Honors for Mariposa cheese factory. At Belleville fair, where there were 300 cheese competitors and fifteen prizes, Mariposa factory won fourth prize. The judges were experts, one being from New York. This reflects great honor on Mrs. Lapp, who so successfully conducts the Mariposa factory.

Geo. Perret of Manitoba, son of Prof. Perret, once of Toronto University, was killed by being thrown from a horse on the prairie. His neck was broken. George was for some years one of our pupils and was a very remarkable lad. He had no relatives near him; his friends kindly looked after the deplorable young Perret's remains. His father is now in Philadelphia.

Harper & Brothers announce the early publication of a unique and beautiful volume for the holidays entitled, "Christmas in Song, Story, and Story," compiled by Professor J. P. McCook. The book contains nearly three hundred songs, hymns, and carols with several standard and classical Christmas stories, with numerous full page illustrations from paintings by the old masters and from drawings by famous American artists.

J. has Scott of Valentin, district master of Malton, with Patience Conqueror of Shelburne district director of ceremonies, visited Woodville on Tuesday night last and held a B. Y. J. Chapter meeting at the Orange Lodge. Through Tax Warrants in the night school that same night we were unaware of the meeting, otherwise we would have been present also. Our notice came in after our departure.

The lady and clerical admirers of Joe Hess, St. Helens and others of the class of ex-formerly, are respectfully requested to read the poem "The Sinner," in another column. Is not there a great deal of truth in its lines? We look in vain to read lectures from the fair girl "The Sinner" kindly where found her. Let the girl be kept right and there would be no necessity for fellows of the J. H. class.

Opt. Milligan, of Clarke, who so distinguished himself this year as formerly, at the Dominion rifle matches recently visited his many relatives and friends in Parry Sound, and took part in the rifle matches here. It is a grand type of a champion shot. Mrs. Milligan accompanied him.

O. A. WOOD. Special to the Warbler.

New School House Concert.—S.S. No. 18 Mariposa (better known as Brown's) will give a concert of their new school house on Friday evening, Oct. 24th. Arrangements are being made for a grand tea to be served from four to six p.m., followed by an entertainment, to consist of vocal and instrumental music, recitations, readings and dramatics. As this school is known to contain some good talent and is noted for its excellent work, a good time is expected. Every person is invited to come and inspect one of the best school houses in the country and spend an enjoyable evening. Inspector H. H. has been invited to occupy the chair.

Origin of Swearing. The brother of the fair Paul Bacon was only thirty inches high. His head was thirty-two feet long, and extended horizontally in front of him as he walked. He invented swearing to express his feelings when poor bacon were set on his table. His wife could always make biscuit to please him by using Imperial Cream Tarter Baking Powder.—50 c.
