MASTERS WILLIAM CORNELL regularly been seen astride his cow, going to and from pasture. The little fellow enjoys the ride, and does not injure the cow. The contrast is great when compared with some lads who thoughtlessly pelt stones, and "run" their cows to or from pasture.

MRS. JOHNSTON, mother of the esteemed pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church in Lindsay is at present enjoying a visit with her son and daughter here. For an elderly lady she is remarkably vigorous, and is well pleased to be in Lindsay, and to be able to see her friends.

NEW VISITORS to Lindsay have received warmer welcome or seem to have merited it better than did Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clark of Elora, last week in Lindsay. Mr. Clark had been in attendance at the Masonic Grand Lodge in Kingston and called to see his genial brother, Ralph and Dave. They were right royally entertained just as they know how. The visitor, like his brothers, is a railway engineer.

FOR THE PRAIRIES.—Bowman Brothers, surveyors, architects and civil engineers are to be congratulated on receiving an appointment as surveyors on the Dominion Government in the prairie country. Their survey includes several townships and will undoubtedly be done in keeping with their already high name as civil engineers. Mr. Arthur Bowman will perform the field work, his brother remaining to attend to the growing business in Lindsay and Victoria.

ON MONDAY NIGHT at the town council Rev. R. Johnston presented a petition, bearing hundreds of signatures against extending the number of houses in Lindsay. In an able and eloquent address, delivered, as Mr. Johnston himself said, as citizen, and not as clergyman, the arguments in favor of limiting the number of houses were clearly, kindly and competently set forth. The action of the Council in refusing to rescind the by-law is commendable, and Mr. Johnston deserves credit for the energy and interest he has taken in the cause.

REV. MESSRS. M. McKinnon of Eldon, W. H. Ellis of Sandstone, L. Perrin of Pickering, D. L. Dewar of Quebec, and R. Johnston of Lindsay, all rising young men of the Presbyterian church in Canada favored THE WARDER with a visit on Monday last. The honor is not unshared on our behalf, with wishes for health, happiness, prosperity and absence of care furrowed brows to each and all. With talented ministers in the pulpits, who are practical Christians and godly citizens out of it, such as we personally know nearly all of the above to be the success of the cause they advocate is assured. Humanity naturally takes to the good, hence their success.

IMPORTANT FOR FARMERS and TOWNSMEN.—Wm. Johnston, Esq., of Belleville, general superintendent of the inspectors of weights and measures, last week visited Lindsay, where Samuel Irwin, Esq., had condemned the market scales for weighing. It was found that a large "mistake" was made on each weight in short that the scales were "not true." A difference of fifty pounds on a weight would in a year tell seriously against the farmers. It is to be hoped that Mr. Callaghan will take the precaution to have the scales regularly inspected, for should it be found that the weights are not carefully kept in order, the town and county public demand a cleaning out of the whole concern.
