sale at a bargain. For particulars apply to IS440 H. MOYNES, Islay, P.O.—85-4 More Misstatements

The agents of the London Mutual are trying to frighten farmers from insuring in the ROYAL CANADIAN by pointing out conditions in its policy which they untruthfully state are in force in Ontaria. To satisfy the public that these conditions are not it force, over a year ago I handed a policy and application in the ROYAL CANADIAN to Messrs, Barron and McLuschlin, and Althander. and McLaughlin, and obtained an opinion, which I quote the following extracts:—!

which I duote the following extracts:—4

"The policy is subject to the Statutory conditions only, and the terms and conditions actually primes on the policy are not binding either by writte of the actual contract, or as Variations from the Statutory conditions, because they are not indicated to be so I the manner prescribed by the Statute."

"All Variations from the Statutory conditions the have ever come under my notice are for the benefit of the Company, and that policy is the most favorable to the assured which, like the ROYAL CANADIAN, is subject only to the Statutory conditions."

"The policy and application in all other respects seem very liberal, especially as to the insurance of Ordinary Contents of Buildings, and hive Stock while at pasture and in use, and the use of Standard Steam Threshers."

"The application is a part of the contract, and whether mentioned in the policy or not all the terms of the application are binding on the Company."

"There is no two-thirds or three-fourths clause in this policy"

Scores of farmers will not fail to observe that the statements which have recently been made to them by the present representatives of the London Mutual are contradicted, point blank, by Messrs, Barron & McLaughlin. "You pays your money and takes your choice"
