Goodwin has removed his Room Paper and Picture Frame store to Holker's Block, next to the Post Office, where in due time, with increased facilities, orders for window shades, mirrors, plate or stained glass, picture frames, room paper, alabaster, etc., etc., will be attended to now. Paper hanging and sign painting as usual. See samples of the new room mouldings before repainting your pictures. Prices very reasonable.—41-17.

A VETERAN ORANGEMAN.—At Fraserville a very affecting ceremony took place on the twelfth of July. L.O.L. No. 46 attended the annual celebration on the 12th at Lakefield, and on their return visited Bro. W. Wright, who had attended forty-nine celebrations in Canada and ten in the old land, but was prevented from joining the lodge this year through sickness. While the drums and fife played the usual Protestant tunes, Bro. Wright, assisted by Bro. McBride, walked bareheaded under the banner, and after shaking hands with the brethren, he bid them good-bye, with the earnest prayer that if he should not meet them again in this world they might all join him in the better land.—Port Hope Guide.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—J. Britton (of the firm of Britton Bros., jewelers, Lindsay), issues a marriage license for $2.00. East end of Kent street.—1770-17.

WELLS DRILLED.—Parties wishing wells drilled in limestone rock will do well by corresponding with Peter Johnston, who has an improved outfit and long experience in the business. Cobocook P.O.—35-13.

OBITUARY.—On Monday last Joseph Kello, Jr., died at his residence in Boboysgeon from the fell disease consumption. Deceased was about 30 years of age, and leaves a wife and two young children, who have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

DEMY WALZ.—N. Clarke Wallace M.P., has accepted the invitation to be present and deliver an address at the great celebration here on the 12th. Rev. Chas. Ferry, of Toronto, is also expected. Great preparations are being made for the comfort and pleasure of visitors to Lindsay on that occasion.

A WORD TO THE GRAND TRUNK.—Gross Hill is a way-station on the Grand Trunk railway. Large numbers of passengers daily leave and arrive by the train there; yet there is no shelter from sun, rain, wind, cold, heat or snow. Let us hope the Grand Trunk will erect a neat place of shelter. We feel sure it will be only necessary to point out the requirement and the work will be done.

FOR HYDE PARK.—On Wednesday last Messrs. William Gainer and Mark Morrison of Minden called at Lindsay en route for Hyde Park, Dakota, where they will visit old friends and relatives who moved from Minden about twelve years ago; among whom are Mr. James Gainer, Mr. Wm. Gainer's brother, and Messrs. Eze and Buck, both brothers-in-law. The WARDER wishes these two estimable citizens of Minden a pleasant trip, a happy renewal of old associations, and a safe return.

HENRY M. PERDUE, one of Somerville's best citizens spent Friday last in town. Mr. Perdue reports the diphtheria which was in Mr. Hartwick's family in that township to have vanished. It was confined to the one family, Mr. Hartwick, a consistent Methodist, acknowledges his gratitude to a Roman Catholic nurse and to an English neighbor who daily brought food all ready prepared and placed it where the afflicted family could get it. The prayers of his clergyman, Mr. Hartwick's supplications, must belong to the long range variety.

DONALD GRANT, Esq., ALL RIGHT.—Last Saturday, Sunday and part of Monday this week and county was thrown into intense excitement owing to rumors about the loss of Donald Grant of Woodville being in circulation. All kinds of stories were afloat, and notices were posted inquiring for him. Scores from Woodville, Mariposa and Eldon came in to search for him. But the joyous news reached town on Monday forenoon that Mariposa's worthy citizen was visiting friends in Toronto. All's well that ends well.

A FRENCH PROVERB.—On Saturday last, July 30th, Mrs. Clarke of Cambridge died. She was mother of Duncanson, Neil and Peter Clarke and also of Mrs. Henry Mark and Mrs. Geo. Vanstone. The funeral took place on Monday to Lorneville, Eldon, and was, despite the depressing weather, very largely attended.

The deceased was a very old resident of the township. Universally respected and beloved Mrs. Clarke will be sadly missed by her relatives.

HOMES.—A few good drivers for sale. Second to none in the county. Apply at this office or to W. W. Logan, dealer in organs and pianos.—45-17.

HELLO! where did you get those boots? Why at Perkins & Co's, 52 Kent street, Lindsay. They have the latest styles and their prices are the lowest.—34-17.

JOHN MORRIS, general agent for the Singer Sewing Machine Co., is ready to employ agents in all unrepresented districts. Office, Adams' block, Kent St., Lindsay.—32-17.

REMOVAL.—Miss Galbraith, music teacher, has removed from the rooms formerly occupied by her, over Mr. Robinson's gun shop, to Number 86 William street, two doors south of the woolen factory.—32-26.

HERE'S A POINTER.—Keep your eye on the Sun Life office, which has been removed from 103 Kent St., to 94 Kent street, over Fairweather & Co's, fur store. Parties who intend insuring should not fail to get rates and full particulars before doing so from J. F. FERREARD, general agent.—46-4.

LAUGHING GAS.—Dr. Colton of New York, the originator of gas for extracting teeth writes of Neelands' that he has given over Fairweather & Co's, fur store. Parties who intend insuring should not fail to get rates and full particulars before doing so from J. F. FERREARD, general agent.—46-4.

TO THE PROPRIETORS of Chicago's eight thousand or ten thousand people, who have their doors always wide open on the Lord's day, the prospect of seventy-five thousand or one hundred thousand people going to the Exposition on Sunday, instead of remaining in town and spending their money in grog shops, is alarming and distressing. It aims a cruel blow at their tenderest point—their cash boxes.—New York Herald.

LINDSAY INDUSTRIES.—Census bulletin No. 12, issued by the department of agriculture, shows the following figures regarding the growth of industries in Lindsay: In 1881 the capital invested was $273,796; hands employed, 399; wages paid, $96,199, cost of material used, $334,548; value of products at factory, $542,103. In 1891, capital invested, $585,250; hands employed, 615; wages paid, $174,145; cost of material used, $688,559; value of products at factory, $1,043,602.

A BRIDAL EVENT.—On Tuesday, Aug. 2nd, Rev. Philip H. Allen, B.A., of Mansonville, Que., son of Parmenas Allen, of Little Britain, was married to Miss Lizette Gaudet, daughter of Joseph Gaudet, of Mansonville, Que., Rev. Roger Allen of Mount Albert, officiating. The ceremony was witnessed only by the near friends and relatives of the contracting parties. Many valuable gifts were bestowed on the happy bride and groom at Mrs. Elliott's parlors in Toronto, and many congratulations to the happy couple.

THAT WHISTLE.—There goes that terrible shrieking whistle again! What's the matter Ralph! Has the Messrs. Laidlaw Bro's, whole herd of cattle come down from Balsam Lake ranch and become immovably fixed upon the Victoria Avenue; or what's the matter anyway! Will the boys not put on the brakes or will they not take off the brakes, or—there goes the whistle again! Now, Ralph, that's just enough of that. We've been listening to whistles ever since we were a small boy and are really fond of whistles, but say, the like of that whistle of yours we never heard before and have no time for. The people of Victoria Avenue join us in warning you to remove that whistle.

OBITUARY.—On Wednesday of last week Miss Emily Hardy, of Peniel, Mariposa, passed away after a long and painful illness; especially the past two months her sufferings were great and indescribable which she bore with Christian fortitude and patience. The funeral on Thursday at Little Britain cemetery, despite the warm day, was very largely attended by relatives and friends. The funeral sermon was conducted by Rev. J. Powers of Cannington, assisted by Rev. E. Greatrix of Little Britain, which was impressively felt by all present. Miss Hardy will be greatly missed in the Sabbath school, as she was a faithful worker in the cause of Christ. Deep sympathy is felt for the bereaved family in this their hour of affliction.

A BAPTIST PARTY.—Sturgeon lake is yearly becoming a more famous resort. Sturgeon Point has long been noted. Ball Point, Pleasant Point, The Bee Hive, and many other charming localities are also well-known. "The Scotch Line" is bidding fair to exceed them all. A few years ago our old friend Mungo Namith located the spot, erected a neat residence, and this summer finds two other large residences erected, with demand for more. Mr. Namith's brother, Mr. J. D. Namith, Mrs. Broder, Mr. West, the well-known shoe merchant of Toronto, and many friends there see their families enjoy the healthful breeze of Victoria. Mr. W. West, son of the above named, with his charming young Arkansas bride, have been spending a few holidays with their relatives on the shores of the lake. Our old student will kindly accept congratulations on his marriage and on his success in life, he being the trusted accountant in Taylor Bros. Safe Works, Toronto. Our readers will remember that Mr. M. Namith's daughter is the wife of Rev. J. B. Kennedy son of that worthy citizen, Mr. W. Kennedy of Bellevue, Verulam, and brother of Bobt. Kennedy of Killaly & Kennedy Lindsay.

THE INTER-COUNTY BRIDGES.—A joint meeting of the sub-committees of the counties of Victoria and Peterborough selected from the general committees appointed to deal with the question of the inter county bridges, will meet at Boboysgeon, on Tuesday next 9th inst., to complete the contract with the Central Bridge Works, of Peterborough, for the erection of the steel superstructure of the Forest House bridge, and also to arrange for the erection of a temporary bridge at the same point of crossing. The report from County Engineer Belcher will be received and considered as to repairs required to the Pigeon Creek floating bridge. We may say in reference to the paragraph in our issue of the 19th of July last, respecting the meeting of the committees of the counties of Peterborough and Victoria, held at the Court House on the 18th July, we regret to find we did not mention a second proposition made by the Victoria committee, looking to a settlement of the proportion to be contributed by each of the counties towards the maintenance of the Boboysgeon bridges and the Pigeon Creek floating bridge. Victoria proposed to contribute three-tenths of the cost of the Forest House bridge and seven-tenths of the Boboysgeon bridges. Peterborough declined this, and offered to contribute one-half to the Pigeon Creek and one-quarter to the Boboysgeon bridges, which was declined by Victoria. The latter proposition was made (the second for Victoria) the proportions should be: on the Boboysgeon bridges—Victoria, seven-tenths and Peterborough, three-tenths; and on the Pigeon Creek floating bridge—Victoria, one-third and Peterborough two-thirds. It is possible that on further consideration a basis may be reached, something as indicated above, on which the matter can be adjusted without the expense that would be incurred by having recourse to arbitration.—Peterboro' Review, 3rd August.

AGONIZING ECZEMA

Awful Suffering. Driven Almost Insane by Doctors. Tried Ointments. Relief Immediate. Entirely Cured in 4 Months.

I suffered with the dreadful eczema for over six months, during which time I had consulted three doctors, and this tormenting skin disease had grown worse and worse on me in spite of all medical treatment. My legs were swollen, my arms were raw, my face and neck full of eruptions, which made me scratch and my whole body was soiled and pained with the sticky fluid. I could hardly bear my clothing. When night came I was unable to go to bed, and sleep would come to me only by the use of the CUTICURA.

Here, but the itching would increase. During daytime had no rest. I was all broken up, nervous to the highest degree, and nearly driven to despair. At that time I read about the CUTICURA in the "Ward" and intended to try them, and dropped the doctors. After applying CUTICURA I had the relief I had longed for, and in four days the itching was entirely gone. After three to four months' use of them I was cured. Our minister, Rev. J. G. Perrault, in Manson, knows me and knows how I suffered. Any one may write to him and he will certify to the truth of the testimonial.

E. B. STEINBRUECK, Mandan, North Dakota.

BOTH GO DOWN.—At the Severn Bridge on Tuesday last, the little four-year-old son of William Reamer, while playing on a crib at the side of the river, fell into the water. His sister Mercy, a brave girl of 16 summers, rushed to the rescue, but before assistance arrived both sank and were drowned.

LITTLE BRITAIN.—On Wednesday, July 27th, the afternoon was taken as a civic holiday by the people of Little Britain, the promoters of the days amusements being Mr. Walter Elliott of the Collegiate Institute, Hamilton who with Mrs. Elliott, and Miss Elliott, the people of Little Britain, and W. J. Burden. A base ball match between the married and single men of the village, in which the latter were victorious, took place on Thursday, 18th August. One being by the young ladies, and several games constituted the programme. A pleasant and enjoyable day was spent with the friends.

DEATH OF MRS. ROBERT BRYANS, Sr.—On July 29th, last Saturday morning, Mrs. Robt. Bryans, Sr., died in Lindsay at the residence of her son Robert. The aged lady was born 84 years ago in Fermanagh, Ireland, and early married Robert Bryans, and removing to Canada settled in Cartwright. Her maiden name was Jane Fair. There a large family grew up around them. They were Mary, who married Richard Rowan of Cassara, Ann Jane, Margaret, married to James Scott of Cartwright, John, married to Miss Moore of Cartwright, and James whose wife was Miss Etta Bruce of Blackstock. All the above members of the Bryans' family are dead. James died in 1891, John in 1890, while the three girls are dead several years. Robert, married to Miss Logan, and Edward alone survive, and both now live in Victoria County. Mrs. Bryans was aunt of Wm. Golden of Fenton Falls. She has a sister Mrs. Wright of Manitoba, and a brother Mr. Fair of Gorrie, John Bryans, Esq., of town, is brother of her late husband. The funeral took place on Sunday last to Cartwright. A very large number of old friends met the funeral at Burketon and accompanied it to the cemetery where Rev. Mr. O'Neil conducted the funeral service. Rev. Mr. Marchant officiated at the graveside. Mrs. Bryans had very many warm friends, and will long be remembered for her goodness of heart, qualities which distinguish her family.
