No preparation of the kind has ever met with the same success in the same time and the testimonial in its favor are all from the most authentic sources. Every druggist sells it.—58-1.

Last week Wm. Halsek, M. P. of Newmarket had a couple of cattle die, and on examination their stomachs were found to be clogged with indigestive binder twine. Last spring Capt. Rolph, of Markham, lost a valuable cow from the same cause. Farmers should save the twine when cutting open the sheaves at the threshing machine otherwise they are likely to lose some of their stock. Save the twine, and the extra trouble it takes will be gained in the bag strings and there will be no risk of killing the cattle.—Markham paper.
