FRANKLIN.

Special to The Warder.

Mr. Charles Swart with a number of other young men that have been in Manitoba for some time arrived home a short time ago to spend the winter with their parents. They all look well.

Messrs. Hadden and Morrow are doing a lively business in potatoes, having shipped ten car loads from this station.

Address and Presentation.—The following address and presentation was made to Mr. James Kerry from his pupils in the Franklin school on the occasion of his leaving:—

Dear Teacher,—Learning of your departure from among us, where you have so zealously worked for the past two years in our interest, both as a teacher and spiritual adviser. We, your pupils, who appreciate your abilities as a teacher, cannot allow you to depart without a slight recognition of our feeling towards you, and it is the belief of the pupils of this school that you have ever used your superior talents for the good and well-being of the pupils of this school, and it is with deep regret that we now part with you, yet it will be a pleasure for us to look back and think of the pleasant days we spent together. We therefore, ask you to accept this Bible as a slight token of the esteem in which you are held by us, and we trust that the undeveloped future may have fortunes for you wherever your lot may be cast are the wishes of those you are now parting with and when the labors of this life are ended may we one and all meet around the throne of God. Signed in behalf of the school,

Bertha Britton,
Emma Fallis,

Emma Graham.

WOODVILLE.

To The Editor of the Warder.

Mr. Editor.—Kindly allow me space in your valuable paper to reply to a letter written by Mr. McKee, in the issue of Jan. 2, in which he casts a few insinuations against me, and I claim the right to reply. The prize list given in his letter is perfectly correct, and if that is not sweep enough I would like to know what is. My stock captured all the first prizes given at Woodville with one exception, in Berkshire class, and was beaten in that case, by age, and even that was not Mr. McKee's pig. Then he goes on to say that stock bought or borrowed a few days before the show ought to be ruled out no matter if they are taken home by night, and that their is no honor in showing stock raised by some other person. Well, as to bringing stock home by night I can tell Mr. McKee that I have often done so, and will again if necessary. But in this particular case, that he has referred to, was brought home in daylight, and three weeks or more before the fair at that, and was not borrowed either. Now I think in this Mr. McKee is entirely wrong. Show me the stockman that does not purchase. How are we to keep up the standard if we do not. Take our importers, do they not annually import stock and show them too, and if they had to own them six months as Mr. McKee would have them do, they would to a good many cases have to buy before the animal was born, or at least a very sorry age to be deprived of their mother. He also goes on to say that all parties exhibiting thoroughbred stock should produce pedigree on day of show. In this I again fully agree with him. But why does he not practice what he preaches, at Woodville, for he exhibited six hogs, four out of that number he purchased from another man, if I am correctly informed, and I think I am? At every fair that I exhibited my pigs I produced pedigree for each and every one I had on the grounds, certified to by Mr. Wade. Can Mr. McKee say the same? I think not. If he had his certificates of registry with him, he must have kept them hid for I cannot find one single man that seen anything of them. Now I do not purpose taking up too much space, and I would just say to Mr. McKee that when he gets beat to put up with it like a man, and not be writing to the judges, putting in protests, failing to attend the meetings he himself calls, (if all is ever, become a member of the society, which he was not this year, as any person present at the annual meeting will vouch for. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for the space I have taken up, I remain, yours,

Dennis Howkins.

DALRYMPLE.

Jan. 10th, 1891.

I take this opportunity to thank the ratepayers of the township of Carden, who gave me their vote and influence at the last municipal election. I wish them health and prosperity, and may we all live to see another election. To those who opposed me I have but to say, I respect any man for voting honestly as his conscience directs, though he may be against me, but I do detest a lying hypocrite, who pretends to vote on one side and votes on the other. I found many such men in No. 2 division. They say they have deceived me, well, not much. I knew the men I had to deal with and judged them accordingly. There were twelve in that division that stood out nobly for me last year, and I have every reason to believe that they did the same this year. Besides these, I was promised thirty-one. I only counted on getting eight of those and got six, leaving twenty-three bogus. If I should ever be a candidate again, for the reeveship, I hope those twenty-three will not vote for me. I do not want to be elected to office by any such men.

Yours Truly,
Geo. Jarrett.

A Xmas tree was held here on the 23rd inst., in connection with the school. A capital programme consisting of songs, readings, dialogues and recitations was rendered. One of the special features of the evening was the club swinging by a class of girls under the direction of Miss Ross.

A New Year's Tea.—A tea-meeting, in aid of the presbyterian church, was held on New Year's Day, and, despite the unfavorable weather, a great number was present and spent an enjoyable evening.

Ladies' Aid Society.—The Ladies' Aid society intend to give a social about the 11th of Feb. An excellent programme is being prepared, so, be on the lookout for further particulars.

Election.—The municipal election is over and the excitement of the past few days is past for another year. Dr. Wood is to be congratulated on his excellent majority of 58, considering that his opponent, D. J. McIntyre was thought to be the strongest man, in municipal matters, in the township.

Visitors.—Mr. and Mrs. Wm McKenzie of Toronto, spent a few days here during Xmas week, visiting friends.....Miss Cookman of Toronto, is visiting friends here.....Miss M. A. Campbell and Messrs. Boynton, McKenzie, and Campbell of the collegiate institute, Lindsay, are spending their Xmas vacation at home.

DUNSFORD.

Special to The Warder.

On the evening of the 6th inst., a honey social and the annual entertainment in connection with the Dunsford methodist Sunday school was held in the church here. It was in every way a success, it being the largest crowd gathered together at any entertainment of the season, and judging by the smiling faces of the children and the happy countenances of the parents, the honey had the effect of sweetening all. After tea they repaired to the new church where a handsomely trimmed and well laden Christmas tree awaited them. The chair was taken by the superintendent of the S. S., Mr. E. Thurston, and the programme was then begun which was well rendered indeed, doing credit to children, parents and teachers, and all concerned. The opening address by little Wilfred Pepper, was recited in a clear distinct voice that could be heard through the church, considering the length of the piece and the size of the boy, surprised all that he got through without one mistake. The next, I think, was singing by the children, which was well done and reflects great credit on Mrs. J. J. Thurston, whom, I believe, undertook the training of the children in that part of the programme. Then the dialogues were gone through with, every child seemed to try to do her and his best, and I have no hesitation in saying they succeeded. The song "The Fisherman and his Child," was sung by Harry Pepper, in a clear, sweet voice, and considering it was a very difficult piece of music, was well rendered. And the song "Why does mother stay so long," was given by Wilfred Pepper, in a sweet childish voice. Mr. Pepper played the accompaniments for both. Then there were more dialogues, singing, and a reading. Then the S. S. exercise by the children, which was well gone through with, little Ollie and Annie Thurston repeated their part clearly and correctly. One dialogue, "The clock doll," was amusing, if not instructive, May and Victoria Thurston, and Wilfred Pepper as doctor, amused all. Mr. Sproule's class then gave an exhibition of their talents and his systematical training. The class singing their parts very correctly. The next was a very amusing and instructive speech by the Rev. Mr. McComus; he got the attention of all from the commencement of his address to the close, which is saying a great deal. And last, but not least, was two Scotch songs by the Rev. gentleman, which merited and were given loud applause. The Christmas tree was then illuminated and relieved of its burden. Candy bags, books and presents, which were distributed by the pastor of the church, Rev. E. Thomas, in his usual genial manner. This brought the entertainment to a close. Everyone feeling that it was an evening well spent.

Death again visited the household of Mr. Wm. Hughes and has taken from its midst the husband and father. Mr. Hughes' death was a sudden and sorrowful surprise to this neighborhood as his illness was of only a few days duration. Deceased leaves a wife and family in Somerville to mourn his untimely end, his death being only a few weeks from that of his son. The remains were laid to rest in St. Peter's church yard, the Rev. Wm. Logan of Fenelon Falls officiating. The entire neighborhood sympathize with the deceased family.

Mrs. Walker of our village has been seriously ill, but we hope for her recovery. She is attended by Dr. Graham of Fenelon Falls.

Mr. John Lamb received injuries from a kick by a horse that confined him to the house for several days.

Miss Martha Bulett and Libbie Walker have taken up their abode in Lindsay.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Simms of Fenelon, spent a few days visiting with Mr. R. Lamb.

We are sorry that Mr. Thos. Newhouse takes his departure from these parts next week and is going to settle in Kent county.

HINDEN.

Accident.—A man named Fagen, of Lindsay, who was working in Mr. Fee's shanty in Anson, had a narrow escape of his life on Monday last, by the falling of a tree down a cliff so suddenly that he was unable to get out of its way, and was caught in the branches and hurled into the creek, fortunately he escaped with nothing more than a few scratches and bruises.

Ball.—The dancing party given by the members of the Minden cornet band on New Year's evening, was quite a successful affair, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather there was an attendance of about seventy persons, showing that the band has the good wishes of our citizens. Quite a nice supper was served that did credit to the ladies who superintended this part of the entertainment.

The contest in Minden Township proves that the Echo had correctly estimated the intelligence of that Municipality in forecasting the result. The cry of economy and honesty is very popular with the crowd, but when it is put forward to cover selfishness and deceit it is seldom successful, for the public now a days are not slow to gauge and analyze the motives for which such cries are used; this was the case here on Monday last, when the hollowness and insincerity of the frantic appeals made to the electors by a clique of mischievous schemes was so apparent that they recoiled with sufficient force upon those who originated them to completely annihilate them, and the wind bag whose poisonous vapours were depended upon to carry its deluded dependents to success collapsed instantly when it came in contact with open discussion owing to an entire lack of truthfulness in its ballast. The vote taken was one of the largest on record in that Municipality, showing that the ratepayers were deeply interested in the matter.

Mr. Gainer almost doubled the vote of his opponent for the Reeveship, showing Mr. Mooney that he is losing ground steadily and that the public are getting their eyes opened as to the utter recklessness and unreliability of his assertions.

Messrs. Blair, Dauncey, Morrison and Rogers were declared elected as Councillors.—Echo.

CAMERON.

To the Editor of The Warder.

Fenelon, Jan. 13th, 1891.

Dear Sir,—We were greatly surprised around here when we read a small article which appeared in The Warder of last week, but we find no fault with any person for the article being printed. It is referring to that piece of bad conduct throwing that piece of snow or ice, as it is said to be, which I am sorry to say is practised too much at schools, but sir, I have passed a great many school houses in this part of Ontario this last ten or twelve years, and I can say that I never passed a school that there is less annoyance given to the public by the scholars, either by throwing snowballs or jumping on to vehicles than there is at the Cameron school. We can truly say that Mr. Cundal who has taught this school for the last ten or twelve years does not allow any such unbecoming conduct to be practised during recess hours, nor even on the road going to and from the school. Mr. Cundal not only knows how to govern his school properly in every way it should be but he tries his utmost and has succeeded well. His school to-day stands second to no other school in this part of the country and his long continuation in the same school is a very good guarantee for his watchful care over his scholars both in school and out, and we are very sorry the small item occurred if it was at Cameron school it happened. The writer of this small article is no particular friend of Mr. Cundal's but likes to see every person get their rights as they deserve.
