ON SUNDAY LAST Rev. Dr. Parsons of Knox church, Toronto, conducted divine service morning and evening in St. Andrew's church. The building was crowded at both services, the Reverend gentleman's well known ability as an expounder of sacred writ, no doubt bringing many out to hear him. On Monday evening he delivered a lecture—Subject, "The latter day Glory." The church was also crowded on this occasion, the lecture being not only a treat, but valuable information to all who were privileged to hear it.

WE SELDOM HEAR a temperance sermon delivered with more earnest, heartfelt power, than that given by the Rev. Robt. Johnston, a week ago last Sunday evening in St. Andrew's church. A sermon calculated to stir the most careless thinker, and awaken him to a sense of the responsibility resting upon each man towards his fellow being—not just how far he may go, and not meet with condemnation, but in how much his example may affect his brother—a sermon filled with the appalling effects that invariably follow upon habitual indulgence in stimulants and vitals, a sermon replete in that greatest of divine graces—Charity, and that in its broadest sense. The deep, and it is to be hoped, lasting impression made by Mr. Johnston's eloquent discourse upon the large audience was plainly evidenced by the ready response of almost every member, to his appeal—couched in most loving language to abstain for at least, three months from all intoxicating beverages.—COM.

W. W. LOGAN recently sold Mr. R. Hannah a Cabinet Grand piano, said to be one of the finest in town.

LITTLE FOLKS CORNER.—To my dear little friends.—I have got as far as Montreal now and will be in Lindsay about the 20th. I have sent Hughan & Co. a lot more patches, albums, pink goods, china vases, cups and saucers, and have given them instructions to sell them at half the price charged by dealers who are not my agents. Write to them and tell them just what you want and I will try and attend to it when I come. Affectionately yours, SANTA CLAUS.—65-1.

THE WARDER.—For the past two or three weeks THE WARDER has not contained as much solid reading matter as it generally does, the cause being that a larger space had to be given to advertising to our Lindsay merchants, who recognize that an advertisement in THE WARDER pays. To our numerous readers we would say, read, mark, learn and inwardly digest those advertisements, and you will be amply repaid for your trouble, provided you call and secure the good bargains that are offered in the advertisements of business men in THE WARDER.

CONCERT.—The concert under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society, at the residence of Mr. W. McGuire and Miss DeGard of Uxbridge, rendering a clarinet solo and the latter a soprano. Miss Gena King gave a recitation, Miss Jackson two solos, Mr. D. McSwain two solos, and a quartette by the Misses Jackson, King and Messrs. McSwain and Morgan was the contribution of the Lindsay contingent. The Misses Kerr, Glendinning, Coon, and the Manilla choir also gave some choice selections. We regret that owing to absence from home we could not attend, as we had purposed doing.
