—AGAINST—

"Old Fogey Business Ideas"

Is one of the little jobs we have on hand this month.

The old business rule is "Charge all the profit the customer will stand."

To this proposition we say,

"NO SIR,"

NOT ANY OF THAT FOR US.

WHAT WE PROPOSE TO DO

IS TO CHARGE AS LITTLE PROFIT AS WE CAN STAND,

AND WE ARE NOT IN BUSINESS FOR OUR HEALTH EITHER.

We Like to Make Money

but we are convinced it cannot be done by plundering the public.

A Close Price makes a sale and a friend.

WE'LL TAKE OURS THAT WAY.

Close Prices, Good Friends, Plenty of Sales.

We want your confidence, and will deserve it by fair, square dealing. You know we can't afford to knock a good reputation into slivers.

Abandon the idea that we will allow anyone to do better by you than we will, for

We Allow No One to Undersell Us.

Come to us for Bargains that lay over competition.

The Wide-a-wake Merchant is never afraid to sell Goods on a close margin.

We want to keep a big trade, we know of but one way to do it, and that is to Sell Cheap. We do it and find it is not hard to part with goods so easy to replace, even though the margin be very small.

There is much more that could be said about the advantages we offer everybody.

Save Your Hair

By a timely use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. This preparation has no equal as a dressing. It keeps the scalp clean, cool, and healthy, and preserves the color, fullness, and beauty of the hair.
"I was rapidly becoming bald and gray; but after using two or three bottles of Ayer's Hair Vigor my hair grew thick and glossy and the original color was restored."—Melvin Aldrich, Canaan Centre, N. H.
"Some time ago I lost all my hair in consequence of measles. After due waiting, no new growth appeared. I then used Ayer's Hair Vigor and my hair grew Thick and Strong.
It has apparently come to stay. The Vigor is evidently a great aid to nature."—J. B. Williams, Bloxville, Texas.
"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for the past four or five years and find it a most satisfactory dressing for the hair. It is all I could desire, being harmless, causing the hair to retain its natural color, and requiring but small quantity to render the hair easy to arrange."—Mrs. M. A. Bailey, 9 Charles street, Haverhill, Mass.
"I have been using Ayer's Hair Vigor for several years, and believe that it has caused my hair to retain its natural color."—Mrs. H. H. King, Dealer in Dry Goods, &c., Bishopville, Md.

That Lorneville "Conservative" proven a "Litt."

To the Editor of The Worker.
Sir,—Permit me space to reply to an article in your issue of the week before last from your longobly correspondent, in respect to a letter in a late number of the Post subscribed "Lorneville Conservative." The letter referred to in the Post was scarcely worthy of notice being taken of it. Why I write is to discuss the opinion of your longobly correspondent. I am sure in saying that the letter in your contemporary referred to was not written by a conservative of Lorneville or elsewhere; it was written by Mr. Barrow himself or by some other glib, most likely in the Post writing office. I incline to the belief it was the respectable John Augustine himself who was the author of that silly letter. John A. Barrow is most enough for almost anything that is dishonest and despicable. The great Napoleon, in Egypt, exclaimed "from these pyramids forty centuries look down upon us." Napoleon was an extraordinary man and a great warrior, and his name and fame will be handed down to the latest posterity. Barrow must be possessed of an inordinate amount of vanity and audacity when he, in the Post, would venture to call on the centuries to look down upon him. Why, I am informed Barrow is the most chaffed man—a laughing stock—in the House of Commons. The man who would, when the illustrious statesman Sir John Macdonald was lying in his last sickness, and after his death, leave his place and duty in the House and devote himself to his constituency to work up his party in the hope of an early election, is capable of writing a letter and signing Conservative to his many afflictions. What low Barrow does, or what he is likely to do, that his name will be handed down for centuries! Certainly it will not be because of his statesmanship; neither will it be because of his honesty and candor; he must have some line of business in view which is neither honest nor commendable. North Victoria does not want or need such a representative in parliament as John Augustine Barrow; they have reason to be ashamed of their M.P. A CONSERVATIVE, Lorneville.

Ontario's Irishman.

The following letters published in the Peterborough newspapers speak for themselves:—

THE ONTARIO GOVERNMENT'S SERVANT'S LETTER.

To the Editor of The Examiner.
Sir,—The following remarks were written on the 14th inst., but on consideration, publication of them was postponed, pending a word of condemnation or censure from another quarter, of the part taken in the orange proceedings by certain catholic gentlemen of the town.
Two full weeks having elapsed and no word even of disapproval having been raised, I feel disposed with your permission, rather than admit concurrence by default, to let this letter go for insertion, if you please, in the imperial columns of the Examiner. Twenty-three years ago, on the 13th July too, an orange demonstration similar to that which took place here on the 14th inst., was held in the drill shed. At the time I took occasion to notice the affair, and my letter, which was published in the Canadian Freeman of Toronto, was subsequently published in flysheet form and circulated throughout the country by the Examiner. As on that bygone day, so on the late anniversary of the battle of the Boyne, have our members of Parliament, and public representative men in other positions, taken conspicuous part in the celebration of a second day of "No Surrender." The member for the East Riding, in the Commons, shared with Bro. N. Clarke Wallace, Grand Master and high-cock-o-lo-rom of the Orange fraternity of British North America, the seat of honor in the grand chariot that led the Orange procession, and the member for the West Riding, the less conspicuous seat, with the Grand Master, or grand something of Peterboro, of "No Home Rule" notoriety, I believe, sir, as I have always believed, that in relation to party issues, political, historical and religious issues of this kind, annually recurring issues, not at all designed to promote harmony among our Canadian people, but rather to disturb and prevent it, our public representative men, who largely owe their positions to the franchise, as well as to the good will and vote of a mixed population, should take care to adequately represent the opinions and feelings of that population, and therefore to at least, remain neutral upon such occasions, in relation to violations of the peace and quiet of the community at large.

So also, I believe, should remain neutral all men occupying public positions, who receive pay and support out of the common taxes of a mixed people.

With the protestant gentlemen who, in their private capacities attended at the reception, demonstration or banquet, we catholics and Protestants have nothing to do, except, perhaps, as it may suit one to retain a lingering remembrance of the fact.

But what can we say of some of our catholic gentlemen, representative catholics and Protestants, who present, one or more of them it is reported, at one of the demonstrations of welcome extended to the "Grand Master of British America," as though he owned and controlled not only all of its lands and lakes, but all our bodies and souls as well.

The presence of the Irish catholics at such meetings is to be deplored.—The spectacle is a sad, sorry and humiliating one for the catholic Irishman, young and old, of Peterboro, to contemplate. It is absolutely scandalous. As representative in the corporation of the catholic citizens of the town, there can be no doubt but these gentlemen were entirely out of place at the Orange reception, demonstration or banquet, and that they were unwelcome guests. It is much to be regretted that they could have forgotten so far their fellow countrymen and the catholic generally.

Such conduct on their part cannot entitle them to be considered as representing Irish catholic feeling, Irish patriotism and Irish feeling on the question of Orangeman in Ireland, or wherever, unfortunately it has been planted.

As a direct consequence of such debasement it cannot be wondered at that catholic Irishmen are, by the spirit and workings of the order these gentlemen help to honor, and to uphold, being treated as "back seats."

When the elected representatives of people so lower the dignity and reverence due their religion and race, what else can be expected for them but contempt?

No protestant or Orangeman will, in his heart, think the more of these Irish catholic gentlemen, "don'tcher know," because of their easy adaptability and flunkeyism, and of their readiness to join in loud chorus, as in insulting Irish on religion, race and membership of "The Protestant Boys," "Drop the Lie Down," and "We'll Kick the Pope Before Us." Nice mottoes and music these for catholic ears to hear! Honest, manly protestants will despise, as it ought to be despised, this miserable trucking to Orangemen, this pitiable exhibition of weakness and lack of backbone on the part of our catholic counsellors.

But the disgrace must not apply to, nor attach to, the outside body of our catholic people in town or country; and to the credit of our French catholic citizens be it said, that not one of that gallant race demeaned himself by being present at these Orange demonstrations. While we catholics respect our protestant neighbors, work hard and tirelessly, and cheerfully, to place them in positions of influence, power and patronage, and try to live at peace with them, (Orange demonstrations and provocations, and non-compliance, noise and insults to the country, notwithstanding), we nevertheless would cut off our right hands rather than raise them, with bumpers full or empty, to the toast of "The glorious, pious and immortal memory" of the adventurous Dutchman, the sea-dispossessor and usurper of legitimate sovereignty in the British Empire.

Fondly hoping that in future the catholic Irishman, say, and all true Irishmen of Peterboro may be spared the pain and indignity of being present at any such Orange orgies, I am, sir,
Yours truly,
Peterboro, July 23rd, 1891.

THE ORANGEMAN'S REPLY.

To the Editor of The Review.

Sir, In Tuesday's Examiner appeared a letter over the name of Mr. J. W. Fitzgerald, land surveyor, which I think should be read by the people of Ontario as that they, (the Examiner of the province) may know the feelings of one who is in the employ of the Provincial Government and has within the last ten years received their money to the extent of $32,378.40.

Were it not for the well known anti-British sentiments of this man I, the giver of the reception and luncheon in honor of Mr. N. Clarke Wallace, M.P., at the Oriental hotel, attended by many of the principal men of Peterboro, of all persuasions, creeds and professions, would be forced to believe that he represented the opinions of his roman catholic co-religionists, but I am glad to know that his following is very small indeed even from the ranks of the French Canadian.

The Dial's Shadow.

Go, Cupid, say to her I love,
That roses fall and time is fleeting,
I watch the dial's shadow move,
And wait—and wait—to give her greeting,
For youth is sunshine on the dial,
And love is but an old, old story;
The years may dance with late and viol—
The shadow moves—so ends their glory!

Go, Cupid, beckon with your wing,
That sweetest chariot swift as fair,
For we must woe, remembering
How fast the roses fall and wither,
And oft the dial long ago,
The pavement, smelt with mossy edges,
Saw Youth and Love meet all aglow,
And whisper by the old vine-ledge.

Go, Cupid, tell the maid I prize
How many in the court party wandered,
What laughing lips and winking eyes,
In love's delight their beauty squandered!
The ruffs, brocads and buckled shoes,
How selfishly down the paths they patterned
With callants gay in old-world hose,
When crowns and kingdoms little mattered.

Go, Cupid, sleep; your cheek is pale;
And we can see among the saeces:
R.ance is but a weary tale,
Monotonous from all the ages.

My heart! She comes from yonder door;
And time and shadows flit for ever;
Why, there was never youth before,
And love like ours, oh, never—never.

—N. Y. Tribune.

Town Council.

MONDAY, August 3rd, 1891.

Present—Reeve Fisher, in the absence of the Mayor, in the chair, deputy Reeves Bryan and Kyllie, councillors Armstrong, Winters, Touchburn, O'Halloran, Kanny, Bryans, Connolly, Cahill and Crandell.

The following communications were read:—
From the Mayor stating that urgent business prevented him from being able to attend the council, and requesting the council to be economical in expediting—Fyld.

From Dundas and Elaville Bros., re lots 21 and 22 Queen's square, stating that they had appointed Mr. Harry Walters as their arbitrator in regard to the buildings on those lots, received and fyld.

From W. A. Goodwin asking permission to erect a coal house, etc., on his premises on Cambridge street.—Referred to fire and water committee.

From Alex. Frame re repairs to the house he occupies, the property of the corporation, asking for certain repairs.—Referred to committee on town property.

From Hannah MacIsaac stating that she desired purchasing the lot on Queen Square being unable to erect the building required by the council and asking to be allowed to continue in possession until May 1892.—Referred to committee on town property.

From John D. Graham asking for a grant of 130 feet of 6 inch tile.—Referred to street and bridge committee.

From the school board stating the amount to be raised for school purposes for the year 1891.—Referred to finance committee.

From George Moore asking the council to reconsider the motion made at a previous meeting, requiring him to give up possession of the house now occupied by him, and asking in case the council will not permit him to occupy the house that he be paid for papering, etc., done by him before he was notified to give up possession.—Laid on the table.

From Charles Davis and others, corporation laborers, asking by what authority their wages had been reduced from $1.25 to $1 per day. At a later stage of the meeting the matter was taken up, when Mr. O'Neil, the street overseer stated that the men were employed in cutting grass and had been told by him when so employed, their wages would be $1 per day. This some of the men denied, while others admitted it. Some of the council were in favor of granting the extra pay asked for, but it was considered that the claim should be brought before the council in a proper manner, and not relying on the street overseer. A motion to that effect was carried.

Report of the chief constable for July read and referred to the police committee.

Report of the standing committee on finance read, recommending the payment of several accounts, which was on motion adopted.

Report of the police committee for the months of May and June, read and on motion adopted.

Report of street and bridge committee, read by councillor Crandell, the chairman of that committee Reeve Fisher being in the chair, recommending amongst other things that no new sidewalks be built, as the appropriation was about expended. Before moving the adoption of the report the Capt. took exception to that part which recommended that no new sidewalks be built, and moved that a new one be built from Thos. McConnell's to Lindsay street bridge, and steps put down to the new wharf. A short discussion followed as to cost, etc., when the motion was amended by adding that it be referred to the street and bridge committee with power to act. The report was then adopted.

The clerk read a declaration as to the result of the voting on the money by-law.

The permission given Mr. Parlin to erect poles, etc., re electric light, at the request of that gentleman was changed, the words general electric lighting being substituted for lighting the town by electricity.

Mr. Moore addressed the council in reference to a culvert near the G.T.R. station which required lowering, asking the council to have the matter complained of remedied. A motion was subsequently passed instructing the chairman of the street and bridge committee to communicate with the G.T.R. officials, and if the culvert be not at once lowered that the matter be placed in the hands of the town solicitor.

Moved by Mr. Connolly, and seconded by Mr. Crandell, that the chairman of the street and bridge committee be authorized to have a cedar drain of four feet capacity built from Glenzie to Melbourne on Lindsay street. This motion brought on a lively discussion, in which sanitary matters formed a prominent part. Dr. Herriman, medical health officer, addressing the council, taking strong grounds against a cedar drain for sanitary purposes. The motion was finally passed on being amended, that the work be done by tender, and that Mr. Duffie take the proper levels and see that the work is properly done.

A motion was passed authorizing the chairman of town property to have the roof of the fire hall shingled; also to have the new hay weigh scale put up, and to procure all necessary material required.

Moved by Mr. Winters and seconded by Mr. Touchburn, that the chairman of the street and bridge committee be instructed to have the Wellington street sewer put in proper condition, and that they seek for tenders for the work.—Carried.

Council adjourned.

The man who conquers himself has God for a helper, whether he knows it or not.

Saloon.

Credit sale of farm stock and implements at Lot 7, concession 12, Gidway, on Tuesday, August 18th, the property of Mr. Thomas Henderson, C. H. Scott, auctioneer.
