THE DOMINION GOVERNMENT'S COURSE.
Thus far the relations between the Quebec Government and the Protestant Committee have been portrayed. Let us now review the connection the Dominion Government had with the question. Celebration of the Relief of Derry at Lindsay.

THE PRINCIPATIAN AMERICAN AMERICA We look for justice towards Canada's Minister of Justice from the noble old "Soldier of the Crose" in Montreal. We know he cannot read for himself as in days of old, and therefore his friends may not have drawn his attention to the true situation of the subject in Quebec. We feel sure Dr. Douglas would have been heard in 1888 during the passage of the Act and subsequently had he known of it; and it is equally certain that his objections would not have been mere grasping "for more boodle from Mercier," as were those of the "Protestant Committee" of Quebec Province.
