regretted as they are injuring the white people in business. Many divorce cases have been occasioned in various cities on the coast by employing Chinamen to do house work. When more than one Chinaman is employed, one takes nearly all the money, and the others are practi-cally eleves. The Chinese harems, assignation houses and gambling dives are spoken of as dens where horrible immorality and lasting disease is spread. The country still suffers from the smallpox scourge, introduced and fostered by Chinamen. To remedy all these evils the exculsion of the Chinese is demanded. Resolutions was passed stating that in view of the overcrowded condition of the labor market in this country, money bonuses and other means used to encourage immigration are unnecessary and unjustifiable, and that only emigrants having money should be encouraged to come to Canada.
