Howard Stevens, son of the Science Master in the Coll. Inst., was coming home from school; and knowing the horse, he ran and stopped it. There a school mate of his, George Harding, came to help him hold the horse, till its owner came up. It was a brave thing for boys of seven years of age, who were hardly tall enough to reach up to the bridle. All honor to the plucky little fellows.

NOTICE.—We are told that a certain party usually representing himself as the "frighting agent," has had the audacity to enter the houses of respectable people and if he chance to find an instrument there that does not happen to be one of the cheap kind he is trying to sell, he finds fault with the goods and expresses great sympathy for the party who has been so foolish and unscrupulous enough to say he could have done a great deal better for them, and at once proposes opening the organ to show the defects. We simply detect this pharisaical way of doing business, and if we ever know him again to interfere with our goods, he will be presented to the utmost extent of the law. W. W. LOGAN, P.S.—We think Jews and Pharisees should have a territory to themselves in which to do business.—68-11.

COUNTY ORANGE LODGE.—The annual meeting of the county orange lodge for the county of Victoria, was held in the lodge room of L.O.L. No. 557, on Tuesday last, 3rd inst. There was a good representation from the several primary and district lodges in the county, the meeting being the largest held for some time. In the absence of the County Master the chair was occupied by Bro. Wm. McIntosh, deputy county master. The report of the secretary showed that there had been an increase in each lodge in the county during the past year. The following brethren were elected officers for the coming year:—Bro. Charles Fairburn, Wm. 12th, re-elected; Bro. John Scott, 310, D.C.M.; J. L. Winters, 557, C. Chap.; Thos. Murtagh, 557, C. Fin. Sec., re-elected; John Kelley, 120, C. R. Sec., re-elected; Jos. Brown, 334, C. Treas., re-elected; Thos. H. Brown, 390, C. M.; A. Hayes, 41, 1st D.C.L.; Porteous Conquest, 664, 2nd D.C.L.

COUNTY COURT JUDGMENT.—Important decision on municipal law. Gibbs vs. the township of Dysart. The plaintiff's father, John Gibbs, was the owner of about 1,200 acres of land in the township of Dysart, all of which was leased to his son, F. D. Gibbs, the plaintiff, who was the owner of all chattel property. When the assessor called, the father, instead of directing the assessor to assess him as owner and the son as tenant of the whole, had his son assessed for part and himself for the remainder. The assessor took it down this way in a blotter which he carried around with him and in which the parcels, but in copying it into the roll which he returned to the township clerk, he reversed the assessment. This roll as returned was certified by the County of Ross, and the assessor made out from it. The Gibbs both refusing to pay any taxes, the collector seized and sold, and made the taxes. This action was brought by F. D. Gibbs against the township for wrongfully assessing at the rate of the value of the goods alone was left to the jury and the learned judge reversed the decision of the assessor. The court now gives judgment that the roll returned by the assessor and passed by the County of Ross and certified by the clerk, is the true assessment roll and is binding on all parties, and the collector having acted upon it was justified. Also that as the plaintiff was tenant of the lands he was properly assessed for them, and there was no error in his claim. Judgment now setting the plaintiff with costs of action to be paid by him to the defendants. F. D. Moore, for the plaintiff, and John A. Murray, Q.C., and R. J. McLaughlin, for the defendant.

MASSONIC SOCIAL.—The social on Friday evening, 30th January, held by the members of the Grand Lodge, No. 77, A.F. and A.M., was a decided success. The members of the lodge with their wives, and those members who are not so fortunate as to be thus blessed, accompanied by a friend's sister, made a pleasant company, which filled the spacious lodge room. Mayor Walters occupied the chair, and in a few well chosen words stated that the object of these social meetings was that the families of the members might get better acquainted, and spend a social evening together. Choice music was furnished during the evening by the Octette Club, Miss Easton accompanied; while the solos of Miss Jackson—with Mrs. Church as accompanist—who was deservedly applauded, Miss Cornell, and Mr. D.
