FRIDAY, JULY 25, 1890.

Special to The Warder.

Miss JENNIE BELL, who has been visiting her many friends in Parry Sound for the past two months, we are glad to essy is back among us.

HARTLEY Special is The Warder,

We are pleased to see our young friends, Mr. J. E Ashman and sister of Cleveland, home again, after an absence of nearly three years. They are accom-panied by Mrs. Jas. Barker and daughter, Jennie, who purpose spending a vacation in this vicinity. Their many friends are glad to see them.

PORT PERRY.

Success to the Warder. THE examination for non-professional certificates closed last Tuesday. There were thirty eight thirds, ten seconds and six matriculations. Mr. Brown, model school teacher of Whithy, Mr. McKee, high school teacher of Uxbridge, and Mr. Natting from Cannington, were the presi ting examiners.

Canting. - Many of our townsmen are away spending their holidays at the different watering pivess of Ontario.
We Notice that Rev. Mr. Manning, methodist minister, and family, and Mr. Hae, the model school teacher, are enjoying the beautiful breezes from the waters of lake Simoon.

The tormer are the men who eateh the fish, and the latter generally get disappointed. But sometimes the early riser is disappointed. We heard that our old friend Mr. R., was out fishing the other morning, accompanied by his wife, who held the line. When about a mile from shore, she became audiently altraced by a strong pull on the line, sufficiently to draw her from the term will be drink fiend wields over its victims. It was a remarkable circumstance that, and nown even to those who advocated seat. The husband was almost thunder unknown even to those who advocated struck to see this, and in less than a moment was holding to the line with full strength. He knew from the way it pulled it was a monster, so he concluded to the line it to shore, by which way he would make sure work of it. The members of L.O.L. No. 568, attended the funeral in a body as the factor of the factor o liable and true friend. He had been all and marched ahead of the procession as far as the town line. He leaves a wife and one daughter to mourn his death. A sympathizing public offer their condolence to the afflicted ones.

WE RECEET being called upon to chronicle the death of Mr. Wm. Beatty, 18th con., Brock, who passed away on Monday, July 14th, at the ripe age of 79 years. He was one of the early picneers who came from Fermanagh, Ire-land, in 1845, and by thrift and industry, succeeded in clearing and cultivating one of the finest farms in Brock township. The partner of his joys and sorrows was Miss Lundy, whom he survived some ten Miss Lundy, whom he survived some ten or eleven years. Two girls and six boys were given them, all of whom survive their parents excepting one boy. For many years he was a prominent member of the new connection methodist church at Zion, prior to the union of the methodist churches in Canada, and in nowice did he relax his zeal for gospel privileges after that event, but continued to worship at the same aburch so long as health per at the same church so long as health permitted him to do so. He was known throughout the locality in which he resi ded as a good neighbor, a sincere friend, and an affectionate parent, and now that he has passed away to his reward, his memory will be cherished by all who knew him as one of the old landmarks who did much for this young country leaving a good example for the rising generation to emulate.—Gleaner.

Communion Wine. Mr. Peter Chambers of Edmburgh

writes to the League Journal as follows : In one of the Edinburgh churches where, happily, the unfermented wine has been introduced at the communion. and that without "dispeace" being caused, a highly important testimony was obtained from Dr. G. A. Miller, son of the taimed from Dr. G. A. Miller, son of the late professor Miller, which ought to be known by all temperance reformers, and effectively used towards the abolition of alcoholis drink from the Lord's table. The subject was first brought before the session through an elder-elect declining office owing to the use of the intexicating men are taking advantage of the fishing oup at the communion; but a favorite season, some of them make it a point to opportunity did not then present itself, be on the lake at daybreak, others again of settling the matter, and one of the would make sure work of it. Of course the wife had to take the care and pull for the shore, and the husband held to the line with both hands. They succeeded in reaching the shore in due time, and after isnding the bost there remained the fish and about sevency feet of line to be drawn on shore. They sprang to the chroe and Mr. R. with the assistance of Mr. T. manged to draw the monater on shore, but, lo, and beheld, to their surprise, they found it to be an old black
