

1891 - 1892

Upon entering another year and expecting continued prosperity we take this opportunity of thanking our customers one and all for their liberal patronage they have given us during the past.

The continued growth of our business, with your help, has enabled us to aggregate a satisfactory volume of trade.

This increase has reduced the percentage of working expenses and increased our ability to furnish you with reliable goods at low or "close" prices.

Such substantial favors are an evidence of your confidence, and show an appreciation of our efforts to serve you well.

In the future, as in the time gone by, we shall endeavor to merit the trust you repose in us and to prove by our business course in general that it has not been misplaced.

We shall try as heretofore to make every customer a friend, not by small words, but by liberal and just dealing; for that way lies prosperity and mutual satisfaction.

Our aim is to keep up with the times. Every needed improvement in the appliances and tools used in our trade is and will be promptly adopted by us. Favorable changes in the market will be taken advantage of, and unfavorable changes anticipated, so far as possible, and provided for.

Our experience of fifteen years in direct touch with the people of the Midland district, our standing as practical workmen, our large and handsomely furnished store, containing a splendid and varied stock of goods in every line we handle; our perfectly equipped workshop, all combine to recommend our house to your continued favorable notice.

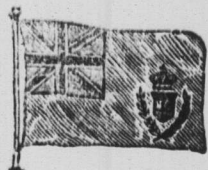

We invite our many friends whose generous support has enabled us to attain our present position in the trade to judge our course in the past, as an earnest of our intentions in the future.

The Victoria Warder

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1892

A union of hearts and a union of hands
A union none can sever;
A union of home and a union of lands
And the flag, BRITAIN FIRST, forever.

NORTH VICTORIA.

Our friends in North Victoria will kindly accept our sincere thanks and hearty congratulations on the result of the election. North Victoria has been redeemed by the handsome majority of 242

Where all did nobly it would be invidious to make distinctions. All have our heartiest thanks. We accept the confidence reposed in us, and hope never to betray it. The trust is an important one, and we fully realize the gravity of our undertaking. However, with the kind encouragement and direction of the people we hope to avoid the rocks, shoals and quicksands lying in the course of politicians.

The liberal conservatives of the riding deeply feel under obligation to Messrs. Cochrane, M. P., N. Clarke Wallace, M. P., J. A. McGillivray, Q. C., A. F. Campbell, M. P. P., W. H. Hoyle, Esq., W. Morton, Esq., Rev. Chas. E. Perry, and others from without the riding, and extend to them their heartiest thanks.

May the liberal-conservatives ever remain active, united and energetic as they now are, and keep the voters' lists well revised; and no power can cross the riding from them.

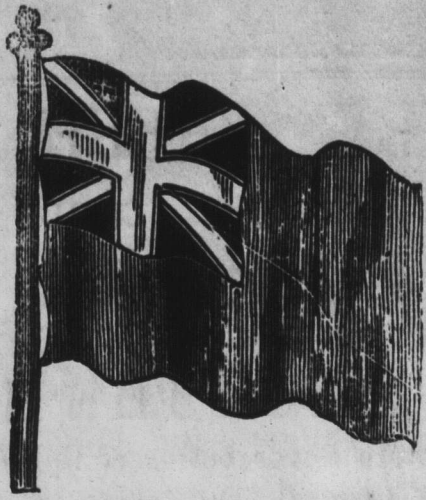

We further desire to express our gratitude to those noble independent reformers who, feeling that our cause and our advocacy thereof were just and right, gave us their cordial support. Our aim has long been to unite the better elements of the reform party with the conservatives.

It is our earnest wish that our friends should not feel too exultant over their opponents. Our joy should be positive over the triumph of right, rather than at the overthrow of wrong. Our reform friends are, many of them, gradually coming to see their party's policy is not in accord with their views. They are gradually forming alliance with the liberal-conservatives.

SOUTH VICTORIA.

Thursday was a busy day with both political parties, not an available vote being left unpolled by either party. The committee rooms were the scene of unusual activity, that around the liberal conservative rooms being apparently the most active, each man acting as if the result of the election depended on his individual effort. Shortly after five o'clock, when the returns commenced to come in showing increased majorities for Mr. Fairbairn, the enthusiasm was increased, but rose to fever heat when the returns from Lindsay showed a majority of 64 for Mr. Fairbairn. An adjournment was made to the opera house, where the chair was taken by Mr. John Dobson, president of the association, who called on several gentlemen to address the vast crowd present, which they done in short pithy speeches until the arrival of Mr. Fairbairn who was hailed by overwhelming cheers.

Mr. Fairbairn addressed the electors for a short time thanking the electors for again returning him, when in the midst of his address the platform gave way, settling down about two feet, causing a slight panic which was however soon allayed. An adjournment was then made, a procession formed, headed by the children's band, which paraded the principal streets of the town. On Friday another procession was formed with Messrs. Fairbairn and Hughes, the members elect for the south and north ridings, at the head, of which and other incidents of the contest we may refer more fully next week.

Two Glorious Victories

Other Victories in the Dominion.

Thursday, February 11th, 1892, will be a memorable day in the annals of Victoria and Haliburton.

In South Victoria Fairbairn of Bobcaygeon was re-elected. This is the third victory for him, his majority on this occasion exceeding all former ones. His opponents are completely buried under and tangled up with binder twine.

In North Victoria Sam Hughes redeemed the riding by the grand majority of 242. Mr. Hughes was defeated last March on the lists of 1889 revision by 202 majority. He has won this year on lists of 1891 revision by 242 majority.

On the arrival of the 10.30 train from Fenelon Falls on Friday morning Sam Hughes and the North Victoria friends with him were met at the station by an immense procession and escorted to his house. Hundreds of flags decorated the sleighs. In the afternoon the joint North and South Victoria parties paraded the town, hundreds of teams joining the march.

Full returns will be found on first page. The following are a few of many messages of congratulations received by Mr. Hughes:

OTTAWA, 12th Feb, 1892. Hearty congratulations on your redeeming North Victoria. You have won a magnificent victory.

J. J. C. ARBUTT. WASHINGTON, D. C., 4th Feb, 1892. Congratulations of Thompson, Foster and myself.

OTTAWA, Feb. 12th, 1892. Congratulations on the confidence and esteem in which you are held in North Victoria.

LONDON, 12th Feb, 1892. Accept my sincerest congratulations on your grand victory.

OTTAWA, 12th Feb, 1892. Receive my sincere congratulations on your grand triumph yesterday.

CAMPBELLFORD, Feb. 12th, 1892. Sincere congratulations on your victory.

OTTAWA, Feb. 12th, 1892. Well done old man! More power to your elbow and accept sincere congratulations.

OTTAWA, Feb. 12th, 1892. Hearty congratulations my dear boy, well done, rah, rah, rah. H. E. STOKELING.

KINGSTON. Shake with both hands. Greatest victory in whole Dominion.

OTTAWA, Feb. 12th, 1892. By the memory of old St. Andrew, in which we both first saw light put your day right there Sam. Shake old fellow.

OTTAWA, Feb. 12th, 1892. Congratulations Sam. Please tell Mr. Fairbairn to send us something with which to celebrate the two Victorias.

TORONTO, Feb. 12th, 1892. The Empire congratulates you on your great victory.

GODERICH, Feb. 11th, 1892. Nobly done. My personal congratulations.

TORONTO, February 11, 1892. Congratulations from the Toronto Young Men's Conservative Association.

OTTAWA, February 12, 1892. Many happy returns of the day.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Feb. 12, 1892. Congratulations on your election. Shake!

BRANTFORD, February 12, 1892. Accept my congratulations for the splendid victory you have achieved.

TORONTO, February 12, 1892. Please accept my congratulations on your glorious victory.

TORONTO, Friday, 1892. DEAR SAM, - Accept my congratulations, even if I happen to be a good 'Grit'.

FROM ONE OF VICTORIA'S FAIR DAUGHTERS. FRIDAY MORNING, Feb. 12, 1892. Allow me to be one of the congratulators on your success yesterday.

OTTAWA, February 12, 1892. Warmest congratulations on your magnificent victory.

PARLIAMENT BUILDINGS, TORONTO, Feb. 12, 1892. Allow me to heartily congratulate you on your magnificent victory.

TORONTO, February 12th, 1892. Hearty congratulations, a great fight well fought. Shaka.

TORONTO, Feb. 12th, 1892. Hearty congratulations. Hurrah for Sam Hughes.

SHUBENCADIE, NOVA SCOTIA, Feb. 12th. Accept my warmest congratulations. North Victoria does well.

OTTAWA, Feb. 12th, 1892. Militiamen and riflemen here extend hearty congratulations.

TORONTO, Feb. 12th, 1892. My congratulations on your splendid victory.

BELLEVILLE, Ont., Feb. 12th, 1892. Accept my warmest congratulations on your splendid victory.

CAMPBELLFORD, Feb. 12th, 1892. Where is '13' Barron now? Accept congratulations.

TORONTO, Feb. 12th, 1892. Accept congratulations on victory. Lindsay people delighted.

WOODBRIDGE, Feb. 12th, 1892. Accept my warmest congratulations.

TORONTO, Feb. 12th, 1892. Allow me to congratulate you on your splendid victory.

TORONTO, Feb. 12th, 1892. My Dear Mr. Hughes, - Accept the heartiest congratulations of one of your old pupils on your splendid victory.

TORONTO, Feb. 12th, 1892. DEAR BRO. SAM, - Allow me to congratulate you with all my heart on your great victory.

CHRONICLE OFFICE. WHITEY, February 12th, 1892. My Dear Mr. Hughes, - I write to congratulate you with all my heart, for the hero of the North. Facing difficulties that would have paralyzed an ordinary man; wounded, belittled and damned by unscrupulous enemies (and some partial party friends);

SMITHS FALLS, February 12, 1892. Glad your labor was not barren in result, accept warmest congratulations.

HAMILTON, Feb. 12, 1892. Pleased for the honor conferred on you. Accept of my congratulations.

TORONTO, February 12, 1892. Well done old seventy-six. It is not the first time you have scored the winning shot.

HAMILTON, February 12, 1892. Accept my hearty congratulations for redeeming North Victoria. You did splendidly.

The success of Mr. Hughes in North Victoria is deserving of special mention. Not only had he to overcome a large Liberal majority as shown in the election of March last, but he had a division in his party and the opposition of local Conservative papers to fight against.

Political Points. Victory! - Victoria torces victorious! The old flag and the old policy carry the day!

Tom trounced and Barron bounded. The grubs bound themselves up with binder twine to first class fashion.

Mr. Walters' bright prospects faded away in the shadows of election day.

Fairbairn's majority is a condemnation of misrepresentation and slander.

Some intelligent Liberals abandoned party and voted for the people's interest.

Fairbairn's uphill work left him on the high level, while his opponent slid down to the bottom.

The honest and capable Government at Ottawa once more endorsed by the people of the queens county.

A Decided Hit!

Never was a more decided hit made than when "Sunlight" Soap was put on the market, revolutionizing the old laborious ways of washing, and converting millions of women to adopt a clean easy and economical way. Have you tried it yet? Don't hesitate, for "Sunlight" will please you

The site of Sam Hughes' vigilance committee must be a sickness to the agitators and advocates of mob violence.

The defeated in order to let themselves down easy will say: "Boo! did it. But they should be plainly told to go to Quebec.

Charles is the Fairbairn fondled by the people of the south, and Sam Hughes the hero of the north. They will both go to Ottawa as the representatives of the queens county.

Sergt-Majr Martin, the loyal and noble fellow that he is, was the recipient of special honors from party friends. Although laid up he insisted on being taken to the polls to cast his vote.

It would really look as if the temperance candidate has been down and jumped upon.

His Worship, Mayor Bay, officiated as master of ceremonies at the Opera House meeting on nomination day with the grace and dignity so natural to him.

Many of the beautiful banners and pretty flags carried in the processions were the handy work of Mrs. Henry Miller. They were much admired.

The feeling was so strong in regard to the result of the contests that a number of sick voters were taken to the polls to cast their ballots.

The election fever affected school pupils in some sections to such an extent that the discussion of politics had to be prohibited by teachers as "blackened eyes and bleeding noses began to show up.

The national stand taken by the people of Canada last March, followed by recent elections has evidently caused the U S Government to respect us as a nation, for they are now willing to talk business.

The jubilation of Liberal Conservatives over the clean sweep made of the county know no bounds. The enthusiasm was unbounded, and the echoes of the cheering were heard even in the British Isles, by cable undoubtedly.

If there is another county in all Canada where so many useful and malicious neutrals were put in circulation by the parties for political purposes it would be interesting to know it, so that the bus might be transferred.

According to grit papers and prophets, the Government at Ottawa has been going to place over since Sir John Macdonald died, but the way the by-elections are going it is plain that they will get very tired waiting for the final break-up.

When the stage platform in the opera house gave way beneath its living weight Thursday night while Fairbairn was speaking and it was found that the whole building had not collapsed one enthusiast shouted: This platform may give way but the platform of the national party never!

As a manipulator of scores Mr. Thomas Fee has become a powerful rival of Sir Richard Cartwright. Has he his eye on the position of Minister of Finance in the new Reform Government to come into existence at Ottawa ere long, according to the prediction of Christopher Gulliver Oddy? It is a coincidence that Tom and Ruseful Knight were both good Tories once.
