Mr. Stone exchange pulpits in the evening. Mr. George W. Stokes, of Mariposa, offers his farm for sale. See advt. in another column. This is a good farm, well situated, being two and one half miles south of Little Britain. A That old, true and tried liberal-conservative,

Mr. John Thornbury, of Glenarm, gave THE WARDER a call on Monday on his way to visit his son Samuel, in Perth, county of Lanark. Economy is wealth, and the best way to economize is to buy your boots and shoes at Perkins & Co's., 52 Kent street, Lindsey. They have reliable goods and their prices are the lowest.—34-tf.

Mr. Robert Bunting attended the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of True Blues at Belleville on Wednesday and Thursday, Mr. Bunting represented the Hacket True Blue Lodge. No. 38. of this town

Mr. W. J. Hallett and his son Willie have gone to spend their holidays on the Muskoka lakes, where boating and fishing will form a pleasant and appreciative change from the weary routine of the school room.

Mr. Wm. Farquarsen of Toronto, representing the wholesale house of R. Thompson & Co., was in town Thursday of last week and gave THE WARDER a call. Billy's host of friends were glad to se him looking so well. That energetic general agent of the Singer Sewing Machine Company, John Hore, was in Minden last week, and appointed Mr. Walter Munn as agent for Haliburton county, From Mr. Hore's experience as an agent we have every confidence in saying the right man is in the right place.

Mrs. Robert Oxby. of Cambray, was in town on Saturday and favored The Warder with a call. Mrs. Oxby, takes a deep interest in Geology and has great faith in the yet undeveloped mineral resources of this country. It is with pleasure we forward specimens of her collection to Ottawa for analysis.

English Spavin Liniment removes all hard, soft or calloused lumps and blemishes from horses, blood spavin, curbs, splints, ring bone, sween, stifles, sprains, sore and swollen throat, coughs, etc. Save $50 by use of one bottle. Warranted the most wonderful blemish cure ever known, Sold by E. Gregory.—1800-ly.

Among the contributors to the July Arena will be Mrs. M. French-Sheldon, who will appear in an illustrated article on scenes and experiences in the wilds of Africa. Mildred Aldrich, who contributes a richly illustrated paper on Julia Marlowe. J. F. Muirhead, who bids fair to distance Max O'Rell as a brilliant essayist. Mr. Muirhead writes humorously on a Briton's impression of America, but there is no bitterness in his raillery. Edwin Reed opens what promises to be the most scholarly and complete discussion of the Bacon-Shakespeare controversy even written. Hon, Wm. E. Springer, the leader of the Democratic House, Hon. J. C. Burrows, of Michigan, and Hon. Thomas E. Watson discuss the pending presidential campaign. This issue will be one of the most brilliant numbers ever published.
