coming along in the bright moonlight last Thursday night, the sounds of band music sounded suddenly upon their ears, and they being of a somewhat investigating nature, began insidiously to move nearer to the direction from whence it came. After wandering for some time they at last came into view of the house of our respected reeve, Mr. Jas. Lithgow. Arriving there they found out the pleasing cause of the unusual noise. The Bobcaygeon brass band had come up to s-renade Mr. Lithgow in congratulations of his having been elected reeve of the township of Verulam at the last municipal election.
