LITERARY NOLOS.—The weekly meeting of our society was keid February 20chs, with our president oppearing and performing his duties in his usual apt and pleasing manner. After our opening chorus we proceeded to arrango for a debate next week. Subtject being, "Honored that there is more knowledge gataset by reading than travelling." After the business for the occept was disposed of, we proceeded with the programme, which consisted of readings, rottations, sleaging and instrumental music, all of which was rendered in an excellent manner. After dinging the National Author the mosting adjourned.
