A NEW BOAT .- It is understood, says the Bobcaygeon Independent, that a Special to The Warder. company has in serious contemplation the building of a new steamer for the lower lakes. It is proposed to have it as large, it not larger, than the Esturion, and to be of low draught, and extra width in beam. The great fault in all the boats hitherto built on these waters has been marrowness of beam. What is wanted is room and stability. As for speed, it has been demonstrated that the widening of the bearing of one of our best boats incrossed rather than diminished her speed.

OMEMEE.

WELL ATTENDED. - The missionary address given last Friday evening in the methodist church was listened to by a large and appreciative audience. Rev. Mr. Dewey is a good speaker, and treated his subject in his usual able style. PROGRESSING .- The flute band formed some time ago in connection with L.O.L. No. 646, is "coming up" in good style, under the able tuition of Mr. D. H. Mo-Kinlay, and will no doubt be heard from when the "glorious twelfth" comes round. "CANADA, THE GREATEST BRITAIN,"-

Special to the Warder. Wedding Bells.—A very pleasant event occurred on Wednesday, Feb. 24th, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hooton, Pleasant Dale, Cavan, on the occasion of the marriage of their daughter Belle A., to Mr. Sam T. Wilson of Omemee. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Cook of Cavanville. The bride was attired in a corn-flower blue silk costume trimmed with cream colored silk and pearls. The bridesmaid, Miss Ella Hooton, sister of the bride, was attired to a cream henrietta cloth with pink silk trimmings. The groom was Mr. G. Haygarth, of Balsam Lake. After the enteresting ceremony was performed the guests adjourned to the dining-room Davey, that certain parties are applying where supper was served, after which costly presents, which showed the high esteem in which they were held, and on taking their departure for their new home near Omemee, were met with showers of rice and good wishes from all.
