REV. PROF. WALLAGE of Victoria University preached the educational sermons in Cambridge street methodist church last Sunday. His addresses were simply excellent, they being thoroughly educative and practical. On one point, however, we cannot agree with the learned professor. He favors religious instruction in public schools. We do not. Beligion is not a thing that can be taught in the ordinary meaning of teaching. How can separate schools ever be abolished if protestant ministers have the privilege of entering public schools and instructing in church ideas? Abolish the bible from the schools entirely. We bespeak for them a good house this evening. OBIT.—On Tuesday, Martha, wife of Mr. Charles Britton, died at the family residence Ridout street, after a short ill ness of five days duration, Mrs. Britton had been in her usual health until Thursday, when she had an attack of dysentry, which, notwithstanding all that medical aid could do, terminated fatally. The late Mrs. Britton, whose maiden name was Parkin, came with her parents to years old, they being amongst the first settlers in Ops, then the first settlers in Ops, then an unbroken wilderness. Nearly fifty years ago she was united in marriage to Mr. Charles Britton, who with two sons was first won and bears date 1851. His Canadian diploma bears date 1866. In 1856 he received his commission as surgeon in the 3rd battalion Victoria county militia, and was made a Commissioner by Chief Justice Draper in 1860. In 1858, on March 10th, he was married to Miss Mariette Every, an old U. E. loyalist family well known in Ontario and Durham counties. Mrs. Every, Mrs. Clark's mother, was one of the Burk family, the first settlers in Bowmanville and Darlington. For thirty-five years Dr. Clark practised his profession in Woodville, retiring some six or seven years ago to Lindsay, where, excepting with a few old friends he gave up practice. A serious injury in being thrown from a buggy was the cause of his retirement from active work. Hundreds in Eldon, Mariposa and Fenelon remember with love their old family physician. Were the crops bad the doctor forgave those in distress their accounts. So whenever any financial misfortune befell any the doctor was the first to their assistance, and ever proved a true friend. In religious matters the old Quaker independence guided his thoughts and actions, and he recognized fully that there is no human mediator between God and man. He was ever an earnest friend of all worthy clergymen, and the first methodist church in Weodville was established through him. Yet he was not a denominationalist, but was kind to all deserving. In politics he imbibed the old spirit of reform which won to its banners able and bright intellects half a century ago. In more recent years, marking the departure of the reform party from the old and one daughter, grown up to man and womanhood, are left to mourn their loss. The funeral on Thursday to Riverside cemetery was largely attended. ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday what might have been a serious accident but which happily turned out otherwise occurred to Mrs. John Cruess of Mariposa. Mrs. Cruess who had come to town was driving home in a covered buggy, by way of Francis street. When near the railway crossing an engine and tender was coming up the track on Victoria Avenue, at which the horse scared and commenced to run, keeping on the road way on beside the track. After running a short distance the horse crossed the track in front of the engine, when the buggy was upset throwing Mrs. Cruess out. She was carried into the house of Mr. R. D. Thexton, where restoratives were administered, she being rendered for a short time unconscious by the shock. Fortunately a slight abrasion of the skir and the nervous shock was the extent of her injuries, she being able to drive home. century ago. In more recent years, marking the departure of the reform party from the old principles, he, like thousands more of the ablest men of the old party, severed his connection with its present leaders, and allied himself with the friends of the tiberal connection with the present leaders, and allied

to be annexation to the United States, a movement which he quietly favored. His friend of forty years, Mr. Birmingham of Eldon, now also of Lindssy, was with him till the last and did all in his power to render the closing years of his life pleasant. Many a pleasant and profitable hour have we spent with the two. To Mr. Birmingham, Mr. Thornbury of Glenarm, Mr. Cameron of Lorneville and many others around Lorneville and Woodville, Mr. Worsley of Lindsay and the Rogers and other families in Mariposa, Dr. Clark ever turned to tried and true friends. He had one son who died in infancy, and leaves one daughter. That estimable lady was married in 1881 to Mr. Thomas Adam well known in Victoria county. He is the youngest surviving son of the late Thomas R. Adam of Lindsay. Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Adam and her three children, with an adopted daughter constitute the family remaining. During his last illness his daughter and adopted daughter were unremitting in attendance, while Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Sproule of Camington has sister, and his brother and sisterin law Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Clark, rendered all the help in their power. Mr. and Mrs. Foeter Crossley and Hunter, evangelists, well-known throughout Canada and England, are expected to visit Lindsay and hold a series of gospel meetings, commencing about the third week in October.

The Frost and Fanshawe Uo'y played the Theatre Royal, Montreal, this seeson for three weeks to crowded houses. This company will appear in the opera house here during fair week, Prices 25c., 35c., and 50c.

The monthly meeting of the church of England temperance society will be held in St. Paul's school room on Monday evening the 26th inst. at 8 o'clock. The Rev. H. C. Dixon of Toronto will address the meeting, and an excellent programme of singing and reading by some of the best local talent will be rendered. All are cordially invital. Rev. Rural Dean Jones of Orillia.

Rev. Rural Dean Jones of Orillia, conducted services for Rev. Mr. Marsh in St. Paul's anglican church here last Sunday. His discourses were masterpieces of earnestness, intelligence and sound Christian thought. The audiences were greatly instructed and delighted.

Strickland, Adame and Howkins will act as pall bearers to the cametary. By special request of the doctor his body was examined by Dr. McAlvine who attended him, and Dr. Poole. The left lung was found completely filled up, and grown to the side. The right lung was also grown to the side and was partly gone. By special request also of the doctor both when strong and when dying, no notice of the funeral was given, no crape or other funeral unnecessaries were worn or used. The funeral and all after arrangements were to be quiet and simple. On another cocasion we purpose giving a more detailed biographical sketch of our dear old friend, the friend of every honest man. No man could be kinder to his family and friends than was Dr. Clark. Mrs. Wm.
