The gentleman who wrote the above is the same Mr. Smith who in 1878 ardently advocated the imposition of a duty but little less than which he now so strongly condemns as of quicksilver in California are for 1950, cinnabar having been first discovered there in 1845, and but very little quicksilver was produced prior to 1850, when active work was commenced at New Almaden. Outside of California quicksilver has been produced in two localities in the United States: in Oregon, to the extent of 2,000 flasks, and in Utah, where "fiscal oppression."

Mr. Smith insinuates, but he dare not assert that the farmers of Manitoba pay 35 per cent. more for their implements than do their neighbors of the United States; but everybody knows that such is not the case, and Mr. Smith only discredits himself by attempting in so transparent a manner, to humbug his readers.

A DESPREATE GLENGARRY HIGHLANDER. Peter McLennan of Glengarry, alias Archibald McDonald, has been fugitive from justice for several weeks, and has sought refuge among the mashes, woods an i unsettled parts of Glengarry. He is a splendid figure, standing six feet four inches high, strong as garry, and is well connected in other parts of Ontario, He is now about thirty years of age. he escaped and was again arrested and imprisoned. He tied the jailer in the cell and escaped. His life onward has been one of rom justice charged with numerous crimes not the least of which is murder. Not long since he visited Montreal and though detectives were everywhere on his track he eluded pursuit, reached Lachine, boarded a freight train for Alexandria and now roams the forests and wilds in his native county pursued and hunted like a beast. The Highlanders seem loth to surrender their clansman and as a consequence he receives subsistence during nights.

Armed to the teeth he swears to surrender his liberty only with his life. At present he bids defiance to the detectives, and is quite accus-
