A Cure for Constipation and Headache.
Dr. Sill's Laxative, which is the Rocky Mountain Laxative, discovered a root that when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Sill's Laxative. It will cure constipation in one night. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 25¢ per package.—517.

Agincourt vs Salem, Base Ball.

To The Editor of the Warbler.
With your kind permission, we wish to make use of the columns of THE WARBLER to call the attention of those citizens of Lindsay who kindly patronized our ball-game with Salem, on the 5th inst., to what we consider an act of petty meanness and injustice on the part of those who were supposed to furnish the music—the Sonya brass band. It may surprise some of you to learn that it was a musical entertainment which they attended on that occasion, the ball game being simply an "incident" to fill in the two hours' intermission between the two selections of the band. When we met the Salem club at Stouffville, the event being a ball-game and not a musical festival, the gate receipts as agreed were divided equally, and a like arrangement at Lindsay would have been perfectly satisfactory to us. The Salem club however, being, we understand, under an obligation to the band, proposed that they be engaged at Lindsay, and thereby foregoing their own expenses, proposed that after the expense of the band be defrayed the receipts be equally divided between the Heather club and the band. This was accepted by us. Judge of our surprise then, when we were informed by the band that there were no receipts for us, although the amount taken at the gate was about $40. Now, we have never made money any feature of our ball-playing, but we certainly object to travelling 60 miles at our own expense, to figure in a benefit game for a brass band.
As lovers of legitimate sport, we have always tried to act honorably and to deal fairly, and have expected and hitherto received, a like return; and we can say, that if the band, which we understand is a somewhat new venture, ever hopes to gain any degree of public confidence they must sedulously avoid any such practices as the above, however "sharp" they may at present think them.

HEATHER B.B.C.
[The above letter comes from a very prominent citizen of Agincourt, hence knowing it to be genuine it is published. We regret exceedingly that there should be any misunderstanding between clubs made up of such good fellows as constitute Salem and Agincourt. Decree of the exception notwithstanding, therefore let all try to preserve the two that stand pre-eminently forth as gentlemen. We do not know the particulars; but if Sonya band received $40, they certainly were overpaid. The best band in Canada could be had for that sum for similar numbers. But our Agincourt friend is very greatly in error in estimating the receipts at $40. Our experience with crowds is very considerable and our estimate of the attendance there, without allowing for necessary expenses, would be far under any such sum. If anything unfair has fallen to the lot of Agincourt it certainly was not so intended by the Salem team; and it will just as certainly be righted on another occasion. We do not know the details so can only speak in general terms. We have confidence in the honor of both teams, and personally know it of all the Salem, and several of the Agincourt boys. It is hoped the match at Woodville fair on the 22nd inst, will heal all wounds and abrasions. Ed. WARBLER.]

No person should travel without a box of Ayer's Pills. As a safe and speedy remedy for constipation and all irregularities of the stomach and bowels, they have no equal, and, being skillfully sugar-coated, are pleasant to take, and long retain their virtues.—52-1.

The Doctor's Heavy Brigade.

"They could scarcely believe him when he told them that when in Thuro, some time ago, he on one occasion saw six hundred people asleep in a church."—Speech of Rev. Dr. Guthrie, 20th October, 1867.

O'er their devoted head,
While the law thundered,
Sung and heededless
Snoored the six hundred.
Of its most awful things,
Scrawled on was all the stream,
Neither with shout nor scream
Could he disturb the dream
Of the six hundred.
Terrors to the right of them,
Terrors to the left of them,
Terrors in front of them,
Hell itself plundered
Of its most awful things—
All these unlawful things
Weak-minded preacher sings
At the dumfounded.
Boldly he spoke, and well;
All on deaf ears it fell—
Volleyed and thundered,
For, caring—the truth to tell—
Neither for Heaven nor Hell,
Snoored the six hundred.
Still, with redoubled zeal,
Still he spoke onward,
And, in a wild appeal,
Striking with hand and heel,
Making the pulpit reel—
Shaken and snicker'd—
Call'd them the church's foes—
Threaten'd with endless woes—
Faintly the answer rose
(Proofs of their sweet repose)
From the united noise
Of the six hundred.
L'Envoiy.
Sermons of near an hour,
Too much for human power;
(Extemporaneous batch
Woeftfully blundered);
Fit to turn every pew sick—
Should it be wonder'd!
Churches that will not move
Out of the ancient groove
Through which they've floundered,
If they still lag behind,
Hearers of such a kind
As the six hundred.
G. W. L.

[The above reminds us of the preacher, who seeing all his hearers asleep, roused them with fearful shouts and then lectured them, rebuking them thus, "Ye were asleep, fast asleep, except poor wee Sandy McGregor, the idiot there in the gallery." To which Sandy replied, "Ay, minister, an' ah I were not an idiot I'd be asleep too." Ed. WARBLER.]

A Great Surprise.
Is it store for all who use Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs, the great German-made remedy. Would you believe that it is sold on its merits and that any druggist is authorized by the proprietor of this wonderful remedy to give you a sample bottle free? It never fails to cure acute or chronic coughs. All druggists sell Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs, 50 cents and $1.—52-1.

An Old Omemee Citizen Gone.

The Napanee Beaver says:—All that was mortal of the late Robert Harding was laid to rest in the beautiful churchyard at Adolphustown on Monday last, Sept. 5th. Owing to advancing years and ill-health he had some time since retired from active ministry of the church, and had taken up his residence in this town. Though in his 59th year he was up to the time of his death remarkably active both mentally and physically, retaining all his faculties to the last.

Before leaving Napanee for the place of burial a memorial service was held in St. Mary's Magdalene's church. The chief feature of this service was by Mr. Harding's own request, the celebration of the holy communion which the clergy present and the relatives of the deceased alone received. The following clergy acted as pall-bearers: Revs. Canon Burke and D. P. Bagot of Belleville, Rural Dean Baker, R. Atchison, T. Godden, and F. D. Woodcock, who kept watch on either side of the coffin as it lay in the chamber during the entire service. After the benediction the procession re-formed and moved to the door of the church, where the carriages were in waiting, the choir meanwhile singing the ancient dimittis set to a solemn chant. These words were among the last uttered by the aged minister of the church. Arriving at Adolphustown the procession was met by the Rector Rev. R. F. Fomer and the other clergy, who had assembled, as well as by a large number of Mr. Harding's old parishioners, who, despite the heavy rain and the uncertainty of the hour at which the funeral might be expected, had assembled to pay a last tribute of respect to their former Rector, who had served them faithfully for so many (26) years.
The funeral service, that most beautiful and impressive treasure of the English prayer book, was said in the lovely new U.E.L. memorial church dedicated to the Soldier Saint, Alban the Martyr. The service was conducted by the Rector, the lesson being read by the Rev. A. Jarvis, of Napanee. The Rev. Rural Dean Baker, who was the prayer for the church militant, which was interposed to give opportunity for commemorating the faithful departed with special intention for the deceased. The concluding prayers were said at the grave, the Rector committing the body to the ground, while the Rev. A. L. Geen, deacon, with reverend hand sprinkled the earth upon the dead.
Deceased was born in the City of Limerick, Ireland, in 1804, and educated at the Trinity College, Dublin, passing as a lawyer. In his twentieth year, accompanied by two younger brothers, he came to Canada, and being unable to obtain congenial employment, he took up a farm in the wilderness, where he has since resided. He was a man of broad and liberal views, a ripe scholar and beloved by his parishioners in the front township. He had been growing feeble for the past two years, though his intellect was as bright and keen as ever, and when his final illness came two weeks ago he was fully resigned and prepared for the welcome change. Out of a large family of children he leaves but two alive. Mrs. G. B. Downey, of New York, and Miss Harding, who has nursed and cared for him in his declining years and last illness, as only a loving daughter can do. Though of a quiet and unassuming disposition, deceased made many warm friends and admirers during his residence in Napanee, many of whom were unaware of his illness.

Y.M.C.A. Notes.
The ladies committee of the association will meet on Monday next, the 19th inst. at 4 p.m. for the transaction of regular business. All members are requested to attend, also any other ladies interested in this work.
It will be gratifying to many to know that Messrs. Dundas & Fivale Bros. are now fitting up rooms in their block on the corner of Kent and Cambridge streets for early occupation by the association. This is a decided step in advance and good results may be looked for in the coming months.
The young men's meeting on Sunday afternoon at 4.15 o'clock will be conducted by Mr. Alex. Horns, who will give a short address on "Salvation by grace, not by works." Young men are cordially invited.

Lieut. Alex. Ross has gone to Muskoka for the fall work on the Government work.
Mr. Elleker of Manilla station is having the new freight shed and buildings generally nicely refitted.
Messrs. Delamere, Gainer, Pym and others of Minden passed through town this week en route to Toronto Fair.
Mr. Grills of Manilla, for sometime confined to his home through illness, is recovered sufficiently to be around again.
Thanks to Mr. John T. Perkins of Norland for valuable North Victoria mineral specimens. Mr. Perkins knows many good locations.
Capt. Donnelly of Kingston spent a few days this week in Lindsay on official business. He makes friends every trip he makes to Lindsay.
August 1892 was the hottest for many years. That accounts for the grain being shrunken in certain fields caught in the "milk" in the hot days.
Prof. and Mrs. W. Carlyle of Montreal have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Spier in town. Prof. Carlyle left this week to attend his duties in McGill University the coming week. Mrs. Carlyle remains for visit here.
Sufferers from dyspepsia have only themselves to blame if they fail to test the wonderful curative qualities of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. In purifying the blood, this medicine strengthens every organ of the body, and even the most abused stomach is soon restored to healthy action.—52-1.

LITTLE BRITAIN.
Special to The Warbler.
The third local meeting of the Mariposa Christian Endeavor societies was held in the Methodist church, Little Britain, on Friday evening, Sept. 2nd. A large congregation was present from the different societies, beside many others interested in, or wishing to learn more of Christian Endeavor work. The president, Rev. Mr. Wilson, of Little Britain, opened the meeting with a short, earnest address in which he impressed upon his hearers, that, while those quarterly re-unions are gatherings for social intercourse and spiritual help, they should also be seasons for heart-searching. Another three months with all their opportunities had gone. Had the time been improved as it might have been? Had there been any spiritual advancement? Would the next three months show greater results?

The Rev. Mr. Shier of Oakwood, gave a very instructive address on "Mental Culture." He said that culture is not a few shreds of accomplishments thrown together, but knowledge which fits us for usefulness. The Christian needs culture in order to oppose Christ's enemies. True culture is that gained by a close study of the great model—Christ. A number of short papers were then read on important subjects pertaining to C.E. work. The first on "The Importance of Junior Endeavor work," by Miss E. Graham, was a beautiful paper full of sweet thoughts. The next on "How to make our consecration meetings more profitable," by Mr. Sutton, Valentin, was short and to the point. Some of the thoughts of the paper were:—We must prepare for the meeting by prayer and study. We must come to the meeting in the spirit of prayer. Let us live consecrated lives and we will enjoy the consecration meeting. The third paper, subject—"How may we develop and sustain a christian spirit in our societies?" by Miss Lillie Webster, Glanville, showed deep thought. Some of the points were:—We develop a christian spirit by using our talents; by studying God's word; by prayer. When we cease to pray we cease to be spiritual. This spirit is sustained only by a close walk with Christ. The fourth paper was read by Mr. F. Western, answering in a few pointed words the question "How can we best reach our associate members?" He said that the most effective means of reaching them is through the consistent lives of the active members.

The Rev. Mr. Boynton of Oakwood, dealt with the last subject—"The Pledge" in his usual earnest and eloquent manner. He said that many object to joining the society because they are afraid they may not keep their pledge. Such persons should never think of going through the marriage ceremony, for by so doing they take upon themselves vows just as sacred and as likely to be broken, as the pledge is only our duty put in unmistakable language. The few closing minutes were spent in a consecration meeting, led by the president. He had selected several passages from God's word pointing out the duty and work of the Christian. After those had been read by members in the meeting, several short, earnest prayers were offered asking for guidance and blessing in the coming three months. After the usual handshaking and hearty greetings (without which every C.E. meeting is incomplete) the members dispersed, each, we hope, to live in his or her little world the instruction and help received; and each determined that the next three months shall show a greater advancement in Christian work than Mariposa township has ever known before.
