NORLAND. Section to The Worder Title last business meeting in connection with the conference year ending May 20th, 1891, for Norland Mission was held in the methodist church here, Sainrday, May 9th, of Sp.m. All the members of the Quarterly heard were present. The receipte and respects from the four appointments were all that could be desired. Sprittally the mission is truly enjoying unch of that peace and love which easteth out all fear, God has specially blessed his people during the past year and enabled his servant, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Strike, to labor in our midet with great and to accomplish a grand work for his year may be seen to be seen to

$30. A new church organ paid for, and, generally, speaking the mission is in an excellent condition having four preaching places, two Sabbath schools and good hopes of a third. During the year some seven families, all members or adherents of the methodist church have moved from the locality; notwithstanding their loss and the cry, "hard times," we have been very fortunate and have great reason to be thankful. It was moved by Bro, Wakelin, Sr., who has been a hero in the service of the Lord, a class-leader and Sabbath school superintendent for upwards of a quarter of a century, that our most sincere thanks be tendered to Rev. Mr. Strike, our popular pactor, for his indefatigable efforts and practically elequent addresses in the cause of his Divine Lord and Master, during his pleasant and profitable And here permit me to say this is not only the wish of the members of the Board, but the strong desire of all on the mission. One pastor, knowing he is on the stay on the desired and solow the stay of the members of the portion. One pastor, knowing he is on the profit of the members of the mission. One pastor, knowing he is on the profit of the members of the mission. One pastor, knowing he is on the profit of the members of the mission. Our pastor, knowing he is on the side of right, discourses in a fearless manner, yet gentle and persuasive. We unitedly pray that God in His infinite wisdom will continue that God in His infinite wisdom will continue to bless and prosper him and may he always exhibit the disposition of a true soldier of the cross and pant for the glory of his divine master. Bro Wakelin, Sr., was appointed to attend the District meeting at Cannington, May 20th and 21st. G. W. ALLELEY, Rec. Steward,

May 11; 1891. Pleasant Herb Drink—A Spring Medicine.

The druggists tell us that people call daily for the new cure for constipation and sick-keadache discovered by Dr. Silas Lane. It is said to be Oregon grape root (a great remedy in the far west for those complaints) combined with simple herbs, and is for use by pouring on boiling water to draw out the strength. It sells 50 cents and $1 a package and is called Lane's Family Medicine.—56-ly.
