FRIDAY, JUNE 24, 1892.

A Few of the Business Houses in Lindsay.

E. WILLIAMSON. Mr. E. Williamson, Lindsay's popular photographer, has been established 14 years. To the admirer of photographic art it is pleasure to call at his place and inspect the fine display of all kinds of work ranging from the large life-sized portrait to the ordinary cabinet. You will be sure to be pleased if you have work done here.

J. HORE. The Singer Mi'g Co. is fortunate in having as their representative here a gentleman of the well known energy and ability of Mr. Hore. In his hands the interest of the com-pany has been well looked after, while hundreds of those world famous sewing machines have been placed in the homes of the people of this county. At his office is a large stock; also all kinds of repairs.

MAGWOOD & CALHOUN. another of our most successful business es ublishments is the hardware business of the sterprising firm above named. Messrs. Mag-wood & Calhoun established about a year ago. The success which has attended their efforts has been most satisfactory. To the public every possible advantage is offered. The stock is large and complete and first class in every

A, CAMPBELL

Next we come to Mr. A. Campbell's popular grocery store. This gentleman has been identified with the grocery trade of Lindsay for some 22 years, 12 years for himself, and is one of the most successful in his line. He has a large yearly trade. His well known apright principles have won for his business the entire confidence of the people.

JOHNSTON & SISSON. This live and energetic firm are building up an equensive business. They recently bought out the well known boot and shoe business formerly carried on by Bryans & Co., and are making a success of it. The turn-over of goods at their store is very large. In the purchase of their stock the firm deal with the best manufacturers and they thus protect the interest of their patrons by careful buying. They also do a wholesale business.

G. W. BEALL. "There's an establishment," said a prominent citizen of Lindsay, indicating the store of Mr. G. W. Beall, "which holds a high place in the confidence and appreciation of our peo-This business was founded 29 years ago by the father of the present proprietor. The store contains a splendid atock of watches, clocks, jewelry, books, stationery, etc. Mr. and Mrs. Beall are at present on a trip to the old country. CATHRO & CO. No name is better known in connection with merchant tailoring business of Lindsay than that of Cathro & Co. Mr. Cathro has the advantages of long and practical experience hav-ing been established 20 years. Of his abilities as a cutter it is unnecessary for us to speak as his work shows for itself. In regards to the stock carried he has the largest and best in

D. SINCLAIR.

A successful carriage manufacturing and general blacksmithing business is that owned and carried on by Mr. D. Sinclair. In the first place we may say that this business has an established reputation for turning out a superior line of vehicles. Mr. Sinclair has always aimed at this, and with long experience has come a thorough knowledge of business. None but the best seasoned material is used and all work is guaranteed. All kinds of wheeled vchicles are manufactured; wagons, buggies, carriages, etc., for which a ready sale

H. FOWLER & CO. A reference to Lindsay's excellent photographic studio successfully conducted by Messrs. Fowler & Co. will occupy a prominent place in our review. This studio is widely and tavorably known for turning out a superior line of work, and is noted for being up with every improvement in the art. Having the advantages of large and practical experience Mr. Fowler is master of the art. GEO. A: METHERELL. We came next to the excellently equipped, books, stationery and fancy goods store of Mr. Geo. A. Metherell, most of his stock.

Having described the various business establishments of the town, in referring to its professional men we may say, that the gentle-man above named is well known as one of the man above named is well known as one of the most successful dentists in this section of the province, and for nearly eighteen years has done a large share of the dental business of Lindsay and surrounding country. His abilities and long experience having won for him the confidence of the people. Familiar with the details of all branches of his business, and adopting all valuable improvements and methods of practice, any work entrusted to Mr. Gross is done in the most fatisfactory manner. His rooms are in the Kennedy block on Kent Street.

MISS MITCHELL.

Our town possesses the advantages of a millinery business which is fully up to city establishments. We refer to the popular business of Miss Mitchell which is doing a large share of the millinery trade of the town. It is a pleasure to visit these splendidly appareled millinery parlors and examine the artistic display of stylish and fashionable goods. Here is seen an elaborate assortment of beautiful goods, several tables adorned with elegantly trimmed hats also flowers &c.

J. R. SHANNON. Another business deserving of special mention in our review is that carried on by Mr. J. R. Shannon, proprietor of the popular liquor store at 19 Kent street.
Mr. Shannon recently established and judging from the favor the business is studio is equipped with all the latest made a success of it. Call here and see a success of it. meeting with from the public he will build up an extended patronage. One of the excellent features of this business is that the stock carried is all the best the markets afford, embracing all kinds foreign and domestic liquors.

A. DORAN. Since disposing of his grocery business Mr. Doran has devoted his attention entirely to the liquor department and has built up a large business. He has estab. lished a reputation for handling superior goods and fair and upright dealing. A large stock of all the best brands of toreign and domestic liquors carried. Mr. in the county. Doran has built up a good wholesale business with hotel men of neighboring towns.

EYRES, GRAHAM & CO. This enterprising grocery firm, though established but a short time, through indomitable energy and persevering enter-prise has succeeded from a small and fancy goods, musical instruments &c. unpretentious beginning, in developing a volume of trade that is unrivalled by many city stores of greater pretensions. This is the supply store for the Patrons of of Mr. J. Maunder, lumber and coal mer-Industry, and is also well patronized by chant, will occupy a prominent place in town consumers and others.
