A union of hearts and a union of hands A union none can sever; And the flag, Barren, Union, forever.

Gems of Thought.

Men talk in raptures of youth and beauty, wit and sprightness; but after seven years of union, not one of them is to be compared to good family management, which is seen at every meal, and felt every hour in the husband's pants. He never, but with modesty; he sober, but not silent; he valiant, but not venturesome; let your clothes be comely, but not costly; your diet wholesome, but not excessive; mistrust no man without cause; neither be thou credulous without proof. Home is sometimes thought flat and dull, and often made so, just from the want of recognizing what it stands for. The love, the fidelity, the forbearance, the self-sacrifices that are nourished by family life are among the richest possessions of humanity. No man's spirit was ever hurt by doing his duty; on the contrary, one good action, one sacrifice of desire or interest, purely for conscience sake, will prove a cordial for weak and low spirits far beyond what indulgence or diversion can do for them. Purses before you follow example. A mule laden with salt and an ass laden with wool went over a brook together. By chance the mule's pack became wetted, the ass's method, and his burden became lighter. After they had passed, the mule told his good fortune to the ass, who, thinking to speed as well, waded his pack at the next water; but his load became the heavier, and he broke down under it. That which helps one man may hinder another. A Toronto man, named Campbell, who has been in the habit of addressing audiences on Sunday in the Queen's Park, has been fined in the police court upon a charge of uttering obscenities regarding the practices of the Roman Catholic church. We have no idea what the accused has been saying, but we are certain, if he even mentioned in public some of the questions which, according to Roman Catholic authorities, priests are instructed to ask in the confessional, he would lay himself open to the charge that has been preferred against him. The police magistrate in imposing the fine, gave the accused to understand that he might, if he chose, express his views in a hall or building, but not in the parks and public places of the city. An appeal against the magistrate's decision is to be taken. While we are entirely in favor of free speech, we are by no means clear that those park meetings on Sunday do any good. It is altogether likely they do much harm.—Presbyterian Review.

FARMERS, WHERE SHOULD YOU TRADE?

The following table from the Dominion government statistical returns, shows the imports into Great Britain last year. The total imports of such named class are given, and then the percentage supplied by each, Canada and the United States.

Table with columns: Imports into United Kingdom, Total, Canada, United States. Rows include various agricultural products like Wheat, Flour, etc.

A glance reveals that (1) Every article of consequence the Canadian farmer has to sell may find ready market in Great Britain; (2) The great rival of the Canadian farmer is the United States farmer.

Thus, while Britain is practically shut out of the United States market, the simple English throw open their ports free, to Yankee produce, to rival British Canadian, Australian, and other British lands.

The adoption of Imperial Federation whereby at least a preference for British colonial produce would prevail in England, would be a great boon to Canada.

A review of the table suggests that in many departments such as cattle, sheep, mutton, bacon and hams, beef, wheat, flour, barley, &c., the Canadian farmer should look towards England with a view to increase the trade.

BINDER TWINE.

A Grit paper at Ottawa having charged that the N. P. is responsible for the advance in binder twine, the Vindicator shows conclusively that such is not the case.

The advance was the result of a combination of United States capitalists who have cornered the fibre market just as completely as Morris Ranger cornered the Liverpool cotton market some time ago.

At first the Canadian cordage men were blamed for the rise and an attempt was made to form a granger company in Brantford to get round the difficulty. Upon enquiry, however, it was found that all the raw material must be procured from the combination at a price which afforded at best a very meagre profit on the finished article.

The scheme was consequently abandoned. In fact so severe has been the exactions levied by the Americans upon the cordage manufacturers that the largest and oldest firm in the trade has been forced to ask the forbearance of its creditors very recently.

The government has done all that lies in its power to cheapen this article, and deserves thanks, not abuse, in the premises.

They have placed every kind of vegetable fibre, manilla, Mexican and jute on the free list, and it is open to Canadian farmers to render themselves independent of all adverse outside influences by growing flax, for which our land and climate are admirably adapted.—Belleville Intelligencer.

HOW THEY SHUT UP THE OLD MAN.

In the Forenoon. Hardy: There's no use talking, Sir, we must give the office (some registrarship) to him. We promised it to him if he voted with us, and he did. Mowat: But there will be an outcry against it and the papers will be talking of "political jobs" and "corruption."

Hardy: Oh, well they said the same thing when we made a Sheriff of Toronto, but you didn't object that way then. Mowat: Oh I forget. Well give it to him.

In the Afternoon. Ex-Treasurer Ross: There's no use of talking, Sir. I want the office and I must get it. Premier Mowat: But there will be an outcry against it. Ross: So there was when you made your son a sheriff. Give me the county clerkship and have it over. Mowat: I suppose I must.

Another of the Same. G. W. Ross: Well, Drury, does the Old Man refuse you the Shrievalty of Simcoe. Farmer-General Drury: Not exactly. But he talks about "the public scandal of it." G. W. Ross: Oh, if he talks that way put the pistol to his head. Tell him about the Sheriff of Toronto. That'll fetch him. He has been Comptroller since then. Peter Ryan: Oh, we can make Mowat do anything we want. Joe Power: How is that, Peter? P. R.: Oh, we got him into a trap that I sprung to give his son the fattest office in the country, and ever since we've just said "Shrievalty of Toronto" whenever he hicks and that fetches him to time.—Toronto World.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

It is stated that the revelations made by the inquest into the burning of the Longue Pointe Asylum, near Montreal, are moving the Quebec government to put an end to the infamous farming-out system. Inasmuch as the nuns have found the system a source of very considerable revenue, it is almost too much to hope that the government will have the courage to deprive them of this source of emolument, by inaugurating such reforms as the modern theory of the treatment of the insane demands, and which all experts who are familiar with Quebec asylums, declare to be urgently needed.—Presbyterian Review.

Grits in Nova Scotia are urging the Canadian government to intervene in the strike at coal mines which pay a royalty to the province. Grits in Manitoba are refusing to facilitate a decision in the courts as to provincial legislation, so as to leave the decision to Ottawa. So Mr. Mowat invited a veto by the Canadian authorities of the Ontario Orange bills which he had helped to pass, and begged them to contest his own factory legislation. The pettiness of the grit politicians is exemplified by this political device of urging Dominion intervention in order to raise a howl over the invited interference in provincial matters.—Empire.

The United States census is made by the Globe the foundation for a new advertisement of the superior merits of its foreign friends and their country, Canada being dishonestly depreciated, to make an unfair comparison to the advantage of our neighbors. It was the Globe which gave as a reason for increasing that Canada should become the commercial vanguard of the United States the vengeful motive that the sacrifice of our country might bring in new and additional advertisements from its foreign patrons. So it now pens and publishes its gratuitous advertisement in the hope of future pay.—Empire.

The pessimists with whom Canada is plagued are forever endeavoring to persuade the world that there is little if any progress in the settlement of our Western territories. An official report, which shows that there have been 400,000 acres broken and cropped with thirty miles of Calgary, gives no support to these Opposition detractors from the good repute of our country. Such an advance of settlement in a district so remote as to be almost under the shadow of the Rocky Mountains is not to be despised, especially as it has been accomplished against the persistent and unrelenting efforts of the grits and their foreign associates to divert settlers to the south of the international line.

In its anxiety to further Mr. Mowat's plan of making both ends meet by selling the standing timber belonging to our province to foreigners that they may take it away in logs to manufacture abroad in their mills, his old organ is impatient at the delay of its friends at Washington. So it now returns to its old work of stirring up its foreign allies to place in the position of candidate to choose between losing this employment for our own people, and subjecting our lumbering interest to discriminating duties. Mr. Mowat might have prevented the whole difficulty by stipulating in his sales of our forest for local manufacture. This would have secured employment to many workmen in Ontario, but it would have inconvenienced him in his spendthrift's course of living on capital instead of revenue by sales of timber. So our workmen must be sacrificed to his greed for funds to reward his followers by unnecessary expenditure for their benefit rather than that of the public.—Empire.

SALEM—MARIPOSA.

In reference to the Woodville base ball match we do not hold ourselves accountable for what they say about us. We have kept ourselves clear from any such thing. We hope that our Lorneville correspondent will accept this that we did not do anything of the sort that was rumored on us. Yours truly, Salem B. C.

MOUNT HORRE.

Miss Esther Hickson one of our best girls got married to Mr. John Burnett, who resides north east of Lindsay, one of the best young men in our country. Your special having known both for a number of years, can say they are fine people. We all wish them the usual congratulations. Mr. G. F. Blackwell, school teacher, has resumed duties after a holiday trip to Rochester, Churchville, Batavia, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Toronto, and Lindsay. Mr. Horob. He speaks highly of the American people.

PETERBORO.

THE MANITOBA EXHIBIT. — Secretary Collins has received a circular from the managers of the Manitoba and North-West exhibit, asking for space at the Central Exhibition here. The Manitoba display is an attractive one and would be a leading feature in the show. The directors of the exhibition will accommodate the Manitoba exhibit.

A SAWDUST CASE.—Police Magistrate Edmondson held court this (Tuesday) morning when Mr. Cornelius Young, of the Young's Point mills, was charged by Inspector Gilchrist with permitting mill refuse to be thrown into the Otomabee river on the 12th of August. Defendant pleaded guilty and was fined $20 and cost.

OTONABEE EXHIBITION.—The annual exhibition of the Otonabee Agricultural Society will be held in the town hall, from Thursday and Friday, Oct. 9th and 10th. Mr. Geo. Ross is Secretary and Mr. Andrew Nelson is President of the Association. An exhibition of the products of Manitoba is expected to be present during the show.

DISMEMBERED VETERAN.—Hon. C. H. Tupper and General Cameron will arrive from Ottawa at six o'clock this (Tuesday) evening, and be entertained by Mayor Stevenson. Tomorrow morning they will leave for Lakeside, where the government steamer "Empire," in charge of Mr. R. B. Rogers, will be in waiting to convey them to the northern chain of lakes. Hon. Mr. Tupper and his military companion will spend a few days in Lakeside.—Examiner.

BURNT RIVER.

Special to The Warder. TOWNE WOOD.—The steamer Myrtle in command of Captain Shane is busy towing wood down the Burnt river, for the N.P. Co. Captain Shane with seven men took 650 cords of wood off the bank at Suddaby, loaded it on saws, and took it to Fenelon Falls, in three weeks. This was good work and shows what could be done if the river was cleaned of sunken logs and other obstructions, which could be done at very small cost. If the railway bridge were fixed at Fenelon Falls, then wood could be taken off the bank of the river here and delivered at Lindsay at a cost about fifty cents per cord. Say! while on the subject, why does the Dominion government spend thousands of dollars in building locks at Fenelon Falls and allow the railway company to keep said locks closed by their bridge.

HYMNICAL.—It is reported that one of our young men is about to take a life partner. HARVEST.—The farmers here are busy harvesting and the crops look good. CAMPING.—Rev. W. Logan is camping in this neighborhood; hope he will have a good time.

ZION—MARIPOSA.

Special to The Warder. PICNIC.—The crowning event of the season is coming by and by, when the busy time is over and everything else is favorable, so that every one can avail themselves of the opportunity of this grand picnic which will be a great intellectual treat. Everybody must bear it in mind that pleasure and recreation of one kind or another are absolutely necessary to relieve our minds and bodies from too constant attention and labor over our daily work. This picnic is going to be just the thing to ameliorate them to a certain extent, because its going to be the greatest treat of the year. It is to be a union picnic, consisting of Port Hoover, Fingerboard and Brawlis schools, and is to be held in the beautiful maple grove of Mr. Wm. Beacraft, north of Zion church, on the first Friday in September, a grand programme is being prepared by the schools and will be assisted by some of the local talent. Now there is no earthly excuse for anyone why they should not attend this picnic; for the time of the year, place and surroundings are just O. K. Besides what can be more pleasant than an afternoon's drive to the grove at this time of the year, when the melodious songs of the birds and the chattering of the squirrels and other quadrupeds fill the grove with their charms. A hearty invitation is extended to everyone. Come one, come all, and we'll guarantee that you'll never regret it.

Everybody's invited, Zion choir's engaged. There's bound to be some fun. The Port Hoover, Fingerboard and Brawlis picnic, will be just number one.

DIED.—Mr. John Rodman lost one of his horses the other morning. On his approach to the stable he was much surprised to find one of them lying lifeless. The cause of death is believed to be an overfeed of grain. As the beast was somewhat advanced in age the loss is not considered great.

VISIT.—Mr. Jamforth, who assisted the Rev. Mr. Cuts on the Oakwood circuit this year gave us a flying visit last week, upon his return from England. He does not appear to have felt the effects of the long journey, nor does he appear to have thought more of the fair sex over there than of our Canadian girls.

MR. GILSON OF LINDSAY, occupied the pulpit last Sunday evening in the place of Rev. Mr. Spence. Being a very fine evening after the rain, the church was crowded to its utmost. There is no doubt that everybody went to their homes well pleased with the evening sermon.

BRUNN.—Overflowing joy filled the home of Mr. William Sanguine the other morning over the birth of a young son. May his days be those of happiness and prosperity.

PERSONALS.—Mr. and Mrs. Winnerford of Toronto, are guests of Mr. F. Western. Mr. Cuff and son of Toronto, have been in this part visiting with their many friends. Miss Carrol Lakeside, spent several weeks among her friends here, and returned to her home last week. Mr. W. H. Hoover, son of Mr. Geo. Hoover, who attended the Lindsay collegiate institute last term, leaves for Collingwood next week for the purpose of attending the collegiate institute.

FRANK.—W. J. Buxton, teacher of Port Hoover school resumed his duty on last Monday. Some of the farmers find it necessary to thresh before finishing harvest. It would add a laurel to our council if some of its members would see that those enormous big stonies were broken which lie on the highway opposite lot 9, on the 4th con. of Mariposa.

MR. JAMES FARREL offers to rent a splendid farm in Orz. See his advertisement in another column.

KINMOUNT CIVIC HOLIDAY will be on Friday, September 13th, when there will be a grand picnic and demonstration, base ball match, and other sports, followed by a concert in the evening.
