EDITORIAL NOTES.

At the Salvation Army's food depot in London a basin of soup is sold for a cent. and a cent's worth of caobage, potatoes, rice, or haricot beans is to be had, Bread is a cent, and coffee and cocos a cent a oup. A plate of meat pudding and pota-toes is to be purchased for six cents, and a plate of plum-pudding for two cents.

No fewer than five European countries are at the present time governed by regents Holland, Spain, Bavaria, Servia, and Brunswick. The monarchs of three of them are children of tender years. King Alfonso, of Spain, is four years of age; Queen Wilhelmina, of Holland, ten; and King Alexander, of Servia, fourteen.

Only a few weeks ago the United States were "whooping it up" in the Pan-American congress at Washington for the great principle of international arbitration, and when the awe struck representatives of the Latin republics gulped down the fine professions of superior civilation involved in the resolution favoring arbitration they could not have suspected the depths of United States humbug. For, the ink in which the resolution was writted had hardly dried before Mr. Blaine has refused Lord Salisbury's offer of arbitra-tion in the Behring sea question. - Em-

The election at last is over, and once again have the people proven true to principle, to their own interest, to Canadian nationality, to British connection, and to the Right Honorable Sir John A. Macdonald and his grand national policy.

In 1874, Arthur McQuade, Conservative, won over J. McLennan by 69 votes, In 1875, Hon, S. C. Wood, reform, defeated Adam Hudspeth by 76 majority. In 1878, Arthur McQuade won over J.

In the fight each side put forward the best foot, and each did its best to win. In some localities each side sustained slight losses; but Verulam and Bobcaygeon come to the front with 232 majority

There is no doubt the railway question had considerable influence there; but there would of a certainty have been local Gibbs; councillors, Brethour, Um-only about 258. There as in Lindsay resort was had to almost wholesale bribery. All kinds of stories concerning Mr. Fair bairn were privately circulated to do him injury. Appeals to prejudice, to locality, to self-interest, to everything, except the issues of the day were resorted to, but in vain. In Mariposa, as elsewhere the conservatives neglected the Voters' Lists last year and as a consequence it was expected there would be an increase up to 400. But the young independent-reformers of Mariposa are leaving the ranks of the Commercial Unionists and are rallying under the banners of Canadian nationality.

The Commercial Unionists resorted to all kinds of tactics. Money was freely given doubtful conservatives to bet on Lownsbrough. These men would then appeal to their friends to help them. Besides this straight boodling was encountered everywhere.

In Lindsay, the returns were anxiously awaited, the large committee rooms being crowded to overflowing. News came in rapidly. First Lindsay, then one or two divisions in Ops, all bringing good news came in. Then Manilla, with a majority M., Frank Smith; Chap., Rev J. Morfor Lownsbrough reduced by 15 votes added to the cheering news. Bobcaygeon John Hill; Treas., Gibson Marshall; D. 98 for Fairbairn assured everyone of a glorious victory. An adjournment was then made to the Opera House where the grand old president of the Association, John Dobson, organized a right jovial meeting. Speeches, stories and addresses amused the great audience until the arrival of Mr. A Mournful Procession of Fairbairn who came headed by the Citizens' Band and thousands of citizens On the return being known, the friends of Mr. Fairbairn took possession of the capacity. The most enthusiastic feelings prevailed, each speaker being received with rounds of applause. Speeches were made by Chairman Dobson, the veteran of Victoria, Secretary Birmingham, Dr. DeGrassi, A. D. Mallon, Major Sam. Hughes, M. O'Halloran, Councillor Lennon, Duncan Rae, Barrister Moore, J. J. Cosgrave, John Armstrong, Toronto, Patrick Navin, Capt. Sinclair, W. H. Graham, Peter Fisher, J. S. Cruess, ex-M.P.P., Thomas Todd, Goodwood, Dr. McAlpine, J. J. Preston, Bethany, Thos. Newman, John Jackson, Johnston Ellis, Stephen Dundas, W. Fox, Capt. Bottum, Bobcaygeon, and by the successful candidate, Mr. Charles Fairbairn, the member

After rousing speeches by the member elect, and Captain Bottum of Bobcaygeon a procession was formed with the people's own "Charley" held sloft on a chair, This led by the band and torches paraded the streets. Bonfires shone on the corners, cheers rent the air at every step; and Kent street never seemed more joyons.

Atterwards a number of those actively working in the fight met in the Royal hotel and enjoyed an informal supper. Toasts, speeches, songs, recitations and stories passed

After midnight all parted singing God Save the Queen and Auld Lang Syne, Full returns will be given next week, Vallentyne, Yerex and Doble. The chair was taken by the Rev. Mr. Freed, who decided in favor of the negative. A very pleasant evening was spent and we look for many more evenings spent in the same way. It is the intention of the division to keep this up during the long winter evenings as they are instructive to those taking part in them.

Besides the mysterious and sensational features of the case there is an important medico-legal point involved. Part of the case of the defence will go to show that the woman was hypnotized by Eyraud, and that he is complete master of her will. Two celebrated physicians who have investigated the case report that they have gathered several curious tacts which serve to establish this supposition. It looks as if crime were going to keep abreast of science and avail itself of all the latest discoveries. - Mail.

OUR Holiday - Greeting

Comes to you right heartily, for we feel just as big about the region of the heart as you will feel when you have shared our experience, in other words we are feeling the jubilant spirit of the season, as we contemplate the stock which the public will pass judgment on. Our excitement is like that of the good housewife in the kitchen, who secretly over-looks the dainty dishes soon to be set before the eager and expectant guests, and why shouldn't we feel good? Christmas is the gift season of the year and it is our privilege to select the gift that will bring joy and good will into hundreds of houses. We feel good over that. Then again we have been able to buy at such prices as will put many a nice gift within the reach of hands that could not otherwise have been stretched out for it. We have reached to the top boughs of the Christmas tree and pulled down the rarest fruit within everybody's reach. That surely is something to be glad of. Then there is something magnetic in the brightness and beauty of our stock as the light plays on it. It seems as if the beams of light love to dance and sport among the gifts that will gladden so many hearts, Such a stock is one to warrant the feeling of genuine pride we take in it. What have we in stock? Well the easier question to answer is what haven't we got, for nothing that belongs to a first class holiday stock is wanting in our large assortment. Perhaps our most direct answer will be to say there is surely something for YOU because there is something for everybody, and when we say there is something for you, we do not mean only something that you want, but something within your reach as regards price, as well as within the range of your taste and desires. That has been an especial care in making selections forholiday trade; to have something for everybody; something choice enough so that one would not be ashamed to offer it as a gift and something cheap enough so that there may be no sense of extravagance in making the purchase. You need only see to be convinced. Then besides having presents for all purses we have presents for all ages. We can suit the baby or the grandfather as well as all the intervening generations, and in every case with a gift that will suit the wearer for some purpose of use or ornament. In saying this we have said everything possible for the extent and variety of our stock. We must not forget values. There is no time when we are less likely to consider the values of what we buy than at Christmas. We feel so generous that we think all that glitters must be gold. Let our patrons rest assured that in every case in their dealings with us they will get the best values for the prices they pay, and those prices will always be the very best and lowest that can be made on goods fit for us to sell and suitable for you to buy. Put our statements to the proof by an examination of our stock.

Our dictionary does not hold the word "trouble," so do not hesitate to come and come again. You
