He contracted a severe attack of the grip, and going out too soon after it, caught a severe cold, and this, with the complication arising therefrom, was the cause of his death, which, however, was not anticipated. He was born in Birkenshire. England, in 1841, and has been connect ed with railway work in Canada for the past thirty-five years, twenty-five years of which were in the service of the Great Western Railway; now a part of the Grand Trunk, and the remaining ten with the latter company. He succeeded to the position held at his death, when Sir Joseph Hickson resigned the presidency of the Grand Trunk, and was succeeded by Wm. Wainwright, now general manager, but then general passenger agent. He was an esteemed citizen of Montreal, being connected with several benefit and fraternal societies. He was a prominent member of the sons of England. In June last Mr. Edgar was married in Port Hope to Miss Hizabeth Tempest, daughter of the late Mr. W. S. Tempest, of this town. Mrs. Edgar has the sympathy of a host of Port Hope friends in her bereavement.
