SCALPING OF HELPLESS SETTLERS—
"Indian Horrors or Massacres by the Red Men" is the title of a book being prepared by the Earle Publishing house, of St. John. This thrilling narrative of wars with the merciless savages includes a full account of the adventurous life and tregic death of Sitting Bull, the world renowned chief. It gives a vivid portrayal of celebrated chiefs, battles fought with sub-lime courage, exciting adventures and deeds of heroism unsurpassed by the Story of Thermopylas. The whole comprises an authentic and fascinating history of the Indians from the discovery of America down to the present time by Rev. Henry Davenport Northrup D.D. This work of 600 pages is fully illustrated with thrilling scenes among the Indians, and the low subscription ($1 50) places it within the reach of all. Canvassers should apply immediately for circulars and terms, or to save time send $1.50 and Prospectus with outfit will be mailed at once, and also—complete book when published, or send—ote, for Prospectus etc., to Earle Publishing House, St. John.—69-2.

Flavelle leaves for home on Wednesday and takes with him twelve gold medals and two cups, and the point prize, which will be exhibited at Toronto on Saturday "Not only, therefore, do the Lindsay curlers bring back the International cup, but they have also succeeded in capturing several of the minor trophies and will return triumphant and jubliant. In Winnipeg they have been enjoying a big time and Skip Flavelle has been the lion of the day. On Wednesday last the curlers were banquetted in right royal style and in its report the Free Press, of Winnipeg, says:—"Mr. Flavelle, of Lindsay, in rising to respond to the toast (The Ontario Branch of R.C.C.C.) received a recep on that he will not soon forget. He regretted that a large number of Ontario curlers were not in attendance and remarked even if his men had not succeeded in taking any of the trophies away with them they would feel well satisfied with their trip to the Northwest. Mr. Flavelle, upon concluding his remarks, was given three cheere and a tiger."

ANNUAL

The liberal conservative convention on Wednesday was one of the largest and most enthusiastic ever held here, the veteran chairman of the association, Mr. John Dobson, presided. In the sudience were prominent men from every section of the riding, all sectuated by the same spirit, that a supporter of the Right Hon. Sir John A. Macdonald won do be returned. The chairman called the meeting to order at 11 o'clock and asked for nominations, when it was moved by Mr. James Lithgow, reeve of Verulam, and seconded by Mr. John McSweyn, barrister, Limisay, that Charles Fairbairn, Eq. of Verulam, be the nominee of the convention. The motion was received with ringing cheers, every man rising to 1,30 o'clock, when stirring sneeches were made by Mr. Fairbairn, John S. Craess, exmaple by Mr. Fairbairn, John S.
