blue and scarlet merino banner for Queen's Own Lodge, No. 5, representing the Queen adorned with the ineignia of royalty, surrounded with loyal protestant association motions, and a sprinkling of golden maple leaves artistically entwined around her majesty.
