WHEN JACQUES CARTIER

First ascended the St. Lawrence, the remedy in daily use among the Indians was the clear gum exuding from the Pine tree, mixed with Maple syrup, and the French settlers, noticing its be eficial effects in curing Pulmonary complaints, quickly adopted it as a household remedy. This accounts in a great measure for the wonderful popularity of the great cough and cold remedy known as White Pine Balsam, it is made from White Pine, Pine Tar, etc., and is not only recommended as a remedy of remarkable power in the cure of coughs, colds, and all lung affections, but its balsamic soothing and expectorant properties make it a valuable remedy in the treatment of consumption.

RUPTURES.

My dwelling house and contents were burnt on the 25th February. On the 4th March my loss was satisfactorily settled, and to-day, the 8th, I have a cheque for the full amount, $699. Had I continued my insurance in the London Mutual I would have been obliged to wait three months. The interest saved is over $12.00, which is more than my insurance cost altogether. It has paid me to stick to the old agent and let the old company go.

DREADFUL PSORIASIS

Covering Entire Body with White Scales.' Suffering Fearful. Cured by Cutleura.

My disease (psoriasis) first broke out on my left cheek, spreading across my nose, and almost covering my face. It ran into my eyes, and the physician was afraid I would lose my eyesight altogether. It spread all over my head, and my hair all fell out, until I was entirely bald-headed; it then broke out on my arms and shoulders, until my arms were just one sore. It covered my entire body, my face, head, and shoulders being the worst. The white scabs fell constantly from my head, shoulders, and arms; the skin would thicken and be red and very itchy, and would crack and bleed if scratched. After spending many hundreds of dollars, I was pronounced incurable. I heard of the Cuticura Remedies, and after using two bottles Cuticura Remedies, and after using two bottles Cuticura Soap, I was cured of the dreadful disease from which I had used six bottle- of Cuticura Remedies, I was almost cured; and when I had used six bottle- of dreadful disease from which I had suffered for five years. I cannot express with a pen what I suffered before using the Remedies. They saved my life, and I feel it my duty to recommend them. My hair is restored as good as ever, and so is my eyesight.

How is This, Mr. Peter A. Ferguson?

FENELON, March 11, 1892. To the Rditor of The Warder,

SIR .- In the Caradian Post of March 4th., there is a letter under the signature of Peter restrict to him an oath not in the statutes. Permit me through the columns of THE WARDER to deny the statements therein made as being unirue and not in accordance with what occurred, which can be vertified, if necessary, by Neil Sinciair, poll cterk, John Fictal and Dougan Sinciair, scrutineers. When Peter Ferguson came in to vote Mr. why? when Mr. Fittal said, you told me yourself that you had taken the cath of silegiance to the United States. Is snewer, Ferguson denied taking may such oath. I then said, that if Mr. Fittel insisted he would have to take the oath prescribed. I called his atten tion first to sec. 7, of cap. 113, of the Revised Statutes of Canada, which says :-

"Any British subject who has, at any time before or at any time after the fourth day of ada to have ceased to be a British subject and shall be regarded as an Alien."

After he had read this section himself he then took the oath directed to be administered. in which is the following: "That I sm a British subject etc," adding thereto of his own accord "I sm not an American citizen." baving printed on the back "affidavit of citizenship":

State of North Dakota, County of Foster. Peter Ferguson personally appeared before the subscriber, the Clerk of the District Court eighteen hundred and forty-two; that he emigrated to the United States and landed at the port of Huron, Michigan, on or about the month of March in the year eighteen hundred and rinety, that it is bona fide his intention to become a

Mercier Resigns.

QUEBEC, March 10.-Ex-Premier Mercier last evening resigned his seat for Bonaventure, and will retire into private life. He has issued the following manifesto:

QUEBEC, March 9, 1892.

To MY FRIENDS: Mr. Angers is victorious. Hts "coup d'etat" has received the approbation of the electors. Calumny has got the better of the Constitution and the people have refused to blame the man who had substituted himself to the Houses of Parliament and who dissolved them without reason. All the good I have done has been set aside and ingratitude is my only reward. The ver adversity as in prosperity. I will return to labors of the field in order, if presible, to regain health and to my lawyer's office for the maintenance of my family. The "Catholic Vote."

Vol. XXXVI.—Whole No. 1826

From the Orillia Packet.

The H. milton Spectator has an article on the claim that the resent Liberal reverses in Ontario are to be accounted for by the defection of the Roman Catholie Ferguson of Carrington, North Dakots, in vote, which has of late years gone almost which he states that I as deputy returning solidly for that party. Our contemporary officer in No. 8 polling sub-division, admin says: "Reformers must try in some way says: "Reformers must try in some way to account for recent Conservative victories. They cannot possibly acknowledge that their policy has come to be descredited and condemned by the people, their leaders distrusted and their press d-spised because of its disloyalty. They must cast about for some other reason; Fittal (the scrutineer for Mr. Hugher) said to and the Toronto Globe pretends to have metoswear Mr. Ferguson. Mr. Ferguson arked found a resson in an alleged compact between the Abbott Government and the Roman Catholic Church, by which the former was to recure certain legislation in tavor of the latter, and the Church dignitaries were to hand over the votes of Catholic electors to the Conservatives. Now, it such a bargain had been made it would be an immoral bargain. It would be more; it would involve danger to the July 1883, when in any Foreign State and not community and would inevitably lead to under any disability, voluntarily becomes rerious complications. Nothing is more naturalized in such State, shall from and after cortain than that in this country, any the time of his so having become naturalized alliance between church and state by in such Foreign State be deemed within Can, which special privileges, grants or immunicies are secured for any one denomination, is politically unwise, morally wiceg, and a memora to the general welfare of society. It such bargain had been made, it is unnece-sary to say that it would have our determined opposition.' The following is a certified copy of an oath taken by Peter Ferguson, on tyle, in the office of the Clerk of the District Court there is a solutely no evidence in the Foster County, North Dakota, the copy being figures that there was any greater change printed form under the seal of the court, in the Roman Catholic vote then in the Protestant vote. The strick oncludes: "Now let us look at East Simcoe. There a Reform majority of 207 was cranged into a Conservative susjenty of 16. If this change was brought about by a change in the roman catholic vote then of Foster County. State of North Dakors, being a Court of Record, and made oath that ative gains in those townships having the we may look for the greate t Conservhe was born in Canada on or about the year | largest roman catholic popul tion. But we do not find it so. The township of Troy had a roman catholic population of 1,948 out of a total of 3,736. More than alf were roman catholics Well, in Tiny Spohn's majority last year was 146; this year it was 151. Peneranguishene had a population of 1,089, of whom 629 (or more than half) were roman catholic. There Spohn's majority last year was 16; this year it was 178. In fact the Conserva ive gains in East Simcoe were made in exactly those parts of the constituency in which the roman catholic vote was not Subscribed and sworn to before me this first strongest. The Mail asserts that the day of May, A.D., 1890.

JAMPS MURPHY, clerk.

sideration, handed over the roman sideration, handed over the roman catholic vote to the Conservative party. The election returns proved that the vote I, L. C. DeBolt, clerk of the District Court | was never handed over. Roman catholics record now in my office.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set have changed their votes to any greater my hand and affixed the seal of said District extent than was the cause among protest-Court, at my office in Carrington, this 24:h anis." If further proof is wanted to satisfy any reader of the Packet, let him look into the returns for the two ridings of Victoria. In the South riding it will be found that the interal candidate's majorities were actually moreased in the polling sub-divisions where the roman cathelic vote is strongest, and in the North Riding, it ought to need no argument to convince anybody, Sam. Hughes cannot have polled more than a score of votes not protestant. Some pretty strong lie allies, but it may eafely be asserted that there is absolutely no ground for it. Even the Globe admits that "there is nothing in the election returns to support the assertion." As the Packet has already remarked, the sooner the liberal party recognises the fact that their policy is at fault, and ceases hunting every where else for the cause of repeated and continued defeats, the better for itself.
