

DR. TALMAGE IN EUROPE

THE IMMENSE COST PAID FOR THE CHRISTIAN'S SOUL.

The Tabernacle Preacher Addresses a London, England, Congregation From the Text: "Ye Are Bought With a Price"

A Magnificent Sermon by the Eloquent Divine.

LONDON, England, June 26, 1892.—Dr. Talmage preached in this city to-day.

His reception in England has been most enthusiastic. Many letters were awaiting him from different cities eagerly pleading for a visit.

Well, my friends, I hear so much about our mansion in heaven, about its furniture and its surroundings, that I want to know how much it costs.

Now, if you have a large amount of money to pay, you do not pay it all at once, but you pay it in instalments.

The first instalment paid for the clearance of our souls was the ignominious birth of Christ in Bethlehem.

The third instalment paid for our redemption was the Saviour's shaming trial. I call it a shaming trial—there has never been anything so indecent or unfair in any criminal court as was witnessed at the trial of Christ.

Oh, look at Him! No one to speak a word for Him. I lift the lantern until I can look into His face, and as my heart beats in sympathy for this, the best friend the world ever had, I myself now utterly friendless, an officer of the court-room comes up and smiles at Him in the mouth and I see the blood staining from gum and lip.

Let us open the door of the caravansary in Bethlehem and drive away till we can press on through the group of idlers and loungers. What, O Mary! no light? "No light," she says, "save that which comes through the door."

The second instalment paid for our soul's clearance was the scene in Quarantary, a mountainous region, full of caverns, where there are to this day panthers and wild beasts of all sorts.

pretended to be—a good coat of mail. Then the men received a large reward. I bless God that the same coat of mail that struck back the weapons of temptation from the head of Christ we may now all wear.

"But," says Satan, still further to Jesus, "Come, and I will show you something worth looking at;" and after a half day's journey they came to Jerusalem, and to the top of the temple.

Go to-morrow morning and get in an altercation with some wretch crawling up from a gutter in the lowest part of the city. No, you say, "I would not be demeaned myself by getting into such a contest."

With some of our friends I went to your Tower to look at the Crown Jewels. We walked around, caught one glimpse of them, and, being in the procession, were compelled to pass out.

With some of our friends I went to your Tower to look at the Crown Jewels. We walked around, caught one glimpse of them, and, being in the procession, were compelled to pass out.

The third instalment paid for our redemption was the Saviour's shaming trial. I call it a shaming trial—there has never been anything so indecent or unfair in any criminal court as was witnessed at the trial of Christ.

Oh, look at Him! No one to speak a word for Him. I lift the lantern until I can look into His face, and as my heart beats in sympathy for this, the best friend the world ever had, I myself now utterly friendless, an officer of the court-room comes up and smiles at Him in the mouth and I see the blood staining from gum and lip.

Let us open the door of the caravansary in Bethlehem and drive away till we can press on through the group of idlers and loungers. What, O Mary! no light? "No light," she says, "save that which comes through the door."

The second instalment paid for our soul's clearance was the scene in Quarantary, a mountainous region, full of caverns, where there are to this day panthers and wild beasts of all sorts.

but can do no good. It is no place for the tender-hearted woman. It wants a heart that crime has turned into granite.

"If I have done wrong, I will do it no more," said the man who had been heard in the tumult; but he looked at the clash of spears and the wailing of womanhood, and the neighing of the chargers, and the hallowing of the crucifixes, and he was a voice crashing through loud, clear, overland, terrific, as if the groaning of the dying son of God. Look! what a scene! Look, world, at what you have done!

Oh, sinner, come, come back! If a man is in no pain, if he is prospered, if he is well, and he asks you to come, you take your time and you say, "I will not be disturbed until a while."

It is divided into three parts by the "Octagon plaza," where it crosses the larger ring-strasse, and by the "Royal plaza," and "Sizena," a point where another encircling boulevard is eventually to cross.

The winter season I know very little of, except from information gathered from those who have spent years here, and it is difficult to rely upon what you are told.

The illustration of Budapest is a monopoly in the hands of a private gas company. The city obtains gas for the street purposes at reduced rates; it obliges the company to mitigate its charge on consumers in accordance with the demand based upon the increase in aggregate consumption.

Street transportation has also been kept under control by the municipality. United tramway system pays street rentals and large taxes. The company's fares are fixed by law, and it is required that working people shall be carried at reduced rates.

Glasgow's Song Birds. Glasgow is famous among Scotch cities for its captive song birds. Belgian canaries bred in Glasgow often fetch as high as £10 apiece, and the linnets, goldfinches and various cross breeds are equally famous and valuable.

H. R. Marcy, of Forsyth, Mont., has the head of a deer that has three irregular horns on each side and the irregular horns between the two larger ones.

EDMONTON.

June 30, 1892.

To the Editor of The Warder.

DEAR SIR,—Upon hearing Edmonton Station called out we expected we had arrived in the town, but we found it only the terminus of the Calgary and Edmonton Railway, Edmonton proper being in the distance two miles, and on the opposite side of Saskatchewan River.

On Saturday, the 16th inst., my barn in Emily was burnt by a blazing shingle from a burning barn on an adjacent farm.

Now for me to attempt to describe this Edmonton district, or to bring before the public in a plain and explicit manner the resources and capabilities of this great country, having been here only about two months, I shall not attempt to do so until later on.

I will give you a few particulars regarding the soil, which is a black vegetable loam free from stone, sand or gravel, from one to three feet in thickness, resting on a sub-soil of marly clay twenty feet in depth.

The finest single street in Edmonton is the Andrastry-strasse, a broad boulevard connecting the inner city with the "Stadt-waldchen." The Andrastry-strasse is perfectly straight and two miles long. It was planned with consummate art, and is one of the most beautiful and effective streets in Europe.

The winter season I know very little of, except from information gathered from those who have spent years here, and it is difficult to rely upon what you are told.

The illustration of Budapest is a monopoly in the hands of a private gas company. The city obtains gas for the street purposes at reduced rates; it obliges the company to mitigate its charge on consumers in accordance with the demand based upon the increase in aggregate consumption.

H. R. Marcy, of Forsyth, Mont., has the head of a deer that has three irregular horns on each side and the irregular horns between the two larger ones.

now it is snowing thick and fast the ground is white. I remarked to an old settler that I did not expect to see snow up here in June. "Oh," he said, "this will do the crops good. Young man said we, we have snow in every month of the year, you can never be sure of what it is going to do up here."

INSURANCE S. CORNEIL

A Prompt Settlement.

LAKE ONTARIO STEAMBOAT COMPANY.

DAILY FOR ROCHESTER

G. A. METHERELL'S

YOUR FACE

CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY.

Call and see. All are invited to MISS MITCHELL'S Grand Display of Millinery, Dress and Mantle making.

I sell the following makes of PIANOS & ORGANS

J. WETHERUP.

THE VICTORIA WARDER IN CONNECTION WITH THE ENCYCLOPEDIA BRITANNICA

Whose Fault?

THE ENCYCLOPEDIA BRITANNICA Revised and Amended.

THE WORK IS ILLUSTRATED

HOW YOU MAY PAY FOR THE BOOKS