Unrestricted Reciprocity,

A few weeks ago, in an address at Toronto, Principal Grant, of Queen's University, said:

The American farmer was not to be e mpared with the Canadian farmer. Some statisticians had made an investigation in some of the Eastern States as to the profits of farming. In the State of Connecticut 693 representative farmers had been selected, and the annual profit to the farmer after paying everything was only $181.81 for his year's labor, while the hired man received $886.86 for wages. In Massachusetts the average profit was $825.49, with $345 for the hired man. Emigrants to the United States should be hired men, so that the United States is hired men, so that the United States is not such a desirable country after all. The worst feature of unrestricted reciprocity was that the Americans did not want it. Supposing the Dominion Government should be defeated on a cry of unrestricted reciprocity, then you will have to go to Washington and ask for it. Mr. Blaine has said there should be no reciprocity with Canada, as the same good. procity with Canada, so the same goots were produced by both countries. The question was, were we going to break off the ties with the Mother country for the sake of unrestricted reciprocity? (Cries of "No, never.") At the present moment Great Britain was on the point of going to war with the United States for us over delivered at the annual meeting held on Again, to enter icto unrestricted recipro-

Puring the year the town has been supplied with a satisfactory avatem of electric highling.

Through the action of the late town council, and a number of our citizens, our town market has been greatly improved, which is a matter for congratulation on the part of the public generally. It is to be hoped that the good work will be constituted, and that additional conveniences and encouragement will be supplied at an early date.

It has been safely estimated that from $75,000 to $50,000 was expended in the creckion of public and private brilding during the part season, and in improvements whereon. This land affords substantial evidence that the material progress of the town is electived on the increase.

The actablishment and maintenance of a county house of rofings has received every project in the interests of the community at large and of the unfortunate class for which charitable provision has to be made. The sible report in favor of the scheme of the communities of the County Council appointed to enquire into the working of these institutions, and the favorable reception given by the counted for the bridge of the even and county.

Canada Must Speak First.

"Briefly, sir, if this project can be carried out, it will mean for you the addition of half a continent for commercial purposes, and the creation of a complete new tier of Northern States, with an enormous area of unoccupied land, with very great mineral resources, with a present population of 5,000,000, but with the capacity of maintaining 50,000,000."—Six capacity of maintaining 50,000,000,"—Sir Richard Cartwright, before the Boston merchante, as reported in the Glove of Local Option in Canada.

The Saturday Review and Mr. Grant Allen have declared that prohibition is a failure in Canada; but the Citizen of Toronto tells us; "The official returns of liquor consumed in Gamai seven Cauadian provinces furnished a good illustration of he results of prohibition by the Scott Act. In Prince Edward Island, entirely under the Act, the per capita consumption of liquor is three fourths of a gallon. In New Brunswick, where nine out of fifteen counties are prohibition, it is one and a haif gallons; in Nova Scotia with eleven out of eighteen counties. counties, the per capita is one and three-tourths gallons; and so the ratio goes on increasing in inverse ratio to the number of counties under prohibition, till in British Columbia, which entirely under the power of the debasing licence law, the consumption is ten gallons per capita. Abstainer's Review.

Boys and Liquor. - About Christmas time a boy got hold of a bottle of whiskey that a liquor dealer had given to his mother and with liquor dealer had given to his mother and with his chums he got away with it as though it were sods water. Result, death to him. Early in January, at Carlisle, Pa, a youth died from the effects of excessive whiskey drinking and his chum laid out in the cold and was so badly frozen that both legs must be apprented. These apprenters to children and was so badly frozen that both legs must be ampuisted. These accidents to children are largely due to the prevailing notion that whiskey is something good, wheras it should be widely known that it is in fact a poison that cannot be safely trifled with. Wm. Bird-aged eighteen, a New York boy, became wild-ly insane and died, Jan. 10th, at Gonveneur themselved as your of averaging of grantle Hospital, as a result of excessive cigarette smoking. Unless effectual means be found to check young America's reckless handling of cigarettes, pistole and whisk-y there may be even more occasion for remarks about the lack of increase of home population than there has been of late, -- The Citiz-n.

AN ENGLISH PAPER'S OPINION .- Ontario, Canada, was, rather over a year ago, the scene in a dozen counties of the "repeal of the Scott Act, under which local Prohibition has been secured for several years. There is no doubt this came about partly through lax enforcement of the law by officials, engendering the Behring San question. He was glad distruct of its power, accompanied by to see Mr. Alexander Mackenzie stood out from his party on this very question, out from his party on this very question.
