Life is nothing but change, and change is An' watch the blaze go creepin' up the chimbly higher an' higher,

A-enappin' an a-cracklin' with exhileratin The world sways back and forth, a measure less vast machine, High and low, ever bringing back what he A-sendin' out the warmness clair across the kitchen floor, An' I kneel down to toast my shins an' rub my horny hands,
An' see the sparks a-flashin' back from mother's shiny pans.
My feelin's goes to warblin' like a blue-bird on

The Cradle Bed. As I wandered round the homestead,
Many a dear familiar spot,
Brought within my recollection,
Scenes I'd seemingly forgot;
There the orchard meadow yonder;
Here the deep, old-fashioned well,
With its old moss-covered bucket,
Sent a thrill no tongue can tell,

Though the house was held by strangers, All remained the same within, Just as when a child I rambled Up and down, and out and in.
To the garret dark ascending
(Once a source of childish dread), ering through the misty cobwebs.

"Hush, my dear, lie still and slumber. Holy angels guard thy bed."

Stealing on in gentle strain, 'Tis the hour of my retiring. At the dusky eventide; Near my cradle bed I'm kneeling,

As in yore, by mother's side. Hands are on my head so loving,
As they were in childhood's days; I, with weary tones, am trying To repeat the words she says, 'Tis a prayer in language simple As a mother's lips can frame;

Prayer is over—to my pillow
With a good night kiss I creep,
Scarcely waking while I whisper,
"Now I lay me down to sleep."
Then my mother, o'er me bending,

Death in a Honey Bee's Sting.

SYRACUSE, N.Y., Aug. 31. - Yesterday afternoon Alexander S. Baker, a wealthy stock raiser near here, was stung on the nose by a honey bee and died within ten minutes. The physicians say that it is one of the strangest cases they ever knew. Thirty-two years ago he was sturg on the back of his neck and nearly died from the effect. Since that time he has not had a pulse more than 45, it is said. Five years ago he was stung with a similar effect and then sold his apiary. He was at the home of his son when stung last

The Northwest Harvest. THE BIGGEST CROP CANADA EVER SAW BEING

THE BIGGEST CROP CANADA EVER SAW BEING GATHERED.

HAMILTON, Aug. 80 — The Spectator says: Senator McInnes has just returned from another trip to Manitoba. He says there is no use in denying that there was a frost—4 degrees of frost being the maximum—there was no material damage done to the wheat. Some very late wheat suffered a little; but it is a mere begatelle, there being very little it is a mere begatelle, there being very little late wheat. The great bulk of the wheat was An' then the room gets good an' warm, the kettle starts to bile,

Up Goes the Price of Hops. Springfield, Mass., Aug. 31.—The New England Homestead's carefully prepared report of the hop crop of the country show that there is a considerable shortage, particularly in New York State. The average yield of all An' Towser yawns an' stretches out an' acts a little shyer,
When I get up o' mornin's fer to light the kitchen fire.

An' when the boys come trompin' in an scrouge aroun' an' spat,
An' klck the dog an' poke the fire an' set down on the cat.

The coffee pot's biled over an' the biscuit's states govern the sales in other states.

Ontario Sheep Breeders Sweep tne Field at Detroit. Datroit, Mich, Sept. 1.—Canadian sheep breeders have swept everything before them at the Detroit International Exposition.

In Southdowns Messrs. John Jackson & Sons, of Abingdon, Ont:, were awarded 13 first prizes and 8 seconds, making a clean sweep of everything offered, including two medals and a silver cup given by the Amerimedals and a silver cup given by the American Southdown Association.

In Leieesters Mr. J. Kelly, jr., of Shakespeare, Ont., secured 10 first prizes and 6 seconds, nearly a clean sweep of this class.

In Cotswolds Messrs. J. G. Snell & Bro., of Edmonton, Ont., carry off 9 first and 5 second prizes, and the balance, 1 first, and 3 seconds, were awarded to Messrs. H. Crawford & Son. of Canborough, Ont.

In Oxfordownes Mr. H. Toulton, of Walkerton, Ont., gets 5 first and 3 second prizes.

Erastus Wiman's Niagara Meeting.

A new feature presents itself in connection with the Niagara commercial union meeting: The gathering was a great failure, that is admitted on all hands, and even the Globe, with rather bad grace, had to give in that the farmers did not turn out to it, but it suits the farmers did not turn out to it, but it suits the purposes of Mr. Erastus Wiman to spread abroad the notion that the movement he is heading commands large audiences of farmers. The report of the meeting, therefore, sent out to the press by the telegraph company of which he is the head declares that "there was about 1,500 people" at the meeting. Now this is nothing short of a gross and palpable falsehood. It is a generous estimate to say there were 400 people present, and At the collegiate institute:

Now this is nothing short of a gross and palpable falsehood. It is a generous estimate to say there were 400 people present, and 350 is nearer the truth. The element especially addressed was entirely absent, and to use an expressive term the meeting was a fizzle. Anyone who was present can substantiate this, and the only object of the exaggeration is to create the impression that commencial union is capturing the country.

If Mr. Wiman proposes to use his telegraph company as a political agent to deceive the people at large, it is just as well that the fact should be known. Forewarned is forearmed. Let the public beware of these reports. To judge by this one, they are to be thoroughly misleading and untrustworthy with the view to assisting Mr. Wiman in his crusade. A number of respectable journals, including so accurate a newspaper as the Hamilton Spectator. have been hoaxed by this flagrantly untruthful account, and we consider ourselves justified in warmly protesting against such a proceeding.
