George says it is a real live place for working men during summer but dead enough in winter. He informs us that Mr. James Thompson, formerly of this neighborhood, had the misfortune to lose three of his daughters, all in a few weeks, of diphtheria. Many will be sorry to hear this as they were well known and highly respected here.

MR Richard Cobble, better known as "Cobole Dick," has returned from England and seems somewhat demented since his trip across the sea. They all sing "Home Sweet Home." Miss M. Ouver is home from Toronto for a f-w weeks' vacation. Miss' L zzie Campbell, our esteemed school teacher, left for her home in Cannington on the 24th. She will be succeeded by Minnie Maxwell of Lind

MR. Jas. Lamb, jr., met with a painful accident a few days ago, having split his foot with an axe. He was taken to Fencion Falls to a physician who put nine etitches in the cut. We are pleased to know that his wound is healing nicely. . Mr. James Southam recently had a large underbrushing bee and was successful in having a large piece of thick swamp cut down. Mr. James Armstrong had a large wood-cutting bee and got over forty cords cut.

The residence of Mr. Elijah Oliver was destroyed by fire last week. Mr. Oliver's loss will, no doubt, be heavy, though we understand there was some insurance on the building. His mother will also be a neavy loser by the fire, as she lived in a comtortable home joining that of her son, and she is at present away on a visit to her daughter in Exeter, near London,

MR. John Howie and John Howie, jr. recently purchased a steam thresher, and Mr. Malecim Smith has sold his famous threshing machine to Foster brothers of Verulam. We predict a great streak of tast threshing next year. Mr. Samuel Pogue has sold a fine farm to Mr. C. Curtis of Verulam, for a hand-
