MUSICAL.—The brase band is still growing in favor. They have received several invitations of late to attend public demonstrations. Mr. Wim. Channon, who has just moved into his fine residence formerly sweet and compled by Mr. Michael Thorndike, treated the band and others to a support on Westmenday evening. It is a pity if when the hand is invited out to spend the evening they alonid be followed by the ritters of the conners.

REMOVAL.—Roy, J. Corts and family have gone to their new destination at Reque. They were quite popular here and their departure is regretted by all.
