A Numer of the Sonys young gentleman and ladies is couples, found it very congenial driving to Lindsay last Sunday. From the 2nd concession of Maripose is a nice drive, especially the mounlight trip home. The joke is each couple came independent of and unknown to the other. THE MANY Lindsay friends of Miss Katic Guns, now of Toronto, but formerly of Woodville, were rejoiced last Saturday to meet that young lady, and her estimable companion, Miss Fitzpatrick of New Orleans. Miss Guns has but recently returned from a fourteen months' trip to Europe, and is rusticating at her summer residence on Lake Simcos shores. While in town the young ladies were guests with Miss Williamson. We were also more than pleased to meet Miss Gunn, for old collegiate associations were recalled.

MR. JAS H. Hopeins purchased this week, from McLean & McGill, agents for the Massey Manufacturing Company of Toronto, one of their celebrated steel binders, mounted on trucks. The firm claims that those machines are not surpassed by any other manufactured. They have also on hand the celebrated "Composite silver binding twine," which from the large quantity ordered by the company, they are enabled to sell at 10 cents per lb. This is the best twine in the market. Don't fail to give them a call.

WHO IS HE News has reached Lindsay Who is He;—News has reached Lindsay that a young nimrod also a pedagogue, from here, who has been spending holidays in the trackless forest near Norland, emérging from the lonely wilderness at times to deliver a pent up oration to the astonished settlers, has been robbed. On one occasion when he was away instructing the natives, his tent was entered and a rifle stolen. The mystery is not yet cleared up; but the rifle was privately marked and wos betide the one committing the deed. Meantime the game breathe more freely. SAD OCCURRENCE.—With regret we announce the death of Mrs. Grace Dingle, wife of Mr. B, Dingle, on Monday evening. Mrs. Dingle had been unwell for some time from nervous prostration and melancholia, during a severe attack of the latter on Monday, she took a dose of paris green, which, notwithstanding all that medical sid could do, proved fatal, as the fatal dose had been taken some two hours before it was discovered. Mr. Dingle and family have the sincere sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement,

FROM CAIGARY from our old friend J. There was to be a genuine "Barbecue" or roast ox whole. The railway company were duly honored, the leading names being familiar to Lindsay citizens. They are James Ross, William Mackenzie, H. S. Holt, all three favorites in this county; and Messre. Hammond, Osler and Mann. of Toronto. Hon. E. Dewduey, Minister of the Interior performed the opening ceremony. Lindsay Hotels,—Determined efforts are being made by certain parties to have a license issued for a hotel on Kent street just adjoining the new postoffice. That enterprise was begun in the face of public opinion against it; and a desperate effort was made to capture the council for it, as the commissioners and grit party hesiers had evidently been gentle all along, towards it. Now, there have been faults with the commissioners. It appears by their refusing a license to the Queen's Hotel in the East ward, and granting one to the hotel on William street north, they might have had in view as agitation for the repeal of the bylaw, thus giving them a chance to increase the number to fourteen and reward those who "stood true" to the "cause" during the elections. That the Queen's should have been one of the first eleven has not been questioned by any one to our knowledge. That seems a generally recognized fact. Hany persons from the East, especially ladies and farmers selling grain have used the sheds for their horses. It is a public benefit. Not so the others. That eleven hotels are enough is undoubted. That the Queen's should have had license is also undoubted. That any species of intrigue should be heeded to grant licenses to others not needed is out of the question. Lindsay santiment, both temperance and legitimate hotel, is strong against granting license to the place making the ensisting the nesisuight on the council. As stated the building was put there in defining of public sentiment, the hotel followed, and now the latest effort is on similar lines. The council deserve credit for their action, Let them stand firm.
