Mr. Craig of Toronto, one of the old colle-giate institute "boys," spent Sunday at Sturgeon Point. He is a splendid looking fellow. Sturgeon Point is becoming a very favorite resort for many of Toronto's citizens on Saturdays and Sundays.

As an after-dinner pill, to strengthen the stomach, assist digestion, and correct any billious tendencies, Ayer's Pills are considered the best. Being sugar-coated, they are as agreeable as any confection, and may be taken by the most delicate.—46-1.

Mr. J. E. Allan of Catheart, Co. of Brant, has been visiting old Reaboro friends. All were glad to see him, one "gladder". Smith's Falls, Brockville, Thousand Islands, and Rochester were also visited. There is no place better than or quite so good as Victoria Co.,

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Hamilton, of Peterboro, were in town on Saturday. They have been spending a pleasant time at Coboconk, the popular summer resort of the north. The hotel accommodation of this romantic little village on the Guil river waters is second to none in the North Country.

The Grand Trunk railway, with its usual The Grand Trunk railway, with its usual good taste and energy have issued a volume of "Pen and Pencil Sketches along the Route" of their railway. It is really a beautiful work of art. The views are charming. Quebec, Montreal, the St. Lawrence Rapids, Ottawa, the Thousand Islands, the Detroit tunnel, besides inland views. We hope the next volume will find Victoria county Grand Trunk scenes degrees.

We have just received a letter from our old friend Mr. Amos Train, formerly of Kinmount but now of Green Valley, Kinmount but now of Green Valley, Glengarry Co., and are pleased to hear of his success in securing a good position as C.P.R. telegraph operator at Green Valley. Our friend expresses regret at not being able to get out to celebrate the 12th with his brethren, but wore his badge all the same. We are pleased to forward The Warder to Mr. Train per his request. THE WARDER to Mr. Train per his request.

The conservatives of East Toronto village in East York gave their member W. F. McLean of the World a comlimentary banquet on Friday night last. The arrangements were perfect and reflect great credit on Dr. Shaw, chairman, an old Manvers boy, and the committee who were largely Grand Trunk men.

That accounts for the success. Mr. McLean, Mr. Coateworth, M.P., Sam Hughes, M.P., and many others addressed the meeting. A most enjoyable evening was spent. Mr. Lynch, brother of Dr. Lynch of town, was present and made a next speech. East York is now solid for the conservative party.

Ayer's Pills

They are composed of the purest vegetable aperients. Their delicate sugar coating, which readily dis-solves in the stomach, preserves their full medicinal value and makes their full medicinal value and makes them easy to take, either by old or young. For constipation, dyspep-sia, biliousness, sick headache, and the common derangements of the Stomach, Liver, and Bowels; also to check colds and fevers, Ayer's

Are the Best

Unlike other cathartics, the effect of Ayer's Pills is to strengthen the excretory organs and restore to them their regular and natural acthem their regular and natural action. Doctors everywhere prescribe them. In spite of immense competition, they have always maintained their popularity as a family medicine, being in greater demand now than ever before. They are put up both in vils and boxes, and whether for home use or travel, Ayer's Pills are preferable to any other. Have are preferable to any other. Have you ever tried them?
