LAKEVIEW-CARTWRIGHT.

Special to The Warder.

THE hum of the threshing machine has almost ceased to exist in this section of the township and the fruits of the harvest have not been very encouraging, besides commanding very low prices; but as we believe Mr. McKinley intends making himself conspicuous by his absence in the near future we hope for better results in the market line. WE notice Mr. John E. Ball has finished a most successful fall at threshing and has brought in his new thresher "The Farmers' Favorite" with his iron steed after having given utmost satisfaction..... We also notice Capt. Ball has almost completed his new and improved thresher which he expects to be a great success.

MR. P. Wright started a bee a humming one day last week in his bush, and the rattle of the axes upon the wood was evidence that the choppers had not forgotten the days of yore; amongst whom were some of the older progenitors for we noticed the form of our genial friend Mr. John Veal.

MRS. Josiah Ball, wife of the "captain, returned from Philadelphia, Pa., on Friday, 2nd inst., after an extended visit of six weeks amongst her relatives. Mrs. six weeks amongst her relatives. Mrs. B- reports Mr. McKinley very much (tariff) ied.

WHILE we have made mention of the above we must not lose sight of a more important feature in this neighborhood. Wm. Ball has about completed for Capt. Ball another new and elegant house upon another part of his property, viz., that part which he has apportioned to his son, Josiah M., for his future use. William has made "as he always does" an excellent finish, for he has shown by his architectural skill that he is master of his trade. THE swift little steamer "Express" has been taken out of the cradle of the deep and placed upon another cradle which navigation opens in 1898.

REv. Mr. Falis preached a very excellent sermon in Zion church a week ago last Sabbath. It is evident the Rev. gentleman is a reader of THE WARDER, as his peculiar text and style of preaching is similiar to that of the eminent Brooklyn divine, he having taken for his text "I am | ed. permanent inability of the kidneys to pertheir music," which he expounded in a form their functions follows, which may tervery impressive manner.

DOWNEY VILLE. Special to The Warder. OBITUARY.-It is with feelings of heartfelt sorrow that we chronicle the death of Mr. William Lehane, one of our oldest and most respected citizens. Mr. Lehane PUREST, STRONGEST, BEST. was born in the county Cork, Ireland, on the 4th March 1807, and departed this life on Friday the 2od inst., at the advanced age of 85 years, 9 months. He came to Canada in 1881 and settled on the north halt of lot 9, in the 9th concession of Emily, where he lived until the death of his second wife, Aug. 1889, after which six een years of happy wedded life she died leaving him a small family of eleven small children. His second marriage, oldest son, James, is in Iowa, U.S., the second, Denis, is in Toronto, the third, Michael, is in Peterboro, and William, sent. Death is in our land. The Revs. the youngest, is on a farm adjoining the conveyed to St. Luke's church, Downeyville, on Monday, the 5th inst., followed by a multitude of sorrowing friends, the cortege reaching from his son's residence to the church one mile distant. A solemn nephew, Rev. F. P. McEvay of Hamilton. assisted by Rev. P. J. Rudkins, rector of St. Peters' cathedral, Peterboro, Rev. T. Collins of Peterboro, and Rev. M. E. Connelly, parish priest. A very feeling christian and a citizen, was preached by Rev. J. H. Coty of Hamilton. Rev. Vicar-general of Lindsay, ably assisted the choir. After mass the remains were borne to their final resting place in the catholic cemetery, Emily. Any attempt on our part to summarize the many vir-
